UNIVERSITY POLICY SA-04.01-06/01

DATE: June 21, 2001

TO: University of West Florida Community

FROM: Morris L. Marx, President

SUBJECT: Student Organization Disciplinary Process

AUTHORITY: Section 240.227 F.S.

Policy/Purpose: Interprets Rules 6C-6.010 and 6C6-3.023, F.A.C.

Any violation of law or rules of the university may jeopardize the status of a student organization and could result in one or more of the following actions:

a. written warning;

b. probation, which is defined as a loss of some or all privileges for a specified period of time; and

c. cancellation of the organization’s registration with the university.

The organization will be notified of the charges by the Director of University Commons and Student Activities and provided a fair and impartial hearing.

Appropriate action for violation of law and rules and regulations of the university will be recommended by the Director of University Commons and Student Activities to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs. The organization will be notified of sanctions in writing by the Director of University Commons and Student Activities. Decisions may be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs within ten business days of notification.
