(1) Purposes. The University of North Florida provides a comprehensive federal, state and institutional student financial aid program that consists of grants, scholarships, fellowships, out of state fee waivers, employment, and loans. (a) To effectively deliver financial aid to students who without such help could not attend a university.

(b) To attract and retain new students and to reward presently enrolled students who, by their demonstrated curricular or extracurricular performance, enhance the institutional programs and the reputation of the University of North Florida.

(c) To insure that historically under-represented groups have access to higher education and the opportunity to progress satisfactorily toward a degree.
(d) To recognize and reward students who have demonstrated exceptional scholastic achievement, who have demonstrated special talents and who are pursuing studies in designated areas of emphasis of the University.

Applicants must have applied for admission to UNF when application is made for financial assistance. Awards will be made only to those who have been accepted for admission to the university.

The burden of proof in discipline matters rests with the complainant. Proof that an action did or did not occur must be based on the preponderance of the evidence.

In the event that the student fails to appear and participate in disciplinary hearings after proper notification, the hearing will be rescheduled. Failure on the part of the student to appear for a hearing rescheduled for this reason empowers the Judicial Officer or Hearing Panel to proceed in the absence of the student and to reach a finding based upon the best available evidence.

7. The student’s enrollment will remain unchanged throughout the procedure (except in such emergency situations as noted in (6)(b) and in Section (5) Off-Campus Actions).

8. All pending student conduct cases must be adjudicated prior to awarding of an academic degree.

9. The Presiding Officer will determine if there is a petition from the accused student to hold an open hearing. If none, the hearing will be closed.

10. The Presiding Officer will ask for the charges and evidence to be presented.

11. The Presiding Officer will ask the person charged to state his or her name.

12. The Presiding Officer will ask the advisor (if any) to identify himself. The advisor may confer with the student at any point; however, the advisor may not cross-examine witnesses or members of the Hearing Panel.

13. The student is asked to plead not guilty, guilty with extenuating circumstances, or guilty to each charge of violating the Student Conduct Code.

14. The Hearing Panel or Presiding Officer may ask questions of the accused, the Judicial Officer or any witness before rendering a verdict.

15. The student shall not be forced to present testimony which would be self-incriminating; however, the University is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any criminal prosecution.

16. After announcing a verdict, the Hearing Panel may review possible sanctions with the Judicial Officer before announcing the sanction(s) to be imposed.

17. It is the responsibility of the Presiding Officer of the Hearing Panel to maintain decorum in the hearing room.

18. The decision of guilt or innocence shall be made solely on the evidence presented at the hearing.

(d) Procedures For Cases Involving Allegations of Sexual Assault. Students bringing sexual assault charges against a fellow student under the Student Conduct System are afforded a number of additional protections.

1. Evidence of the alleged victim’s past sexual history, including opinion evidence, reputation evidence, and evidence of specific instances of the alleged victim’s sexual conduct, shall not be admissible. Under no circumstances is past sexual history admissible to prove consent.

2. The complainant shall be notified of the outcome of the hearing.

3. All reasonable efforts will be made by the University to accommodate special requests by the alleged victim relating to campus housing and course enrollment when proximity of residence or enrollment in a course section has the potential to cause discomfort or embarrassment.

(7) Appeals Procedure:

(a) A student wishing to appeal the outcome of a Student Conduct hearing must do so in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs within five school days of receipt of the final written disposition of a case. An appeal may be made by any principal involved and must be based on one or more of the following grounds:

1. Prejudicial error as to a question of policy or procedure.
2. Abuse of discretion by a hearing panel or officer in that the sanction(s) imposed is (are) excessive.
3. New evidence is available that could impact the decision of guilt or innocence.

(b) The student’s enrollment will remain unchanged pending the appeal except as noted above in section (a)2. for emergency situations.

(d) A principal wishing to appeal the decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs to the University President must do so in writing within five school days after receipt of the decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

(e) The University President has final authority in these matters.

(8) Conduct Records: Student Conduct Records are maintained in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs separate from students’ academic files, with the exception of cases in which permanent expulsion is the outcome. Records regarding students who are found guilty of an offense are kept active until five calendar years after the sanction is imposed.

(9) Conduct Code Review: The Vice President for Student Affairs shall review the Student Conduct Code and University judicial system annually as required by Section 240.2097, F.S.

(1) Perquisites. No employee shall receive any perquisites from the University of North Florida without approval of the Department of Administration which approval shall indicate whenever appropriate the money value placed thereon.

(2) Benefits, Fringe.

(a) Free Course Enrollment.

1. Full-time Administrative and Professional Employees and Faculty members of the State University System who have been employed for at least six months in the State University System and who meet academic requirements, may be allowed to enroll for up to six (6) credit hours of on-campus instruction per term without payment of the registration fee, provided that such student credit hours generated shall not be used in calculating the student credit hours produced per full-time equivalent teacher; and provided further that this employee’s fringe benefit shall be granted only on a space available basis. If an employee enrolls for a course, that period, including time taken to and from classes, will be charged to compensatory or annual leave unless the course work is required by the University as an extension of training for his current position. In the latter cases, the employee will not be required to make up the time lost while attending classes and it will be regarded as time worked.

2.a. Permanent full-time state employees, except those State University System employees covered under subparagraph 6C9-4.001(2)(a1., F.A.C., who at the time of registration have been employed for at least six (6) months and who meet academic requirements may be allowed to enroll on a space available basis for up to six (6) credit hours of on-campus instruction per term without payment of the registration fee. The instruction must be in a job related course or program as determined by the employee and the supervisor designated by the agency.

b. Each state employee participating in this program shall file at the time of registration forms prescribed by the University of North Florida and the Department of Administration, including a certification signed by the employee and the designated supervisor that the course or program is job related. This certification shall also include a statement that the employee is not being paid by the State for the time involved and is qualified to participate.

3. Space available, as used in the context of this rule, refers to the enrollment capacity within a scheduled course or program offering. The University of North Florida will establish minimum and maximum levels of enrollments as well as the period of enrollment for state employees registering for these courses and program offerings.

4. The University of North Florida will establish criteria for designating courses and program offerings where direct costs increase with each student admitted. Space available enrollment as outlined above is not applicable in offerings so designated. These would include but not be limited to Thesis, Dissertation, and Directed Individual Study.

5. All student credit hours resulting from this program will be separately identified in enrollment reports by the University of North Florida.

6. Any state employee registering under this program for more than six (6) credit hours shall pay registration fees for the hours in excess of six (6). When different course levels are involved, the fees for the six (6) credit hours with the higher cost shall be waived.

7. Persons who supervise interns from institutions within the State University System may be given one non-transferable certificate for each full quarter during which the person serves as a directing teacher for university students engaging in classroom instruction. The University of North Florida also includes in this program persons who supervise interns where the supervisor is required to engage in direct supervision of an intern for 300 contact hours. For the purpose of this program, the 300 contact hours may be incurred over a number of quarters provided there is at least 75 hours of direct supervision per quarter.
Programs outside of traditional classroom instruction that are eligible for participation in this program include, but are not limited to the following: counselor education, rehabilitation counseling, music therapy, speech pathology, and audio therapy, public administration and allied health sciences. Participation in this program must be based on the fact that intern supervision outside of classroom instruction is an essential part of the course of instruction and degree requirement for the students in the respective area of endeavor. The certificate entitles the holder to register at any state university by payment of only the building fee, the capital improvements fee, the student financial aid trust fund fee for each credit hour attempted for up to one term of instruction including courses offered through continuing education programs of the State University System. The certificate must be signed by an appropriate academic officer of the University of North Florida. The certificate will be valid for not more than five years from the date of issue. One non-transferable certificate will be given to persons who attend an approved required training session for the preparation of intern supervisors.

6C9-4.003 Meritorious Service Awards Program.
(1) The University of North Florida (UNF) Meritorious Service Awards Program provides for recognition of eligible employees.
(2) The University is authorized to expend State funds for recognition and awards to employees in compliance with this rule. Any award will be contingent upon the availability of funds. Nothing in this rule is intended to govern the expenditure of private funds to which the University may have access.
(3) The awards provided for herein shall acknowledge employee achievement in the following three components:
   (a) Suggestion – A procedure or idea submitted by a faculty member or University Support Personnel System (USPS) employee that, when implemented, results in eliminating or reducing expenditures, improving operations, or generating additional revenues for the State University System. Three types of suggestions may be considered:
   1. Tangible, i.e., having a measurable outcome in terms of cost savings or revenue generation;
   2. Intangible, i.e., proposing improvements in procedure that enhance safety, convenience, etc., but cannot be calculated in dollar terms; or
   3. Trigger, i.e., not directly providing the solution to the problem being addressed, but triggering the action necessary to bring about a solution that might have been overlooked otherwise.
   (b) Superior Accomplishment – Exemplary performance by faculty members, Administrative and Professional (A & P) or USPS employees, that is deemed to have significantly contributed to their respective field, thereby reflecting positively on the caliber of the University of North Florida.
   (c) Service – Sustained satisfactory service with the University of North Florida by faculty members, A & P or USPS employees.
   1. Eligible employees may be recognized for service upon retirement.
   2. Eligible employees also may be recognized upon achieving increments of five continuous years of satisfactory service at the University of North Florida.
(4) Suggestion Program Component.
   (a) In order to be eligible, suggestions must be submitted on form UNF-750 and signed by the suggester(s). Form UNF-750, effective December 1, 1987, may be obtained from the Office of Human Resources and is hereby incorporated by reference. The following suggestions are ineligible:
   1. Suggestions that deal with personal grievances or compensation and classification of positions;
   2. Suggestions which could be implemented by the employee without prior clearance or approval from a supervisor or department chair and are a logical extension of an assigned duty and responsibility; or
   3. Suggestions which are a duplicate of, or significantly similar to, a suggestion which has been adopted by another university of the State University System.
   (b) Suggestion System Coordinator – The Suggestion System Coordinator, who is appointed by the University President upon recommendation of the Director of Human Resources, is responsible for the suggestion component by administering internal procedures for timely processing of suggestions, assuring appropriate evaluations, following up on recommendations to adopt or not adopt a suggestion, and promoting the suggestion system with support from other designated individuals, as appropriate.
   (c) Employee Suggestions.
   1. Employee suggestions shall be processed and a final determination made by 90 days from the date it is received by the Coordinator. Adoption of an employee suggestion must be made within this prescribed period. Extensions, not to exceed another 90 days, may be granted by the University President based on the following criteria:
   a. The suggestion was properly documented, and failure to make a final determination within 90 days was not caused by any action of the employee making the suggestion.
   b. The Director of the Office of Human Resources recommends the extension.
2. When an employee’s suggestion is significantly modified during the evaluation process so that the suggestion is adopted in a different form, the employee shall be eligible for an award if the original suggestion was directly responsible for the University’s taking action; under these circumstances, the suggestion will be deemed a “trigger”.

3. A suggestion which is not adopted will be kept on file for one year from the date originally received by the Coordinator. The original suggester will be eligible for an award as provided by this rule if the suggestion is adopted during this time. Thereafter, the suggestion must be resubmitted by any eligible employee before it can be reconsidered.

4. If the University of North Florida adopts and implements a suggestion previously implemented by another university, the suggester will not be entitled to any additional monetary reward.

5. A suggestion may be made by a group of employees and the amount of any award shall be divided among those employees making that suggestion.

6. Tangible suggestions may be recognized through cash awards, U.S. Savings Bonds, or other items in lieu of cash. Normally, the amount of cash or the cost of the bonds or other items shall not exceed 10% of the first year’s actual savings or revenue increase.

   a. Cash awards for tangible suggestions will be made after the suggestion has been implemented and actual savings or revenues for the first year have been calculated. However, a partial award may be made if the University wishes to provide recognition to an employee in a more timely manner and chooses to measure benefits based on other criteria. Final payment should be paid promptly after the first year’s savings or revenues have been documented.

   b. Any payment of cash to an employee as the result of a fraudulent action award must be recovered from the employee.

7. The amount of a cash award for an intangible or “trigger” suggestion that is adopted shall be based on a prorated measure of the suggestions’ worth, not to exceed $300.00 in cost. U.S. Savings Bonds or other items awarded in lieu of cash shall not exceed $300.00 in cost. Certificates, pins, plaques, letters of commendation, or other appropriate tokens of recognition may be awarded in lieu of cash to honor eligible employees for intangible or “trigger” awards, provided that the cost of the token does not exceed $50.00.

8. The acceptance of an award for any suggestion adopted through this program shall constitute an agreement by the employee that the employee waives all claims, immediate and future, on the State of Florida, regardless of the use of the suggestion.

5) Superior Accomplishment Component.

   a. Awards for superior accomplishment may be presented to eligible employees on an individual basis or collectively for outstanding group performance. No lump sum bonus will be awarded to employees based solely on their performance.

   b. No cash award granted under the superior accomplishment component shall exceed $1,000.00. U.S. Savings Bonds or other items in lieu of cash may be awarded, provided the cost of such item does not exceed $1,000.00.

   c. The University may award certificates, pins, plaques, letters of commendation, or other appropriate tokens of recognition for superior accomplishment, provided that the cost of the token does not exceed $50.00.

6) Service Award Component.

   a. The University may recognize retiring employees whose service has been satisfactory. Awards for retirees may take the form of suitable framed certificates, pins, or other tokens of recognition and appreciation, provided such awards do not cost in excess of $50.00 each.

   b. The University may recognize employees who have attained continuous satisfactory service in increments of five years. Awards for satisfactory service may take the form of suitable framed certificates, pins, or other tokens of recognition, provided such awards do not cost in excess of $10.00 each.

7) The University shall submit to the Board a calendar year report outlining their level of participation in the Meritorious Service Awards Program.

   a. The report shall include at least the following items:

      1. The number of suggestions made;
      2. The number of awards made to employees for adopted suggestions;
      3. The actual cost savings realized as a result of implementing employee suggestions;
      4. Total expenditures incurred by the University for providing awards to employees for adopted suggestions;
      5. The number of employees recognized for superior accomplishments; and
      6. The number of employees recognized for continuous satisfactory service to the University.

   b. The University’s Office of Human Resources shall be responsible for regular monitoring of departments in order to gather data regarding the number of individual employees recognized under any component of this program and the monetary impact of such recognition.

(5) Procedure for Filing a Complaint.

(a) The President may delegate to the EEO Officer the authority and responsibility to receive, conciliate and investigate complaints of sexual harassment, and to make recommendations to the Vice President under whose administrative authority the person against whom the complaint has been lodged falls (hereinafter referred to as the appropriate Vice President).

(b) Any applicant for employment, employee or student who believes that he/she is a victim of sexual harassment may seek guidance and counseling by requesting an interview with the EEO Officer. The Complainant will be advised of the options available through University procedures, through the collective bargaining agreement, through the Florida Commission on Human Relations, through the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and any others that may currently exist or may subsequently be enacted. The EEO Officer will also provide the opportunity to resolve the complaint informally without invoking the investigatory procedures set forth below. Any discussions at this level will be handled with utmost discretion.

(c) If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, and if the Complainant desires to avail himself/herself of the formal options available pursuant to this rule, then a written complaint of sexual harassment must be filed. No formal action, including investigation, may be undertaken unless and until a formal complaint is filed. This provision shall not limit the University in any way from initiating its own investigation and taking appropriate action should such be deemed warranted under the circumstances presented.

(d) After receiving the signed written complaint, the EEO Officer shall:
1. Notify the Complainant and the person against whom the complaint has been filed of the complaint, of the allegations contained therein and provide an opportunity for response thereto. 4. File with the appropriate Vice President a written report detailing the findings of the investigation and a recommendation of appropriate action.

5. The investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be performed on a confidential basis, and all means necessary to safeguard the rights of the person against whom the complaint has been filed, the Complainant, witnesses, and any others involved in the proceedings, shall be utilized.

(e) The report and recommendation of the EEO Officer shall be submitted to the appropriate Vice President. If, after reviewing the report and recommendation, the Vice President determines that the complaint is without merit, the Vice President shall render a written decision dismissing the complaint. If, after reviewing the report and recommendation, the Vice President determines that disciplinary action is warranted, the Complainant and the person against whom the complaint has been filed will be given written notice of the proposed disciplinary action and the reasons therefor. The written notice will also advise the person against whom the complaint has been filed that he/she has the right to appear before the Vice President at an investigatory interview and submit written or oral evidence on his/her behalf. The Complainant shall be notified of any investigatory interview and shall also have the right to appear and present evidence at the investigatory interview. After reviewing all of the evidence, including any evidence submitted at the investigatory interview, the Vice President shall render a written decision either dismissing the complaint or taking appropriate action. A copy of the written decision shall be sent via certified mail to the Complainant and to the person against whom the complaint has been filed. The President may delegate to the appropriate Vice President the authority to take disciplinary action, including dismissal or expulsion, under this subsection.

(f) Subject to the limitations set forth below in subsections (8)(a) and (b), either the Complainant or the person against whom the complaint was filed may appeal the decision of the Vice President to the President. After reviewing the decision of the Vice President, and all other evidence upon which the decision was based, the President shall render a final written decision, affirming, modifying, or reversing the decision of the Vice President. A copy of the President’s written decision shall be sent via certified mail to the Complainant and to the person against whom the complaint has been filed.

(g) All of the above procedures apply to vendors and non-employee contractors, except that the EEO Officer may consult with the appropriate administrative officer of the University to determine procedures for investigation and the action that will be taken. Action can include revocation of the contract when it is deemed necessary.

(6) Time Limitation for Receipt of Formal Complaints, Investigation, and Disposition.

(a) Any written complaint filed under this section must be filed with the EEO Officer within sixty (60) calendar days after the alleged occurrence of the harassment incident.

(b) Upon receipt of a written complaint, the EEO Officer shall render a written report and recommendation within twenty (20) working days. This time period may be extended at the discretion of the EEO Officer should an extension be necessary in order to ensure a full, fair and complete investigation. The EEO Officer shall give notice to the parties if such an extension is deemed necessary.

(c) The Vice President shall render a written decision dismissing the complaint or initiating formal disciplinary action within ten (10) working days of receipt of the EEO Officer’s report and recommendation. The person against whom the complaint has been filed shall notify the Vice President within five (5) working days of receipt of the notice of proposed disciplinary action of his/her desire to appear before the Vice President and present written or oral evidence at an investigatory interview. In cases where an investigatory interview is conducted, the Vice President shall render a written decision dismissing the complaint or taking appropriate disciplinary action within ten (10) working days after the investigatory interview.

(d) Any appeal to the President must be filed with the President within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Vice President’s decision. The President shall render a final written decision within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the notice of appeal.

(7) Retaliation Procedure.

(a) Complainants who feel that they have been retaliated against for exercising their rights under this Sexual Harassment Rule shall have the right to file a retaliation complaint with the EEO Officer.

(b) Retaliation complaints shall be handled in the same manner and utilizing the same procedures set forth above in subsection (5).

(8) Election of Remedies; Complainant’s Right to Seek Remedy Outside the University.

(a) The doctrine of election of remedies shall apply to complaints filed pursuant to this rule. Should a Complainant elect to pursue an alternative remedy available to him/her, including the filing of a grievance pursuant to the collective bargaining agreement, or pursuant to the University’s Career Service rules, the filing of any such grievance shall operate as a waiver of the Complainant’s right to file a complaint and avail himself/herself of the procedures available under this rule. Should a grievance be filed pursuant to an alternative remedy and subsequent to the filing of a Complaint under this rule but before proceedings under this rule have been completed, the filing of any such grievance nonetheless will act as a waiver, and proceedings pursuant to this rule shall be terminated.

(b) The doctrine of election of remedies shall also apply to appeals filed by persons against whom a complaint has been filed. The filing of an appeal pursuant to an alternative remedy by a person against whom a complaint has been filed, including the filing of a grievance under the collective bargaining agreement, the filing of an appeal to the Career Service Commission, or the filing of a petition for a hearing pursuant to Section 120.57, F.S., shall operate as a waiver of the right to appeal to the President the decision of a Vice President pursuant to this rule.

(c) The filing of a complaint under this rule shall not affect a Complainant’s right to file a timely charge of discrimination pursuant to an appropriate federal or state statute, including the filing of a timely charge with the Florida Commission on Human Relations or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

(b) In the event of a break in service for more than four consecutive months in a year, only service following such break shall be counted in determining years of employment under this section. “Break in service” is defined as absence, not including approved leaves of absence, following which the employee is treated as a new employee.

(c) An employee who receives a written notice that the employee will not be offered further appointment shall be entitled upon request to a written statement within 10 working days from date of receipt of request of the basis for the decision not to reappoint.

6C9-4.026 Grievance Procedure - Non-Unit Faculty and Administrative and Professional Employees.

(1) Purpose.
(a) The purpose of this rule is to promote a prompt and efficient procedure for the investigation and resolution of grievances filed by Administrative and Professional staff and Faculty personnel not included in a collective bargaining unit.
(b) All problems should be resolved, whenever possible, before the filing of a grievance, and open communication is encouraged so that resort to the formal grievance procedure will not normally be necessary.
(c) It is the intent of this procedure to provide a complete response to a grievance but not to encourage multiple processing of the same issue. Therefore, if, prior to or while seeking resolution of a dispute under this rule, a grievant seeks resolution of the matter in any other forum, administrative or judicial, the University shall have no obligation to entertain or proceed further with the matter pursuant to this rule. Further, since it is not intended that the grievance procedure be a devise for appellate review, the response of the President or his designee to a recommended order of a presiding officer acting pursuant to Chapter 120, F.S., or to other individuals or groups having appropriate jurisdiction in any other procedure shall not be an act or omission giving rise to a grievance under this procedure.
(d) All time limits contained in this rule may be extended by agreement of the parties. Upon failure of the University or its representative to provide a decision within the time limits provided in this rule, the grievant may appeal to the next appropriate step. Upon this failure of the grievant or counsel to file an appeal within the time limits provided in this rule, the grievance shall be deemed to have been resolved at the prior step.

(2) Definitions.
(a) The term “grievance” means a dispute concerning promotion, non-renewal and termination of employment contracts, salary, work assignment, annual evaluation, layoff and recall, and other rights accruing to grievants pursuant to Chapters 6C-5 and 6C9-4, Florida Administrative Code.
(b) The term “grievant” means a member or members of the University of North Florida Administrative and Professional staff and Faculty personnel not included in a collective bargaining unit whose rights have been directly affected by an act or omission of the University or its representative and who has filed a grievance.
(c) The term “days” means calendar days. In the event an action falls due on Saturday, Sunday, or a State holiday, the action will be considered timely if it is accomplished by 5:00 p.m. on the following business day.
(d) The term “substantial interest” means an act or omission involving termination, suspension, or other discipline for just cause, non-renewal of employment contract, salary and layoff.
(e) The term “university” means the University of North Florida.

(3) Grievance Procedures.
(a) Step One – All grievances will be filed with person designated by the President as Step One representative for the area of the University in which the grievant performs duties (such as Academic Affairs, the College, Administration and Planning, Student Affairs, and University Relations) within 25 days from the date following the act or failure to act giving rise to the grievance, or 25 days from the date the grievant knew or should have known of the act or omission.
1. The written grievance should contain the grievant’s name; name and address of counsel, if any; specific rules or statutes claimed to have been violated; a statement of the grievance, including the acts or omissions which are claimed to have given rise to the grievance; remedy sought; signature and date. A copy of the grievance should be provided by the grievant to the Director of the University Personnel Relations.
2. A Step One meeting must be scheduled by the Step One representative no later than 15 days after receipt of the grievance. In advance of Step One meeting, the grievant has the right upon request to a copy of any identifiable documents relative to the grievance. At this meeting, the grievant has the right to present any evidence in support of the grievance.
3. Within 15 days after the scheduled meeting, the Step One representative will issue a written decision, stating the reasons for the decision. The decision will include a finding as to whether the grievance concerns a substantial interest in the grievant and/or whether any issue of fact material to the grievance remains in dispute.

(b) Step Two.

1. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved and it has not been determined that a substantial interest of the grievant is not involved, the grievant may file a written request for review to the President within 15 days of the date of receipt of the Step One decision. The President or designee will schedule a meeting with the grievant no later than 15 days after the request for review was filed. The meeting will offer the opportunity for the grievant to present written or oral evidence in support of the grievance no later than 25 days after the meeting, the President will issue to the grievant a written decision on the matter, stating the reasons for the decision.

2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved and it has been determined that a substantial interest of the grievant is involved, the grievant may file with the President a written appeal for review no later than 25 days after receipt of the Step One decision. If determined in the Step One decision that material facts remain in dispute, the President or designee or a hearing officer assigned by the Division of Administrative Hearings (DOAH) will conduct a hearing according to provisions contained in Section 120.57(1), F.S. If a Section 120.57, F.S., hearing is waived (in writing) by all parties, the hearing may be conducted as provided by Section 120.57(2), F.S.

(2) Termination and Suspension.

(a) The appointment of a non-unit faculty or an A & P staff member may be terminated or suspended during its term for just cause. The employee shall be given written notice of termination or suspension by the President or his designee. The notice shall state the reasons for the termination or suspension. The termination or suspension imposed under this subsection shall take effect when either the time for filing a grievance under Rule 6C9-4.026, F.A.C., as applicable has passed, or, in the event a grievance is filed, after final administrative action has been taken thereon. During the period following notice, the employee may, at the discretion of the President or his designee, be reassigned.

(b) The President or his designee retains the right to impose disciplinary action, other than termination or suspension, for just cause. The employee shall be given written notice of any disciplinary action. The President or his designee shall state in the notice the reasons for the disciplinary action. Any disciplinary action taken under this section shall be subject to the grievance procedure found in Rule 6C9-4.026, F.A.C. Within two work days, excluding weekends and official holidays, the President or President's designee shall serve written notice upon the employee, including a statement of the reasons for any action taken. If the employee has been suspended without pay and ultimately prevails in the grievance procedure, the employee shall be reinstated with back pay.

For the purpose of this paragraph, an investigation shall be considered active as long as it is continuing with a reasonable, good faith anticipation that a finding will be made in the foreseeable future. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an investigation is inactive if no finding is made within 90 days after the complaint is filed.

3. Disciplinary proceedings – Records maintained for the purposes of any disciplinary proceeding brought against an employee shall be confidential until a final decision is made in the proceeding. The record of any disciplinary proceeding, including any evidence presented, shall be open to inspection by the employee at all times.

   (2) The Director of Human Resources is the custodian of the central personnel files of University employees. All requests for inspection and/or duplication of personnel records must be made to the Office of Human Resources. Personnel files of faculty, undergraduate student employees and other employees will be under the custodial responsibility of the respective vice presidents, deans or directors. The custodians of such records are responsible for designating, in a manner consistent with the provisions of this rule, those University personnel who have access to limited access records and other employee materials not open to the public. Any University personnel who have access to such records and materials shall maintain their confidentiality.

   (3) Records which are identified in this rule as “limited access” records are confidential and are not subject to inspection under the provisions of Section 119.07(1), F.S. Limited access records shall be available for inspection only by the employee who is the subject of the records, the employee’s representative, university officials who use the information in carrying out their responsibilities, peer committees responsible for evaluating employee performance, and arbitrators or others engaged by the parties to resolve disputes, or by others by court order. Examples of such records are those resulting from academic evaluation processes such as tenure, promotion, annual evaluation, student evaluation of teaching, Teaching Incentive Program (TIP), compression/inversion, other faculty awards, and merit increases.

   2. Records maintained for the purposes of any investigation of employee misconduct. The records shall be open to University personnel conducting the investigation, the administrator responsible for the appointment and assignment of the employee investigated, and their respective designees. To the extent necessary to meet the due process requirements of applicable University rules, policies, or collective bargaining agreements, certain records of the investigation may be open to the employee investigated at the time indicated in the applicable rules, policies, or agreements. A notice of proposed disciplinary action is confidential until a letter of discipline is issued or a decision is made not to proceed further with disciplinary action.

   a. An investigation is presumed inactive if no finding is made within ninety (90) days, but the University may overcome that presumption through appropriate documentation in the records.
b. For sexual harassment investigations, portions of such records which identify the complainant, a witness, or information which could reasonably lead to the identification of the complainant or a witness, retain their confidential status even after the investigation is closed.

3. Records maintained for the purposes of any disciplinary proceeding brought against an employee or of any grievance proceeding for enforcement of a collective bargaining agreement. Such records shall be confidential until a final decision is made in the proceeding. The records shall be open to University personnel conducting the proceeding, the administrator responsible for the appointment and assignment of the employee, and other University personnel representing the University in the proceeding. 6C9-5.1010 Right to Appeal.
6C9-5.1011 Disposition of Fees and Fines Collected.
6C9-5.1012 Construction Contractor Vehicles on UNF Campus.

6C9-5.001 Traffic and Parking Regulations.
The purpose of this rule is to govern the use of vehicles at the University of North Florida.

(1) General.
(a) The motor vehicle regulations set forth herein are applicable to all persons operating or parking a motor vehicle on properties of the University of North Florida. University traffic rules shall be enforced on all University roads and grounds at all times of the day and night throughout the calendar year. University police are authorized and empowered to enforce these motor vehicle regulations and to provide for the safety of persons on University property.
(b) All Duval County traffic ordinances which are not in conflict or inconsistent with these regulations and all State of Florida traffic laws shall be enforced by the University Police.
(c) The University Police shall enforce University traffic rules on the campus and may make arrests and issue citations. University police officers may pursue violators off campus to make arrests and may request the assistance of law enforcement officers from adjacent areas in other jurisdictions.
(d) The University does not assume any responsibility for motor vehicles or their contents while they are operated or parked on University property.
(e) University parking or traffic citations shall be treated as minor infractions of University regulations with the rights of appeal. Any person who operates a motor vehicle on campus, as a condition of such operation, shall be deemed to have consented thereby to have his or her appeal adjudicated through the internal appeals process of the University. The right of such appeal does not apply to any State Uniform Traffic Citation which is returnable to, or scheduled for a hearing before, the Duval County Court.
(f) Copies of traffic and parking regulations and schedules of fees – parking decals and citation fines – are available from University Parking Services, the University Police, and the Cashier’s window.

(2) Registration Regulations.
(a) Any motor vehicle parked on University property during designated hours must display a valid University parking decal or parking permit. Use of a motor vehicle on UNF property is a privilege, not a right, and is made available only under the policies established by the University Traffic and Parking Regulations as contained in this rule and currently in effect.
(b) All motor vehicle and parking regulations, except permit requirements, are in effect 24 hours a day. Parking decals or parking permits are required from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday. The purchase of a parking permit does not guarantee a parking space, except for those spaces specifically posted as reserved. The purchase of a Parking Garage Reserved Parking permit does not guarantee a parking space within the garage as a greater number of decals will be sold than are available spaces.
(c) Vehicles used by members of the faculty, staff, students (full or part-time), concessionaire employees, and others who regularly operate a vehicle on campus must be registered during the first day the vehicle is on campus. Vehicle registrations expire on the expiration date indicated on the decal or permit. All visitors must purchase a non-refundable parking permit when parking on campus.

DAILY PARKING PERMITS $1.00

(3) Vehicle Registration Decal Fee.
(a) The University of North Florida Traffic Committee may recommend to the President Traffic and Parking Regulations including charges for vehicle registration decals and parking tickets.
(b) The University makes available two styles of decals to vehicle registrants:
1. Affixed style – non-transferable.
2. Hanging style – transferable.
(c) Effective upon adoption of this rule amendment, the annual registration fee for each three or four-wheeled motor vehicle is as follows:

(e) If vehicle registered by an affixed decal is traded, or the affixed decal is defaced, the owner may obtain a replacement decal for a fee of $5.00 by presenting proof of the aforementioned, along with the new vehicle registration (if applicable) to University Parking Services or the University Police. The old decal must be removed from the vehicle and returned when application for replacement decal is made.

(f) All lost, stolen or defaced decals should be reported to the University Police. Defaced decals returned to the University Police will be replaced for a fee of $5.00. (Lost or stolen decals will not be replaced and owner will be required to purchase a new decal).

(g) Refunds are given for:
1. Affixed or hanging decals sold in the current term if the decal is returned intact before the last day of Drop/Add for the current term and the student is no longer enrolled in classes.
2. Payments are verified and checks are mailed.

(4) Displaying Decals.
(a) A decal evidencing registration will be issued to the registrant.
1. An affixed style decal shall be immediately and permanently affixed to rear window, left side (driver side) or as otherwise approved by University Parking Services or University Police.
2. A hanging style decal must be displayed at all times while on campus on the inside rear view mirror with decal number facing outward.

(b) Exception to (a) above: two-wheeled vehicles shall affix decal to rearward portion of fender or as otherwise approved by University Parking Services or University Police.

(c) Affixed style decals are issued for a specific vehicle and operator and are not transferable.

(d) Hanging style decals are movable and may be used in any three or four-wheeled motor vehicle registered to the person obtaining the decal.

(e) Reproducing or defacing a decal is prohibited.

(f) Failure to display any decal or permit in the approved manner will constitute an invalid registration and the registrant may be charged with a decal violation.

(g) Acceptance of a decal or permit by an individual is considered to attest to that person’s understanding of the University Traffic and Parking Regulations and his or her responsibility to adhere to these regulations.

(5) Traffic Regulations. All regulations embodied in the Statutes of the State of Florida and in the Ordinance of the City of Jacksonville governing and regulating vehicular traffic are applicable to and will be enforced on the University of North Florida campus. The following regulations are examples applicable to the operation of all vehicles as described herein:

(a) Traffic rules, regulations, and directive signs governing the use of motor vehicles are in effect 24 hours a day unless specifically limited. Inclement weather does not bar their enforcement.

(b) Motorists shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians.

(c) The campus speed limit is as posted. Speed limit in all parking lots is 15 miles per hour.

(d) All vehicles must be brought to a complete stop before proceeding through intersections where stop signs are located.

(f) All accidents involving University owned vehicles shall be reported immediately to the University Police by persons involved.

(g) Barriers may be placed by the University Police and Public Safety Department at any point deemed necessary for specific temporary use, including safety reasons. Except for the passage of emergency vehicles, removal of any such barrier without permission is prohibited. In every case, the directions of a police officer supersede the regulations posted by a sign or signal.

(h) The following are prohibited:
   1. Unnecessary disruptive noise from horns, mufflers, or any other noisemaking device.
   2. Driving in a direction opposite that indicated by arrows in parking lots, roadways, or streets.

(a) All vehicles or operators involved in traffic, parking/non-moving, and decal violations may be ticketed by University Police Officers. The citation shall show the nature of the violation and the name or the number of the issuing officer. The person in whose name the decal is registered will be held responsible for violations; if the violator cannot be identified, then the registered owner.
(b) All moving violations will warrant a State of Florida uniform traffic ticket which must be referred to the Duval County courts for payment of fine or appearance in court. No University appeal exists for these State citations as provided by Sections 240.263, 316.650 and 318.14, Florida Statutes.

Responsible purchasing officials shall be protected from improper pressures of external political or business interests. The process shall reduce the appearance and opportunity for favoritism, ensure that contracts are awarded equitably and economically, and establish effective management oversight in the acquisition of commodities and contractual services, in order to preserve the integrity of public purchasing and contracting. The opportunity to bid on University contracts is a privilege, not a right.

The University shall comply with the provisions of Section 287.055, F.S., for the procurement of any “professional services” related to construction as defined therein.

(h) Extension – An increase in the time allowed for the contract period.

(i) Independent Contractor – A person or firm who provides a service to the University, but does not have any employment or other relationship or connection with that University, except as provided in Section 112.313, F.S., and in compliance with Chapter 440, F.S., and the Internal Revenue Code.

(t) Term Contract – An indefinite quantity contract for the purchase of commodities or contractual services during a prescribed period of time.

(3) The University President has authority to establish a system of coordinated procurement policies, procedures, and practices to be used in acquiring commodities and contractual services required by the University. The Purchasing Department has the duty to:

(a) Canvass sources of supply and contracting for the purchase or lease of all commodities and contractual services for the University, in any manner, including purchase by installment- or lease-purchase contracts. Installment- or lease-purchase contracts may provide for the payment of interest on unpaid portions of the purchase price.

(b) Remove any contractor from the University’s competitive vendor list that fails to respond to three (3) or more invitations or to fulfill any of its duties specified in a contract with the University and to reinstate any such contractor when satisfied that further instances of default will not occur. “No Bid” is a response.

(c) Plan and coordinate purchases in volume and negotiate and execute agreements and contracts for commodities and contractual services under which the University may make purchases.

(d) Develop an Annual Certification List to serve as a waiver of the competitive solicitation requirement for commodities/services that are frequently purchased and are available from a single source.

(e) Evaluate and approve contracts let by the Federal Government, other states, political subdivisions, any independent college or university, educational cooperative or educational consortium for the procurement of commodities and contractual services, when it is determined to be cost-effective and in the best interest of the University to do so.

(f) Elect as an alternative to any provision in Section 120.57(3)(c), F.S., to proceed with a bid solicitation or contract award process when the particular facts and circumstances demonstrating that a delay due to staying the solicitation contract award process would be detrimental to the interests of the University are set forth in writing. After the award of contract resulting from a competitive solicitation in which a timely protest was received and in which the University did not prevail, the contract will be canceled and re-awarded to the prevailing party unless the final order or settlement between the parties provides otherwise.

(g) Award contracts for commodities and contractual services to multiple suppliers, if it is determined to be in the best interest of the University. Such awards may be on a university, regional or multiple state university-wide basis and the contracts may be for multiple years.

(h) Reject or cancel any or all competitive solicitations when determined to be in the best interest of the University.
(4) Competitive Solicitations Required.
   (a) All contracts for the purchase of commodities or contractual services exceeding $50,000 shall be awarded pursuant to a competitive solicitation, unless otherwise authorized herein.
   (b) When only one response is received to a competitive solicitation for commodities or contractual services exceeding $50,000, the University will review the solicitation response and circumstances surrounding the solicitation to determine if a second call for a competitive solicitation is in the best interest of the University. If it is determined that a second call would not serve a useful purpose, the University will proceed with the acquisition.
   (c) When multiple responses, equal in all respects, are received to a competitive solicitation, the University will give preference to responses that include commodities manufactured in the state, Florida businesses, businesses with a drug-free workplace program, or foreign manufacturers located in the state determining the contract award, or, if these conditions do not exist or are the equivalent between two or more responses, will use toss of the coin.
   (d) The purchase of commodities and contractual services shall not be divided to avoid the requirement of competitive solicitation.
   (e) The intended award shall be publicly posted by the Purchasing Office which issues the Invitation to Bid, Request for Proposal or Invitation to Negotiate for seventy-two (72) hours, which is interpreted as three (3) working days excepting Saturdays, Sundays, or State holidays.
   (f) Bids, proposals, and negotiations shall remain sealed until notice of final contract award is given and in accordance with Florida Statutes as appropriate.
   (g) In the case of extension errors, the unit price will prevail.
   (h) Withdrawal. A vendor may request to withdraw his or her bid or proposal in writing if done within seventy-two (72) hours of the bid or proposal opening, if the bid or proposal is clearly erroneous and it is withdrawn prior to final award or issue of a purchase order.

       procurement subject to that section.
   (d) Purchases from Contractors Convicted of Public Entity Crimes. The University shall not accept a competitive solicitation from, or purchase commodities or contractual services from, a person or affiliate who has been convicted of a public entity crime added to the convicted vendor list.

   (e) Purchasing actions that are not subject to the competitive solicitation process include:

           the health or safety of person(s) or animal(s) or the preservation or protection of property or the continuance of a vital University function, the University will proceed with an emergency purchase without a competitive solicitation. The emergency purchase shall be limited to the purchase of only the type of items and quantities or for a time period sufficient to meet the immediate threat and shall not be used to meet long-term requirements.

When a commodity contract requires deferred payments and the payment of interest under that program, the contract will be submitted to the State of Florida Controller for the purpose of pre-audit review and approval prior to acceptance by the University. No agreement shall establish a debt of the State or shall be applied to the faith and credit of the State; nor shall any agreement be a liability or obligation of the State except from appropriated funds.

6C9-7.002 Use of Areas and Facilities.
(1) Authorization for use:
(a) Initial determinations of whether proposed use of University areas and facilities meets the approved criteria will be made by the University administrators who are responsible for managing particular campus areas and facilities in accordance with University rules and internal management memoranda.
(b) Facilities must be utilized efficiently and effectively in support of University programs. To achieve maximum benefits from facilities and to make certain that the facilities are utilized to support University programs, priorities are established. The first priority is the activity normally scheduled for the conduct of routine business. The second priority is normal maintenance and custodial operations. Third priority is assigned to activities scheduled by members of the University community. After these priorities have been satisfied, non-university groups or organizations may request use of facilities through the appropriate administrator.
(c) Uncontrolled exploitation of campus areas and facilities is prohibited at the University. Controlled non-commercial and commercial use of campus areas and facilities is allowed for purposes other than budgeted instruction, research, and service activities provided that such use contributes to the mission and purposes of the University to more than an incidental degree and is not in competition with University programs.
(d) Applicants for use of University facilities who are not satisfied with determinations made by managers responsible for administering campus areas and facilities, or the determinations of the University Events Coordinator, may appeal such determinations to the University President or his designee.
(e) Determinations made by the University President or his designee as to the suitability of a proposed use of campus areas and facilities or user classifications shall be final, except insofar as a requesting party alleges that determinations for use of facilities made by the President or his designee violated University rules, or state or federal law.
(2) The University reserves the right to reassign space reservations to other similar facilities on campus. Reassignment may be based upon needs of University programs, maintenance and repair requirements, inadequate staffing, or other reasons related to the orderly conduct of the affairs of the University.
(3) The University may refuse use of facilities to applicants based upon lack of suitable facilities, current or previous failure of the applicant to abide by the terms and conditions of facilities use, or lack of substantial contribution of the proposed activity to the mission and purpose of the University.
(a) In general, priority for the use of areas and facilities will be given to those users and activities that schedule in advance and whose mission and purpose enhance the University to the greatest degree. Scheduled instruction, research, and service activities provided for in the University budget shall have first priority for use of academic facilities. Student generated activities shall have first priority for use of facilities which are designated for student use.

(b) No contracts or arrangements for the use of any space may be made until:
1. A confirmation of such reservation has been received from the University administrator who has been delegated responsibility for managing the area of that facility involved, and
2. The event has been scheduled through the University Events Coordinator.

(5) In order to prevent disruption of academic functions or previously scheduled events, the sponsor may be asked to secure a more suitable date and place; and the issuance of an invitation to an outside speaker may be conditioned upon the limiting of the event to a function at which the speaker addresses only members of the University community. Other groups or organizations may be approved to attend by the Dean of Student Life.

(6) Where an invitation to an outside speaker is made and the speaker accepts the invitation, the President or his authorized designee may, at his discretion, require that the meeting, including meetings in any assembly area, be chaired by a member of the administration or faculty designated by him. He may further require a statement to be made by a University official at the meeting that the views presented are not necessarily those of the University or of the sponsoring group. By his acceptance of the invitation to speak, the speaker shall assume full responsibility for any violation of law committed by him while he is on campus.

(8) Where the request for an outside speaker is denied, any sponsoring organization thereby aggrieved may, upon written application to the University President, obtain a Section 120.57(2), F.S., hearing for consideration of the request. The President may designate a person or committee to hear the request or may refer same for a formal hearing; and any decision by the president shall be final unless otherwise appealed. See Section 120.57, F.S.

A student enrolled through continuing education will not be eligible for payment by installments.
(6) If a student’s fee account is in arrears, the student’s academic progress will be suspended until his/her account has been settled in full, or other arrangements have been made.

CHAPTER 6C9-9 EMINENT SCHOLARS’ FUND

6C9-9.001 University of North Florida Eminent Scholars’ Fund.

(1) Purpose – The State Legislature established a Trust Fund in Section 240.257, F.S., for Eminent Scholars. The Trust Fund provides the opportunity for a university to receive matched challenge grants to create endowments for eminent scholar chairs. Board of Regents subsection 6C-9.019(2), F.A.C., requires adoption of rules to administer the Eminent Scholars’ Program at each University.

(2) The UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA FOUNDATION shall have the responsibility for furthering, maintaining and administering the Eminent Scholars’ Program for the University of North Florida in accordance with Legislature intent and Board of Regents Rules.

(3) When the sum of the challenge grant and the matching funds meets statutory requirements for foundation and the president of the university will recommend to the Board of Regents that a chair be created within an existing university program.

(4) Upon approval by the Board of Regents, of the recommendation for an endowed chair, the university president will authorize the dean of the recipient college to develop, in consultation with the faculty of the college, criteria for determining the qualifications of candidates for the endowed chair. Such criteria will include an outstanding professional reputation and the potential for continuation of scholarly activities. The recommended criteria will be forwarded through the provost and vice president for academic affairs to the university president for approval.

(5) The university president will establish an ad hoc screening committee in conformance with the Eminent Scholars Act for each endowed chair to process nominations and applications. The committee shall consist of the following:
   (a) One member appointed by the president of the student government association;
   (b) Two faculty members appointed by the university president; and
   (c) Four members appointed by the chairman of the board of the University of North Florida Foundation, three of whom shall be faculty from the program receiving the Chair and one of whom shall be alumnus of the University of North Florida.
   (d) The university president will name the committee chairperson.

(6) The Eminent Scholars Screening Committee is advisory to the university president. The committee will have the following responsibilities: to seek application of and to accept nominations for candidates for the endowed chair; to communicate with and ascertain the interest of candidates; to satisfy requirements of law and appropriate university rules regarding personnel selection; to evaluate the qualifications of applicants and nominees; and to recommend to the president one or more candidates.

(7) The president shall select the candidate to be offered the chair. If the president does not select the committee’s candidate, or choose from among the candidates proposed by the committee, the president will order the selection process to be repeated.

(8) Donor intent shall determine the allocation of gifts received in support of the Eminent Scholars’ Program. All Funds will remain in the designated school, college, department or program regardless of whether full funding of a chair is attained. If full funding of a chair is not attained, the final determination of the use of the funds which had been raised for the chair will be made by the dean of the school, college, department or program in consultation with the donor(s) and the UNF Foundation.

(9) The resources generated by the endowment may be used for salaries (chair holder, secretarial staff and research assistants), fixed capital outlay (office renovations) and other expenses including computer time and supplies associated with the chair holder’s scholarly work.

(10) Invasion of principal is strictly prohibited, and Eminent Scholar Chair budgets are developed based upon annual projected investment income. Any accrued income remaining from previous years should be added to principal; or it may be budgeted as a current year’s expenditure with appropriate justification. Budget preparation and budget monitoring are cooperative functions of the provost and academic vice president, dean of the school or college in which the chair is located, the chair holder and the Foundation. Additionally, the university president will appoint a standing committee to periodically review expenditures from Eminent Scholar Chair investment income.

(11) Investment income is maintained in a separate Foundation fund designated for Eminent Scholar Chair operations. Expenditures in support of an established Eminent Scholar Chair are made directly from the foundation except in those instances where the interests of the Chair can be better served by placing investment income in a university contracts and grants account. Signature authority for expenditures from the Investment Income Fund rests with the provost and academic vice president or his designee.

(12) In accordance with State University System of Florida Standard Practice 00-0000-5-03-01, the Foundation shall include information concerning collection and investment of each Eminent Scholars’ Fund in its annual audited financial statements as part of the Foundation’s annual financial audit.

(b) It shall be a violation of this rule for any officer, employee, agent, vendor, or contractor to discriminate against or harass, as hereinafter defined, any employee, student, or applicant for employment or admission. Discrimination and harassment are forms of conduct which shall result in disciplinary action pursuant to University Rules 6C10-5.016 and 6C10-5.022, F.A.C., and the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement as to employees, or action permitted by law or contract as to vendors and contractors.

   2. Disparate treatment in or access to educational programs and related support services on the basis of membership in one of the categories protected in paragraph (a), above.
   3. Limitation in access to housing, or to participation in athletic, social, cultural or other activities of the University because of membership in one of the categories protected in paragraph (a), above.
   4. Failure to abide by the terms of a conciliated agreement.
   5. Retaliation for filing complaints or protesting practices which are prohibited under this rule.
(c) Conduct which falls within the definition of harassment includes, but is not limited to, that which unreasonably interferes with an employee’s, student’s, or applicant’s status or performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment and is based upon membership in one of the categories protected in paragraph (a), above. It includes offensive or demeaning language or treatment of an individual, where such language or treatment is based typically on prejudicial stereotypes of a group to which an individual may belong, such as, objectionable epithets, threatened or actual physical harm or abuse, or other intimidating or insulting conduct directed against the individual.

(3) Procedures for Reporting Violations and Conducting Investigations of Complaints.
(a) Administration and Consultation. The Office of Equal Opportunity Programs shall administer the policies and procedures outlined in this rule, answer inquiries regarding the procedures, and provide informal advice regarding issues of discrimination. In cases where the complainant chooses not to file a formal complaint, action will be taken to inform the alleged offender of the concerns, suggesting that if the allegations are true, the individual monitor and modify his/her behavior.
(b) Formal Complaint.
   1. A complaint must be made in writing to the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs using Discrimination Complaint Form EOP-D100 (10-96). Form EOP-D100, which is incorporated by reference, has been approved by the University President and is available upon request at the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs, 10501 FGCU Blvd. South, Fort Myers, FL 33965-6565. The complaint shall contain the name of the complainant and state the nature of the act(s) complained of, including such details as the name of the alleged offender and the date(s) or approximate date(s) on which the offending act(s) occurred, the name(s) of any witnesses, and the desired resolution(s).
2. A complaint should be filed within sixty (60) days of the alleged act(s) of discrimination, or in the case of a student complaint against a faculty member, within fourteen (14) days of the beginning of class of the following semester. This provision shall not limit the University in any way from initiating its own investigation and taking appropriate action should such be deemed warranted under the circumstances presented.

3. The Office of Equal Opportunity Programs shall investigate the complaint. The investigation may include, but shall not be limited to, interviewing the person complained about regarding the allegations, and/or other persons who may have information relevant to the allegations, preparation of witness statements for all persons interviewed, and review of any relevant documents. Upon completion of the investigation, a report shall be prepared which includes a summary of the complaint, a description of the investigation, the findings, and recommendations.

(c) Conciliation. The Office of Equal Opportunity Programs may attempt conciliation during the course of an investigation of a complaint. If conciliation is not achieved, then the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs shall continue to investigate the complaint, and shall issue a written finding concerning probable cause within a maximum of sixty (60) days. If conciliation of the complaint was achieved between the parties in cooperation with the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs, and the alleged offender fails to abide by the agreement or retaliates against the complainant, the complainant or supervisor shall notify the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs.

(d) Findings. The report of the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs shall be made to the complainant, the alleged offender, the immediate supervisor and the Vice President of the alleged offender, or in cases of allegations against a vice president, to the President.

(e) Review. 1. Either party may seek review of the findings by filing a written appeal within fourteen (14) days of receipt, with the Vice President or designee of the alleged offender, or if the alleged offender is the Vice President, with the President. The appeal shall be based on one or more of the following grounds: relevant evidence was not reviewed; discovery of new evidence that was previously not available through exercise of reasonable diligence; or, the factual evidence was insufficient to support the findings.

2. Copies of the appeal shall be provided to the opposing party and to the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs.

3. The opposing party and/or the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs may file a response to the appeal with the Vice President or designee, within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the appeal.

4. The Vice President or designee of the President, in cases of allegations against a vice president, shall issue a written finding no more than fourteen (14) days after receipt of the appeal, or of a response to the appeal, whichever is later.

(f) Resolution. The Vice President or designee, or the President, in cases of allegations against a vice president, shall issue a finding of cause or no cause on the complaint. Where there is a finding of cause, the immediate supervisor of the alleged offender shall propose a resolution to the complaint (e.g., that a student be allowed to change sections, that the employee report to a different supervisor) and shall recommend or take disciplinary action against the offender. The proposed resolution shall be approved by the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs. Disciplinary action shall be taken in accordance with University disciplinary guidelines contained in University Rules 6C10-5.016 and 6C10-5.022, F.A.C., and the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

(g) Prohibition of Retaliation. No University employee shall retaliate against a complainant. Any attempt to retaliate against a student, employee or applicant for initiating a complaint shall be treated as a separate allegation of discrimination.

(h) The procedures contained in this rule apply to vendors and contractors, except that the Director, Equal Opportunity Programs shall consult with the contract manager to determine how the investigation will be undertaken. Upon determination that there is probable cause to believe that discrimination occurred, the University shall take action against the vendor or contractor in accordance with the terms of the party’s contract.

4. Election of Remedies; Complainant’s Right to Seek Remedy Outside the University.

(a) The doctrine of election of remedies shall apply to complaints filed pursuant to this rule. Should a complainant elect to pursue an alternative remedy available to them, including the filing of a grievance pursuant to the collective bargaining agreement, or pursuant to the University Rule 6C10-5.016 or 6C10-5.020, F.A.C., the filing of any such grievance shall operate as a waiver of the Complainant’s right to file a complaint and avails themselves of the procedures available under this rule. Should a grievance be filed pursuant to an alternative remedy and subsequent to the filing of a Complaint under this rule but before proceedings under this rule have been completed, the filing of any such grievance nonetheless will act as a waiver, and proceedings pursuant to this rule shall be terminated. As an exception to this provision, a complainant may file an EEOC charge while the complaint is in progress when such filing becomes necessary to meet federal filing deadlines pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.

(b) The doctrine of election remedies shall also apply to appeals filed by persons against whom a complaint has been filed. The filing of an appeal pursuant to an alternative remedy by a person against whom a complaint has been filed, including the filing of a grievance under the collective bargaining agreement, or the filing of a petition for a hearing pursuant to Section 120.57, Florida Statutes, shall operate as a waiver of the right to appeal to the President the decision of a Vice President pursuant to this rule.

5. Frivolous or Malicious Complaints. In the event that a claim of discrimination or sexual harassment is found to be frivolous or malicious, disciplinary action shall be taken against the complainant, pursuant to University Rules 6C10-5.016 and 6C10-5.022, F.A.C., and the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement as to employees, and University Rule 6C10-4.003, F.A.C., as to students.
6C10-1.004 Sexual Harassment.

(1) General Statement.

(a) Sexual harassment undermines the integrity of the academic and work environment, and prevents its victims and their peers from achieving their full potential. All members of the University community are entitled to work and study in an atmosphere free from sexual overtures or innuendoes that are unsolicited and unwelcome. It is the particular responsibility of those members of the University community who hold positions of authority over others to avoid actions that are or can be considered sexually abusive or unprofessional.

(b) It shall be a violation of this rule for any officer, employee, student, or agent to sexually harass, as sexual harassment is hereinafter defined, any other officer, employee, student visitor or agent. Sexual harassment is a type of misconduct which shall result in disciplinary action pursuant to University Rules 6C10-5.016 and 6C10-5.022, F.A.C., and the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement, or other corrective measures such as a requirement to undergo training or counseling.

(c) When an individual evaluates or supervises another individual with whom he or she has an amorous or sexual relationship, a conflict is created. The University discourages such amorous or sexual relations between employees and students. Such relationships, even when consensual, may be exploitive, and jeopardize the integrity of the educational process or work environment and may lead to charges of sexual harassment. The University requires the resolution of any conflict of interest created by these relationships.

(d) The employee in a position of authority must resolve any actual or potential conflict of interest by taking necessary steps, including removing himself or herself from evaluative decisions concerning the other individual. If the person in authority is unable to resolve the conflict of interest, he or she is required to inform his/her immediate supervisor promptly. Failure to resolve potential or actual conflicts of interest as described in this rule shall result in disciplinary action pursuant to University Rules 6C10-5.016 and 6C10-5.011, F.A.C., and the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

(e) It is expected that Deans, Chairs, Department Heads, Directors and other supervisors shall continue to monitor and take corrective action whenever instances of sexual harassment are either observed or reported to them. While the decision regarding resolution remains within the unit, all allegations of sexual harassment are to be immediately reported to the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs, which shall provide advice and monitor the administrator’s actions and/or take action as required by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Chapter 760, F.S.

CHAPTER 6C10-4 STUDENTS

6C10-4.001 Student Rights and Responsibilities.
6C10-4.004 Student Grievance Procedure.
6C10-4.005 Student Activities.

6C10-4.001 Student Rights and Responsibilities.

(1) General. Upon enrollment, students are entitled to the following freedoms and/or rights provided the exercise thereof is accomplished in accordance with these University rules and does not result in disruption or disturbance as elsewhere described in the Rules.

(a) Participation in the Student Government Association and its elective process.
(b) Membership in student organizations.
(c) Freedom of expression. The basic freedom of students to hear, write, distribute, and act upon a variety of thoughts and beliefs is guaranteed. Freedom of expression carries with it the responsibility for seeing that the essential order of the University is preserved.
(d) Freedom to hold public forums. The University desires to create a spirit of free inquiry and to promote the timely discussion of a wide variety of issues, provided the views expressed are stated openly and subject to critical evaluation. Restraints on free inquiry will be held to a minimum and will be consistent with preserving an organized society in which peaceful democratic means for change are available. Guest lecturers, or off campus speakers, sponsored by the student groups may appear on the FGCU campus after notification has been given to the Division of the Dean of Student Services, and the Division has scheduled the guest speaker so as to avoid potential disruptive conflicts.
(e) Freedom to hear, write, distribute and act upon a variety of thoughts and beliefs. This freedom is subject to the following regulations:
   1. Written materials identified by authorship and sponsorship may be distributed on campus within the guidelines of propriety and responsible journalism so long as they do not violate the provisions of obscene or objectionable literature as set forth in Chapter 847, F.S. The distribution of such material is permitted of student organizations provided steps have been taken to preserve the orderliness of the campus.
   2. Non-University or off-campus printed materials shall not be distributed or circulated by students or student organizations without first being stamped by the Dean of Student Services or designee.
   3. The distribution of materials or circulation of petitions to captive audiences such as those in classrooms, at registration, in study areas or in residential units will not be allowed without prior permission. Such permission may be requested from the pertinent University vice president, dean or director. Permission may be granted for the purposes of scholarly research, or for conducting business of an approved on-campus organization such as student government, clubs, and social and professional organizations.
(f) Peaceful assembly. Existing procedures set forth in Section 870.02, F.S., shall be observed. Student gatherings must not disrupt or interfere with the orderly educational operation of the institution. Students found in violation will be subject to penalties as outlined in Section 240.132, F.S.
(g) Fair and impartial hearing. These matters shall include, but not be limited to:
   1. Disciplinary proceedings involving alleged violation of academic and nonacademic rules and regulations.
   2. Refunds and charges. The status of a student charged with a violation of University regulations shall not be allowed without prior permission. Such permission may be requested from the pertinent University vice president, dean or director. Permission may be granted for the purposes of scholarly research, or for conducting business of an approved on-campus organization such as student government, clubs, and social and professional organizations.
(h) Confidentiality of student records. Each University office and agency, which generates, collects, and disseminates information on students, must follow the guidelines for confidentiality of those records in their possession as outlined by the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, and Section 240.237, F.S. For further information see “Student Academic Records” in each published schedule of classes.
(i) Student grievances. Students have the right to bring complaints to the attention of the University. For further information, see “Student Grievance Procedures”.
(j) Provisions for Victims/Survivors of Acts of Violence. To ensure fairness to victims/survivors of acts of violence throughout the disciplinary process, the University has established the following policy for victims/survivors:
   1. A provision for a victim/survivor to have a person of her/his choice accompany her/him throughout the judicial process. This person will act as a support person or counsel but will not represent the victim/survivor.
   2. A provision for the victim/survivor to submit a list of questions relating to the alleged incident, prior to the hearing, that she/he feels the accused should be asked during the hearing process.
   3. A provision not to have her/his irrelevant past conduct, including sexual history, discussed during the hearing. The hearing board or judicial officer shall determine the issue of irrelevancy.
4. The opportunity to make a “victim/survivor impact statement” and to suggest an appropriate penalty (to include appropriate compensations) if the accused is found in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.
5. A provision to know the outcome of the judicial process after making a commitment to protect the confidentiality for all persons involved.

(k) Student Rights During the Judicial Process. The following rights shall be explained to the accused prior to the commencement of any formal judicial hearing:

1. All parties shall be afforded reasonable written notice, at least 7 days prior to the hearing. A letter sent to the address listed in the registrar’s records shall constitute full and adequate notice. Written notice shall include:
   a. A statement of the time, place and nature of the proceeding.
   b. A statement of the nature of the case and of the jurisdiction under which it is to be adjudicated.
   c. A brief statement of matters asserted. Thereafter, upon request by the accused, a more detailed and definitive statement will be furnished prior to the commencement of any formal hearing. An advisor of the accused’s choice may be present at the hearing.
2. An accused student may choose to have an advisor present at the hearings.
3. All hearings will be conducted on the basis that the accused is not in violation until the preponderance of evidence proves otherwise.
4. All hearings shall be private and closed only to persons directly involved in the matters being adjudicated. The accused may request that a hearing be open to others. The University shall consider such a request in light of the best interests of all persons involved and of the University.
5. The accused may inspect any evidence presented in support of the charges. Evidence may be presented in defense of the accused.
6. The accused may hear and question adverse witnesses.
7. The accused shall not be forced to present self-incriminating evidence; however, the University is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any criminal prosecution.
8. The determination of “in violation” or “not in violation” as charged, shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing.
9. The determination from a formal hearing and any sanctions assigned and the Student’s Appeal Rights shall be furnished in writing to the accused within five working days time following the hearing.
10. The enrollment status of the accused shall remain unchanged pending the University’s final decision in the matter except in cases where the president or president’s designee determines that the safety, health, or general welfare of a student or the University is involved.
11. A student/organization against whom a judicial determination is rendered may exercise appellate procedures.

(2) Student Responsibilities. The most basic responsibility of a student is to study and move forward in intellectual development while taking advantage of the many opportunities provided in a University environment for all around personal growth, development and maturation.

(a) Students and organizations are responsible for the observation of all policies, rules and regulations set forth in the 1998-99 Student Guidebook of Florida Gulf Coast University. Compliance should follow awareness and understanding which helps to fulfill the objectives of better University government as well as the identification and acceptance of personal and social responsibilities.

(b) Rights and freedoms in any environment are protected through exercised responsibilities and maintained through an established system for justice. The ideal balance of control for liberties is strongly weighted toward understanding and observing rules as acts of individual responsibility not always because of agreement, but because compliance also serves the best interests of all and helps in the completion of identified missions.

(c) The University has compiled student-governing information in this guidebook and distributed it to help provide direction and awareness for the academic community. It is each student’s responsibility to become aware of, and learn its regulatory content and procedures for dealing with problems which may arise in the course of educational events.

(d) When University rules are judged as not serving the best interests of all, the consideration for change should be introduced through appropriate channels. In the case of students, this will most often be the Student Government Association or another student-governing group.

(e) Within the University, emphasis is placed on the development of each individual’s recognition and acceptance of personal and social responsibilities. High ethical and moral standards of conduct are a part of the University’s mission and its contribution to the well being of society.

(3) Personal Health Responsibilities.

(a) Each student must assume a certain level of responsibility for his or her education and for the maintenance of health. Learning and education take place within a body. A drugged or mistreated body can neither absorb nor retain meaningful information.

(b) The University has published rules against the misuse of drugs and alcohol in the 1998-99 Student Guidebook, and has designated penalties for violations. These efforts are in the interest of a minimum effort to serve students; the maximum effort is to encourage students to develop a lifestyle free of drug abuses and to understand the connections between life, learning, and proper functioning of the integrated body and mind.
(c) A broad range of student services provided through the Division of Student Services is available to assist students in solving problems, which negatively affect their performances. The Wellness Center which houses Student Health Services is designed to help students target health related problems and find solutions. Wellness encourages self-direction for a lifestyle, which addresses meaningful living, care enough to recognize problems, initiate action, and use available services.

(4) AIDS Policy.

(a) It is the policy of the State University System (SUS) to balance the rights of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) victims to an education and employment against the rights of students and University employees to an environment in which they are protected from contracting the disease. In the belief that education can exercise some control over the spread of the disease, and help the public to respond in a reasoned manner, the SUS is committed to providing the University communities and the public at large with education on the nature and transmission of the disease and the legal rights of AIDS victims.

(b) The policy of the University is to treat cases of AIDS on a case by case basis. When the AIDS case comes to the attention of the University, whether student, faculty or staff member, the University AIDS Committee will assume responsibility for conducting a thorough review based upon the best medical and legal information available. Any actions taken will respect the rights of the individual to confidentiality as well as the individual’s welfare and that of the University community. For additional information contact Student Health Services (in the Wellness Center) or Personal, Academic and Career Counseling (second floor of the Student Services Building). The University will maintain an acquired immune deficiency syndrome counselor. (Section 240.2097(3), F.S.)

General. These rules shall apply to all undergraduate students, graduate students, and student organizations of the University and its area campuses and shall be deemed a part of the terms and conditions of admission and enrollment of all students. Failure to comply with duly established laws or University rules may subject violator(s) to appropriate action by University authorities and/or appropriate civil authorities. Violations of University rules shall be recorded in the record to the individual(s) and/or organization(s) concerned. Generally, authority necessary to enforce regulations is vested in the Dean of Student Services. Selected functions of this authority are shared with faculty, staff and students. Some functions of disciplinary administration are assisted through system review boards. Students and student organizations are also subject to University judicial sanctions for the violation of a Board of Regents rule or a federal, state, county, or city law, which has an adverse impact on the University. The following defined and/or described actions include conduct for which judicial action including suspension or expulsion may be taken. These rules apply to conduct, which occurs on University premises, while attending University sponsored/related activities, and conduct, which takes place off-campus when that conduct is determined as adversely affecting the interests of the University community.

(1) Academic Dishonesty/Cheating.

(a) Cheating is a violation of student academic behavior standards. The common forms of cheating:

1. Unauthorized assistance; communication to another through written, visual or oral means. The presentation of material, which has not been studied/learned, but obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment or project constitutes a violation. The unauthorized possession or use of examination or course related material may also constitute cheating.

2. Plagiarism whereby another’s work is deliberately used or appropriated without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own. Any student failing to properly credit ideas or material taken from another is plagiarizing.

(b) Any student who knowingly helps another violate academic behavior standards is also in violation of the standards.

(e) Retaliation against or harassment of complainant(s) or other person(s) alleging misconduct.

(5) Sexual Misconduct.

Any sexual conduct which occurs between members of the University community on or off the FGCU campus shall be consensual, meaning that willing and verbal agreement shall be clearly given in advance by all persons involved at each new level of such conduct. One person shall not knowingly take sexual advantage of another person who is under 18 years of age, mentally defective, under the influence of prescribed medication, alcohol or other chemical drugs, or who is not conscious or awake, and thus is not able to give consent as defined above. Further, one person shall not physically or verbally coerce another person to engage in sexual conduct, to the end that consent as defined above is not given.

These laws, rules, and policies are referenced in the “FGCU Acceptable Computer and Network Policy”, incorporated into the 1998-99 Student Guidebook and posted on the University web site. Violations of the computer and network rules and policies shall result in disciplinary action. Serious violations of University policies shall generally result in immediate loss of network and computer access and privileges.

2. Suspected criminal violations of federal, state or local laws shall be reported to the University Police Department, appropriate law enforcement agencies or any other applicable authorities or agencies. (1) General. Authority for student discipline ultimately rests with the President of the University. The President delegates this authority to the Dean of Student Services. The Dean of Student Services may further delegate disciplinary authority to other administrators or faculty who shall serve as the judicial officer.

(2) Violation Reports. Alleged violations of the FGCU Student Code of Conduct shall be reported in writing to a University judicial officer appointed by the Dean of Students. The judicial officer shall make appropriate inquiries into the circumstances of the case to determine one of the following:

(a) Case dismissal.
(b) Administrative action.
(c) Informal disposition.
(d) Formal disposition.

(3) Administrative Action. In cases that dictate an immediate decision to protect the welfare of the individual, the student body, or the University, the judicial officer may take action without delay to resolve the situation. This action may include any of the formal disciplinary penalties or any lesser sanction that the judicial officer determines necessary to protect the interests of all concerned. Sanctions taken through administrative action shall remain in effect until the final disposition of formal charges resulting from the circumstances of the case have been resolved through either informal or formal disposition proceedings.

(4) Informal Disposition. At the discretion of the student charged, infractions may be referred to the appropriate forum for proper disposition and/or settled by one or more of the following outcomes: oral or written reprimand; restitution; community service; counseling.

(paragraph 6C-6.0105(2)(g), F.A.C.) If an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct is not handled through other appropriate channels, is not dismissed, or is not settled informally, then the Dean of Students or designee shall present in writing formal charges of violations to the student. This written notification shall include:

(a) The student’s name, social security number, and address;
(b) A brief description of the alleged violation including dates, times, and places;
(c) Names of potential witnesses known at the time formal charges are prepared;
(d) A description of any written or physical evidence known at the time charges are prepared. The student may elect to have an administrative hearing or to have the case referred to an appropriate student judicial board.

(6) Student Rights During the Judicial Process. The following rights shall be explained to the student prior to the commencement of any formal judicial hearing:

(a) All parties shall be afforded reasonable written notice, at least five (5) days prior to the hearing. A letter sent to the address listed in the registrar’s records shall constitute full and adequate notice. The University may elect to proceed with a hearing without the presence of the accused student, provided, however, the required notice stated above has been given to the student and the student has not provided to the hearing officer/council in advance a satisfactory reason for the absence. Written notice shall include:
   1. A statement of the time, place and nature of the proceeding.
   2. A statement of the nature of the case and of the jurisdiction under which it is to be adjudicated.
   3. A brief statement of matters asserted.

(b) An advisor of the student’s choice may be present at the hearing.

(c) The student may choose to have an advisor present at the hearing. Such advisor (including legal counsel) however, only may discuss matters directly with the student and may not actively participate in the conduct of the hearing.

(d) All hearings will be conducted on the basis that the student is not in violation until the preponderance of evidence proves otherwise.

(e) The student may inspect any information presented in support of the charges. Information may be presented in defense of the accused.

(f) The student may hear and question adverse witnesses.

(g) The student shall not be forced to present self-incriminating information; however, the University is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any criminal prosecution.

(h) The determination of “in violation” or “not in violation” as charged shall be based solely on the information presented at the hearing.

(i) The determination from a formal hearing and any sanctions assigned and Appeal Rights shall be furnished in writing to the accused within five working days following the hearing.

(j) The enrollment status of the student shall remain unchanged pending the University’s final decision in the matter, except in cases where the president or president’s designee determines that the safety, health, or general welfare of a student or the University is involved.

(k) A student/organization against whom a judicial determination is rendered may exercise appellate procedures.

(7) Administrative Hearing. Administrative hearings will be conducted before a designated judicial officer who will hear the case and take appropriate action.

2. The record of any proceeding resulting from formal charges shall include:
   a. A copy of the formal charges.
   b. A tape recording of the open sessions of the hearing.
   c. All staff memoranda and/or data submitted.
   d. All items of physical evidence submitted, provided such items are not returned to a rightful owner. In that case, photographs or other facsimiles shall be made before being returned.

11. Disciplinary Warning. Disciplinary warning is an official warning that the student’s behavior is in violation of the FGCU Student Code of Conduct. If the student is found to be in violation of a second charge, action will be taken beyond the disciplinary warning.

12. Disciplinary Probation. Disciplinary probation status is designed for a specific length of time extending from a month to a number of semesters. When disciplinary warnings have failed to correct a student’s conduct or an offense is deemed to be severe enough to warrant a more severe penalty, restrictive conditions may be imposed and vary according to the severity of the offense. Restrictive conditions include the following: loss of good standing, which may become a matter of record; the loss of eligibility to receive any University award, scholarship, loan, honorary recognition, or initiation into any local or national organizations; denial of the privilege to occupy a position of leadership or responsibility in a University student organization, publication, or activity, and loss of privilege to represent the University in a public capacity. A student under disciplinary probation will be provided in writing the restrictions of the probation and the consequences for further violations of University rules while on probation. While under disciplinary probation, the student is given a chance to show the capability and willingness to live in accordance with the University rules. However, if the student is found to be in violation through another action while on disciplinary probation, more serious disciplinary action will be imposed including consideration of suspension or expulsion from the University provided the student had been notified of such a possibility.

13. Suspension. A student involved in any offense paragraphs (1)(a) through (1)(r) warranting consideration of action more serious than disciplinary probation or one involved in repeated misconduct may face suspension. The length of the suspension period shall be definite and may extend from days to a number of semesters. During suspension, a student may not attend class. Suspension may not be imposed without formal disposition proceedings unless the student agrees in writing to waive the right to a formal hearing.

14. Expulsion. When an offense listed in paragraphs (1)(a) through (1)(r) is of such severity that the University will not allow the student to re-enroll, the student will be expelled. When a student has been expelled from the University for disciplinary reasons, a full report will be placed in the permanent record of the individual concerned. Expulsion may not be imposed without formal disposition proceedings unless the student agrees in writing to waive the right to a formal hearing.

15. Appeals Within the Judicial Process. A student/organization found “in violation” as the result of a hearing may request a review of the decision by the judicial officer. Reviews shall be held within seven (7) calendar days following notification of the sanction. Any appeal of the sanction must be received in writing by the Chair of the Student Code of Conduct Committee within seven (7) calendar days following a review by the judicial officer. Appeal considerations shall be limited to:
   a. Irregularities in due process that affected the outcome of the initial hearing;
   b. Discovery of new and significant evidence which could not have been presented at the time of the initial hearing;
   c. Inconsistency of the sanction with precedent or with the nature of the violation.
   1. Upon reviewing the appeal, the Student Code of Conduct Committee may uphold or modify the sanction. This appeal shall be based on the considerations listed above.
2. Further administrative appeal may be made by the student in writing to the Dean of Student Services. Again, these appeals are based on the considerations listed above. The appeal must be made within seven (7) calendar days following notification to the student of the results of the appeal by the Chair of the Student Code of Conduct Committee. The Dean of Students may uphold or modify the decision.

3. In circumstances where the Dean of Student Services was involved as a principle against the accused or at the request of legal counsel, an appeal based on the considerations listed above may be made to the President of the University by the student within seven (7) calendar days following notification to the student of the decision by the Dean of Student Services. A review by the President of the University, or designee shall be final.

4. Decisions of the President of the University may be appealed to the Second District Court of Appeal. Any other decision made by the University, to which the student has not further appeal rights, may be appealed to the Second District Court of Appeal, and accompanying any such decision shall be language notifying the student of his/her appellate rights under Florida Statutes.

16) Student Code of Conduct Committee. The composition of the Student Code of Conduct Committee shall be two faculty members, two students, and one administrator. The Judicial Officer will be present during the hearing. Faculty members are appointed by the Faculty Senate to serve on the Student Code of Conduct Committee for a period of three consecutive years. A pool of six faculty members will be appointed, one-third of whom will be replaced each year to preserve continuity of experience. A pool of six students shall be appointed annually by the president of the Student Government Association. Administrative members are appointed by the President. A pool of three will be appointed, one of whom will be replaced each year. No administrative member shall be selected from the Division of the Dean of Student Services.

(a) The President shall appoint an additional member from the faculty to serve as permanent chair of the committee. The President shall also appoint an alternate permanent chair. The chair shall participate fully in the hearing process, but shall only vote in case of a tie. All members shall have voting privileges.

(b) For a given case, two faculty members, two students and one administrative staff member will be chosen based on availability from the roster of the current committee. The other member is the faculty chair appointed by the President.

(c) The Student Code of Conduct Committee has the authority to summon witnesses. Refusal to obey the summons may subject the student to disciplinary action upon the recommendation of the Committee.

(d) The Student Code of Conduct Committee has the authority to review disciplinary matters, which have been properly brought before the Committee in accordance with the procedures stated above. Upon completion of its hearing, the Student Code of Conduct Committee has the authority to issue, modify or uphold the disciplinary penalties, if appropriate.

(e) All members of the Student Code of Conduct are cautioned of the confidentiality of the Committee’s entire function and are admonished not to discuss any case with other than authorized persons.

6C10-4.004 Student Grievance Procedure.

1. General. The intent of this rule is to provide a procedure whereby student grievances are processed promptly and resolved fairly. Students shall be given adequate opportunity to bring complaints to the attention of the University with the assurance that the proper University officials will promptly investigate the facts of the case and evaluate these facts in an objective manner.

(a) Student problems should be resolved, whenever possible, before the filing of a formal written grievance and open communication is encouraged so that resort to formal grievance procedures will not be necessary. Informal resolution of grievances may be continued throughout the process.

(b) Time limits contained in this rule may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Upon failure by the University or its representatives to provide a decision within the time limits provided in this rule or any extension thereof, the grievant may appeal to the next appropriate step. Upon failure of the grievant or counsel to file an appeal, or take prescribed action, within the time limits provided in this rule, the grievance shall be deemed to have been resolved at the prior step.

2. Exclusions. Grievances pertaining to the following matters shall not be processed under this rule:

(a) Disciplinary actions taken under FGCU Student Code of Conduct.

(b) Traffic and Parking Violations.

(c) The professional judgment exercised by an instructor in assigning a grade.

(d) Professional judgment of licensed practitioners in the health related professions.

3. Definitions.

(a) “Day” means a calendar day.

(e) “Party” means either the grievant or the respondent.
(f) “Counsel” means an attorney or lay advisor.
(g) “Resolution” means an action by or on the behalf of the University that is satisfactory to the student.

Those eligible for appointment are Full time faculty; A & P and employees who hold administrative positions; Students currently enrolled and in good standing;

1. The Student Grievance Panel from which individual boards will be selected shall consist of:
   a. Three (3) faculty representatives.
   b. Three (3) administrative staff, representing the various administrative divisions of the University.
   c. Three (3) students whose names are to be submitted to the president of the University by the president of the Student Government Association. Panel members shall serve annual terms beginning and ending in August of each academic year. When a vacancy occurs, the President shall make new appointments to fill unexpired terms. Whenever the exercise of challenge reduces the number of panel members eligible to serve in a particular grievance, the president may appoint additional members on an ad hoc basis.

2. “Challenge” shall mean a formal objection, by either the grievant or the respondent, to having a member of the Student Grievance Panel appointed as either an investigator or Student Grievance Board member.
   a. A “peremptory challenge” shall mean a challenge for which no explanation need to be given by the party making the challenge.
   b. A “Challenge for cause” shall mean a challenge based on alleged bias, prejudice, interest or other causes which indicate that the challenged panel member should not serve because of involvement, predisposition or other related causes. While either party may challenge for cause, such challenges shall be reviewed by the University Ombudsman whose decision as to the fitness to serve of the challenged panel member shall be final.
      (i) “Student Grievance Board” shall mean an ad hoc board appointed pursuant to Formal Resolution of Grievance.
      (4) Informal Resolution of Student Grievances.
      (a) It is the University policy to encourage the informal resolution of grievances directly between the student and the respondent. If this cannot be accomplished, the student is encouraged to continue informal resolution presenting the problem orally through appropriate administrative channels up to, but not including, the Office of the Vice President in whose area the respondent is employed.
      (b) Upon request, the Dean of Student Services will inform the student as to the administrative channels to be followed in an attempt to secure informal resolution.
      (a) If informal resolution attempts do not succeed, the student may present the grievance in writing in the form indicated in (b) below. This written grievance shall be mailed or delivered to the University Ombudsman no later than 25 days following the date on which the alleged act or omission causing the grievance occurred; or not later than 25 days from the date the student acquired knowledge, or could be reasonably expected to have acquired knowledge, of the alleged act or omission unless the time limit has been extended by mutual agreement.
      (b) Formal Grievances shall be presented following the procedure outlined in the 1998-99 Student Guidebook.
      (c) Upon receipt of a formal student grievance, the University Ombudsman will review the grievance to determine whether or not action under this rule is appropriate or is excluded under the provisions of paragraph (2) above. If action under this rule is appropriate, the University ombudsman will notify the student of receipt of the grievance and of the name of the respondent’s Vice President/Dean who will handle the step (1) procedures outlined herein; simultaneously the ombudsman will notify the respondent and deliver the written grievance to the Vice President/Dean in whose area the respondent is employed. The ombudsman will inform the student that proceedings under this rule are not appropriate if such is the case. Regardless of the disposition, such notice will be mailed to the student within three (3) days after the ombudsman’s receipt of the written grievance.
      (d) Within 15 days of receipt of notification of the grievance, the respondent (or in case of absence of the respondent’s supervisor) shall prepare a written response to the allegation(s) made by the student and shall furnish copies of this response to the grievant, to the appropriate Vice President/Dean, and the clerk of the University.
      (e) Upon receipt of the grievance and the respondent’s reply thereto, the respondent’s Vice President/Dean shall take action as follows:
         1. If the grievant selects Option A (as noted on the format): After review of the grievance, associated documents and any discussions necessary to determine the facts, the respondent’s Vice President/Dean shall establish the University position and notify the grievant and the respondent. This notification shall be made in writing within 25 days after the Vice President’s/Dean’s receipt of the grievance and respondent’s reply thereto, and shall be forwarded to the grievant by the University ombudsman.
         2. If the grievant selects Option B:
            a. Within five (5) days after receipt of the grievance and respondent’s reply, the Vice President/Dean shall appoint an investigator from among the members of the Student Grievance Panel. This appointment shall be subject to challenge for cause and to no more than two (2) peremptory challenges by either party (see also paragraph (3)(i) above);
b. The investigator shall file his report and recommendations with the respondent’s Vice President/Dean within 25 days after receipt of the grievance and the respondent’s reply thereto. This report shall be in writing and shall include, but need not be limited to; statements by the grievant and the respondent; statements by any witnesses testifying on behalf of either party; documents in support of either position; the investigator’s summary and recommendation to the Vice President/Dean;

This board shall consist of five (5) members who are disinterested parties selected from among the members of the Student Grievance Panel. Two shall be faculty members, two shall be administrators and one shall be a student. Either party may challenge for cause any panel member selected to serve on the board and may also peremptorily challenge no more than two (2) of the selectees. After the exercise of all challenges, the Vice President/Dean shall name one member of the board to act as chair.

   b. Proceedings of the Student Grievance Board shall be carried out under the following general principles:

      (i) The board’s record of proceedings and recommendation shall be delivered, in writing, to the Vice President no later than 30 days after the date the board is appointed.

      (ii) Where applicable, the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply for purposes of discovery. The Chair may issue appropriate orders to effect discovery and to prevent unnecessary delay. This shall not be construed to prevent continuances upon the showing of good cause.

      (iii) All parties to the grievance may make opening and closing statements, offer testimony and evidence and cross-examine witnesses.

      (iv) The rules of evidence need not be strictly followed, but may be liberally construed in the interest of a fair and prompt adjudication of the grievance.

      (v) The fact-finding portion of the grievance shall be open.

      (vi) No provision in the student grievance procedure shall preclude an informal settlement of the grievance at any stage of the process.

   Deliberation – Immediately upon conclusion of the fact-finding portion of the hearing, or as soon thereafter as is practical, the grievant, the respondent, and all witnesses shall be dismissed and the board shall go into closed session to deliberate. The deliberation and recommendation of the Grievance Board shall be presented in the open hearing. Within fourteen (14) days, a written recommendation shall include the finding of fact and conclusions. The recommendation must be agreed upon by at least three (3) of the board’s members.

   c. The respondent’s Vice President/Dean shall review the board’s recommendation and render a decision within 10 days. This decision shall be forwarded in writing to the grievant and the respondent through the clerk of the University.

   (6) Formal Resolution of Student Grievances – Step 2. If the grievance is not resolved under the procedures heretofore mentioned, the grievant may seek relief under the provisions of Section 120.57, F.S. Within 15 days after receipt of a request for hearing pursuant to Section 120.57, F.S., a hearing officer will be requested and an appropriate hearing procedure will be initiated.

6C10-4.005 Student Activities.

(1) General. The University supports a variety of student activities and organizations as a belief in their co-curricular value, their role in the general education of students, and their being an asset to the University community. Opportunities for student involvement in student organizations include Student Government Association, academic/pre-professional and honorary, religious, club sports, social, special interests, minority, international and service groups. Student organizations play an important role in the total university life and must, therefore, exercise judgment and responsibility in the planning and implementation of their activities. This judgment and responsibility extends to individual members and officers of organizations. Organizations and individuals must also observe the rules relating to student activities that are published in the 1998-99 Student Guidebook for rational and effective operation in the University community.

(2) Registration of Student Organizations. Any student, group or organization whose objectives are consistent with the organizational goals and mission of Florida Gulf Coast University is eligible for registration. Registration will be made for review and concurrence to the Office of Student Life. Final approval of the Dean of Student Services will be given when the organization’s objective statement has been determined to be consistent with the goals and mission of the University. Student organizations are designated as either recognized or registered. Recognized organizations are those organizations that are open for membership to any registered student. Registered organizations are those organizations that limit membership based on established criteria such as fraternities, sororities, and honor and professional societies.
(3) Membership. Membership in any student organization is limited to any student who is currently paying fees and is enrolled with Florida Gulf Coast University. Organizational membership requirements must also be satisfied. FGCU faculty, staff and alumni may be non-voting members. In order to comply with the Florida Gulf Coast University’s commitment to non-discrimination, no discrimination shall be made on the basis of gender, race, color, creed, age, religion, disability, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, parental status or veteran’s status.

(4) Eligibility for Leadership Positions/Office Qualifications. The University has established minimum requirements for participation or leadership, but may waive the minimum requirements for students who have been members of the organization in good standing for at least one semester.

(a) A student must:
1. Be currently enrolled as a fee paying student in at least one class at Florida Gulf Coast University;
2. Have an overall GPA of at least 2.0;
3. Have an average of at least 2.0 for all work attempted while in attendance at FGCU;
4. Be in good academic and disciplinary standing (not on academic or disciplinary probation);
5. Be free of any holds on university records.

(b) Students who are currently members of a student organization who do not meet these minimum requirements may submit a written appeal to remain in the organization to the Student Organization Appeals Board through the Office of Student Life within two (2) weeks from the first day of class each semester. This board is composed of six (6) students currently serving as officers of approved student organizations recommended by the President of the Student Government Association and selected by the Student Government Association Advisor. The appeal should address the causes for ineligibility and reasons for believing that the problems have been resolved. The Student Organization Appeals Board is the deciding body that, upon hearing the appeal may waive the eligibility requirements for one semester.

(c) The Student Organization Appeals Board may selectively review the academic record of students in positions of leadership or responsibility. If the Board believes that a student officer is not making satisfactory progress towards graduation, the Board may recommend to the student, the advisor, and the organization that the student resign from the position of leadership or responsibility. The recommendation will be made for the best interest of the student, but the Board does not have the authority to remove an officer from a leadership position.

(d) The Student Government Association has established eligibility requirements for selected positions in that organization. These requirements and governing procedures are presented in their election statutes, which are made available to any student upon request as well as to all candidates filing for office.

(5) Faculty/Staff Advisor. All organizations shall have an FGCU faculty or staff advisor in order to be considered for registration. Additionally, a faculty or staff advisor is required in order to receive Student Government Association funding.

(6) Registration Process. To be considered for registration, a student organization must submit in writing to the Office of Student Life a list of FGCU student members and their social security numbers, the signature of all officers and the faculty/staff advisor(s), and the organization’s constitution. The GPA of all officers is also required. In seeking, securing and maintaining the privilege to be registered, each student organization must agree in writing to abide by all university policies, procedures and regulations published in the University catalog, the 1998-99 Student Guidebook, the FGCU Student Government Association Constitution, and posted on the University web site, and to hold harmless the University for any actions or activities of the organization.

(7) Update Reports. At the beginning of each semester, and following organization elections, all registered student organizations must file an update report with the Office of Student Life. The report must include a current listing of the organization’s membership and officers, the signature of at least two current officers and the faculty/staff advisor(s), the purpose, the organization’s address and a statement of understanding of the hazing laws. Organizations that do not turn in an update form or do not meet any of the other informational requirements listed above will be considered inactive after the second week of each Fall and Spring semester. Complete membership and officers lists and financial statements should be made available to the Office of Student Life upon request. Any change in the information indicated above during the academic year should be reported to the Office of Student Life within one month.

(8) Funds and Expenditures. Recognized organizations may receive operating and programming funds from Student Government Association funds through an application process. Funds are allocated by the Student Senate following the guidelines of Section 240.235(1), F.S. All approved Student Government Association funding will be disbursed and expended through the Student Government Association’s Activities and Service Fee Committee. Student organizations recognized by the University may be granted the following privileges:

(a) The privilege to use University facilities depending on availability, program and guidelines;
(b) The privilege to request Student Government Association funds;
(c) The privilege to use the University’s name as part of the organization’s name;
(d) The privilege to grant awards and honors to organization members.

(9) Organizations that violate University regulations pertaining to the organization and management of student organizations will be subject to disciplinary action as described elsewhere in The 1998-99 Student Guidebook. Such action includes:

(a) The limitation of any or all privileges listed above;
(b) Social probation for the organization;
(c) The temporary suspension of the organization’s activities;
(d) The withdrawal of the organization’s registration.
Registration of student organizations by the University shall not imply support for any student organization’s purpose, philosophy or activities. The Florida Gulf Coast University will not assume any legal liability for any student organization’s activities.

   2. Special skills possessed by an employee that are needed to perform a critical assignment.
   3. The inability to fill a critical position where recruitment efforts have been unsuccessful.

The University shall require written certification from the secondary employing university that the additional duties will not interfere with or constitute a conflict of interest with the employee’s regularly assigned duties at the University, and will not involve the use of state space, personnel, equipment, or supplies furnished by the University, unless arrangements are made by the secondary university to adequately compensate Florida Gulf Coast University for use of same.

6C10-5.016 Employee Disciplinary Procedures.

(1) Scope and Authority.

   (a) This rule applies to all Administrative and Professional (A & P) and University Support Personnel System (USPS) employees of the University. The provisions of this rule are subject to applicable collective bargaining agreement provisions, and Board of Regents System-Wide Personnel Rules.

   (b) The authority to discipline employees is vested in the University President. The President has delegated authority to Vice Presidents to approve disciplinary actions within the administrative area for which he/she is responsible, and to the hiring official regarding the suspension and termination of any USPS and A & P employee, conditional upon the approval of the appropriate University Vice President. Authority has also been delegated to Department Heads and/or immediate supervisors to administer oral and written reprimands.

   (2) Standards of Conduct. All employees are expected to respect the rights of others, to exhibit levels of behavior supporting the mission, purposes and best interests of the University, to perform assigned duties in an orderly and efficient manner, and to adhere to all University rules and directives.
Disciplinary Procedures. An employee who repeatedly violates the University’s standards of conduct, whether of the same or different nature, and, who despite repeated warnings, fails to correct his or her behavior to conform to reasonable conduct or work standards will be subject to progressive and cumulative disciplinary action.

(a) Job-related offenses. The standards for disciplinary action apply to offenses that occur while the employee is at work. If offenses occur while the employee is off duty, and away from the job, any disciplinary action taken must be preceded by a decision, supported by facts, that the offense adversely affects the employee’s ability to perform assigned duties, or the University’s ability to carry out its mission and purposes.

(b) Counseling. Except for offenses which warrant immediate disciplinary action, supervisors may counsel an employee and provide an opportunity for him or her to comply with the instructions before administering disciplinary action. If the problem is not resolved, the supervisor will notify the employee’s disciplinary action will be taken.

(c) Investigatory Interview. Investigatory interviews may be used by the supervisor to determine whether the employee committed the alleged offense. The employee shall be advised prior to an interview that the supervisor will be conducting an investigatory interview. If an employee is covered by a collective bargaining agreement, he or she may have a union representative present as an advisor, during any disciplinary investigation interview. Such representative may neither act as a spokesperson, nor argue facts or conclusions. The provisions of Part VI of Chapter 112, F.S., shall apply to law enforcement employees covered by that statute.

(d) USPS Probationary Employees. The probationary period for each USPS employee is intended to be a working test period following appointment to any class in which the employee does not hold permanent status. Probationary employees may be disciplined without a right of appeal and are subject to dismissal for any single offense or for failure to meet required performance levels during the probationary period. For purposes of discipline, permanent status refers to an employee’s status in the USPS and not a specific job. Consequently, an employee with permanent status in USPS, but serving in probationary status in a class may be removed from the class during the probationary period, without the application of these standards. New employees, in probationary status in the USPS, may be dismissed during this probationary period without the use of these standards and without the right of appeal.

(4) Types and Guidelines for Disciplinary Action.

(a) Oral Reprimand. This is the least severe type of disciplinary action and is administered to cause the employee to correct inappropriate behavior. A record of the oral reprimand shall be prepared containing only a brief description and the dates of the incident and reprimand, and the disciplinary standards violated. The document shall be provided to the employee with a copy to Human Resources for inclusion in the employee’s personnel file.

(b) Written Reprimand. The purpose is to warn the employee in writing of a specific offense or deficiency in performance standards and give notice to the employee of the next level of discipline for a repeated offense. The written reprimand shall be in a memorandum format informing the employee of the possible consequences if the offense is repeated. A copy shall be provided to the Human Resources Office for inclusion in the employee’s personnel file.

(c) Suspension. This is a severe form of discipline which can be administered as a step in the progressive and cumulative discipline procedure following one or more written reprimands, or for the first commission of a serious offense. Suspension is defined as an action taken by the University to temporarily relieve the employee of duties and place the employee on leave without pay. Notice shall be given, offering the employee the opportunity for a predetermination conference pursuant to subsection 6C10-5.016(5), F.A.C., below.

(d) Dismissal. This is the final and most severe form of discipline that can be imposed on an employee. Dismissal is defined as the action taken by the University to separate an employee from employment. Notice shall be given, offering the employee the opportunity for a predetermination conference pursuant to subsection 6C10-5.016(5), F.A.C., below.

(5) Predetermination Procedures.

(a) Written Notice. Prior to the dismissal, suspension, or disciplinary reduction in pay of a permanent employee, the University shall provide the employee written notice prior to the date the action is to be taken. The notice shall be hand-delivered to the employee and duly receipted by the employee or mailed to the employee by certified mail, return receipt requested. An employee shall be deemed to have received a mailed notice, even if he or she refuses to accept the correspondence or ignores it.

(b) Contents of Notice. The notice shall be signed by the person authorized to make the final decision or his/her designated representative and shall include the following:

1. The effective date of the University’s proposed final action;
2. The specific charges or reasons for the action;
3. A list of documents on which the charges or other reasons are based; and a statement that documents shall be available to the employee upon request;
4. A statement that the employee may, within five (5) workdays of receipt of the notice, submit a request in writing for a conference at which the employee may make an oral or written statement, or both, to the University to refute or explain the charges or reasons for the action; and the name, address, and telephone number of the person to whom the request for a conference shall be directed;
5. A statement that the employee may bring a representative to advise and assist;
6. A copy or summary of the predetermination procedures shall be enclosed with the notice.
(c) Conference. If a conference is requested by the employee, it shall be conducted by the person authorized to make the final decision or his/her designated representative as follows:

1. The person conducting the conference shall explain that the purpose of the conference is to hear the employee’s response to the charges in order to protect the employee from erroneous or arbitrary adverse action, to afford the University an opportunity to reevaluate its position after reviewing the information presented by the employee, and to thereafter affirm or alter the disciplinary action as may be warranted.

2. The conference shall be informal and shall not be in the nature of an evidentiary hearing. Discovery, cross-examination, and similar legal procedures are not permissible.

3. The employee shall be permitted to submit relevant information, orally or in writing, or both, with the privilege being reserved to the University to give such information the weight it deems proper.

4. After the conference is conducted, the employee shall be notified in writing, as soon as practicable, that the proposed final action will be effective on a specific date, that the proposed final action has been revised, or that no action will occur.

(d) Decision. If the University determines after the conference that it will proceed with the reduction in pay, suspension, or dismissal of the employee, the employee shall be notified in writing by personal delivery or by certified mail, return receipt requested, within five (5) workdays from the date the action is effective.

(e) During the period between the first notice and the effective date of the action, one of the following options may be used by the University: assign the employee his/her usual duties; temporarily assign the employee to other duties; or place the employee on administrative leave with pay.

(6) Standards for Disciplinary Action. The following standards for disciplinary action shall be used by supervisors to assure uniformity in treatment in the most common disciplinary problems. The list of offenses is not exclusive and the disciplinary action selected for a particular offense will be chosen based on the facts of the specific situation taking into consideration any extenuating circumstances. These standards do not preclude the imposition of more or less severe penalties depending upon all circumstances surrounding a particular incident. These standards are meant to be illustrative of the most common disciplinary problems and the actions to be taken. Failure to follow these standards for disciplinary action shall not be grounds to invalidate the disciplinary action unless the failure materially predicates the employee’s rights.

(b) Investigations of misconduct – Records created after July 1, 1995 and maintained for the purposes of any investigation of an employee’s alleged misconduct, including but not limited to a complaint against an employee and all information obtained pursuant to the investigation thereof, shall be confidential until the investigation ceases to be active or until the University provides written notice to the employee who is the subject of the complaint that the University has either (i) concluded the investigation, whether or not the conclusion contains a finding to proceed or not to proceed with disciplinary action, or (ii) issued a letter of discipline. For the purpose of this paragraph, an investigation shall be considered active for as long as it is continuing with a reasonable, good faith anticipation that a finding will be made in the foreseeable future. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an investigation is inactive if no finding is made within 90 days after the complaint is filed.

(c) Disciplinary proceedings – Records after July 1, 1995 and maintained for the purposes of any disciplinary proceeding brought against an employee shall be confidential until a final decision is made in the proceeding. The record of any disciplinary proceeding, including any evidence presented, shall be open to inspection by the employee at all times.

(d) Grievance proceedings – Records created after July 1, 1995 and maintained for the purposes of any grievance proceeding brought by an employee for enforcement of a collective bargaining agreement or contract shall be confidential and shall be open to inspection only by the employee and by University officials conducting the grievance proceeding until a final decision is made in the proceeding. A decision shall be “final” for the operation of this rule when an arbitration decision has been issued, or when a step decision has been issued and the time for appeal to the next step has expired without further appeal.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any records or portions thereof which are otherwise confidential by law shall continue to be exempt from the provisions of Section 119.07(1), F.S. In addition, for sexual harassment investigations, portions of such records which identify the complainant, a witness, or information which could reasonably lead to the identification of the complainant or a witness are limited-access records.

(3) Except as noted above, the custodian of limited-access personnel records may release information from such records only upon authorization in writing from the employee or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

6C10-5.020 Grievance Procedures - Non-Unit Faculty and A & P.

(1) General. This grievance procedure is applicable to all Faculty and Administrative and Professional (A & P) employees who are not covered by the BOR/UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement. Grievances of bargaining unit faculty and A & P staff are governed by the BOR/UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement.

(a) The purpose of this procedure is to promote a prompt and efficient process for the investigation and resolution of grievances filed by faculty and A & P staff.

(b) The University encourages the informal resolution of all problems whenever possible before the filing of a grievance, and encourages open communication so that resorting to the formal grievance procedure normally will not be necessary. The failure to resolve a matter informally prior to the filing of a grievance shall not be an act or omission giving rise to a grievance and shall not operate to extend the time limits for processing the grievance.

(c) The burden of proof shall be on the University in a grievance concerning reprimands, suspension, termination for cause, and other disciplinary actions. In all other grievances, the burden of proof shall be on the grievant.

(d) The intent of this procedure is to provide a complete response to a grievance but not to encourage multiple processing of the same issue. Therefore, except as noted below, if prior to, or while seeking resolution of, a dispute under this procedure, a grievant seeks resolution of the matter in any other forum, administrative or judicial, the University shall have no obligation to entertain or to proceed further with the matter pursuant to this procedure. The grievant shall immediately notify the University in writing if he or she has sought resolution of the matter in any other forum. As an exception to this provision, a grievant may file an EEOC charge while the grievance is in process when such filing becomes necessary to meet federal filing deadlines pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. Further, since it is not intended that the grievance procedure be a device for appellate review, the response of the president or representative to a recommended order of a presiding officer acting pursuant to Chapter 120, F.S., or to any other individual or group having appropriate jurisdiction in any other procedure shall not be an act or omission giving rise to a grievance under this procedure.

(e) A grievance shall be filed no later than twenty-five (25) days from the date following the act or omission giving rise to the grievance, or twenty-five (25) days from the date the grievant acquires knowledge, or could have reasonably been expected to have acquired knowledge, of the act or omission.

(f) All time limits contained in this rule may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Upon failure of the University or its representative to provide a decision within the time limits, the grievant may appeal to the next appropriate step. Upon the failure of the grievant or counsel to file an appeal within the time limits, the grievance shall be deemed to have been resolved at the prior step.

(g) A grievant whose substantial interests have been affected by University action may file a petition for a hearing pursuant to and in accordance with Section 120.569, F.S., unless a written grievance has been or is being filed under this procedure. Filing of a written grievance under this procedure constitutes a waiver of any right the grievant might otherwise have to request a hearing pursuant to Section 120.569, F.S.

(h) The written grievance shall be filed on a STEP ONE GRIEVANCE FORM – NON-UNIT FACULTY AND A & P STAFF, Form HR-G200 (10/26). Form HR-G200 (10/26) which is incorporated by reference, has been approved by the University President and is available upon request at the Office of Human Resources, 10501 FGCU Blvd. South, Fort Myers, FL 33965-6565. The grievance shall contain the following information: grievant’s name; name and address of counsel, if any; specific provision(s) of Chapters 6C-5 and 6C10, F.A.C., or other rule or statute claimed to have been violated; a statement of the grievance, including the acts or omissions which are claimed to have given rise to the grievance; the date of such acts or omissions; remedy sought; signature of the grievant.

(2) Definitions.

(a) Days – The term “days” shall mean calendar days. In the event that the time for taking an action falls on Saturday, Sunday or a state holiday, the action will be considered timely if it is accomplished by 5:00 p.m. on the following calendar day.

(b) Grievance – The term “grievance” shall mean a dispute concerning promotion, non-renewal and termination of employment contracts, discipline, salary, work assignment, annual evaluation, layoff and recall, and other rights accruing to grievants pursuant to Chapters 6C-5 and 6C10-5, F.A.C. The term “work assignment” does not include the reassignment or transfer to another campus of the University.

(c) Grievant – The term “grievant” shall mean a non-bargaining unit member or members of the University’s faculty and Administrative and Professional staff whose rights have been directly affected by an act or omission of the University or representative, and who has timely filed a grievance.

(d) Grievance Officer – The term “grievance officer” shall mean a University employee appointed to conduct the Step 1 meeting by the Vice President responsible for the division in which the grievant is employed.

(e) Technical Advisor – The term “technical advisor” shall mean a representative of the Office of Human Resources appointed to assist the grievant and the grievance officer in administrative duties and interpretation of policies and procedures.

(3) Step 1 Procedures.
(a) Upon receipt of the written grievance, the Vice President responsible for the division in which the grievant is employed shall appoint a University employee to serve as grievance officer. The Vice President may ask the Director of Human Resources to appoint a grievance technical advisor. The grievance officer and the technical advisor, if the grievance officer deems it necessary, shall within twenty-five (25) days following receipt of the grievance, meet with the grievant in informal conference(s) to establish the facts giving rise to the grievance.

(b) The grievance officer shall consult with the parties directly involved in the grievance and interview others in addition to the grievant and seek any other material as necessary in order to determine an appropriate resolution of the grievance. The investigation shall be as informal as possible, yet compatible with the interest of resolving the grievance in a timely manner.

(c) The grievance officer shall, within twenty-five (25) days following the conclusion of the investigation and informal conference(s) with the grievant, issue a written decision to the grievant giving reasons for the conclusions reached and attaching all documents presented at the Step 1 meeting. The grievance officer will provide a copy of the written decision with attachments to the respective divisional Vice President.

(4) Step 2 Procedures.

(a) If the grievant is dissatisfied with the decision in Step 1, and wishes to pursue the matter, the grievant shall send a letter to the President within twenty-five (25) days following receipt of the decision in Step 1 requesting a Step 2 review.

(b) The President may conduct the Step 2 review personally or may refer the grievance to the appropriate Vice President for a Step 2 review.

(c) The Step 2 review may be based solely on the Step 1 report or may include a meeting with the grievant as deemed necessary by the Step 2 reviewer.

(d) A written decision shall be furnished to the grievant within twenty-five (25) days following completion of the Step 2 review. The decision of the President or Vice President conducting the Step 2 review shall be final.

6C10-5.021 Non-Reappointment and Resignation of Non-Unit Faculty and A & P Employees.

(1) The rule is applicable to all Faculty and Administrative and Professional (A & P) employees who are not covered by the BOR/UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement.

(2) Non-Unit Faculty and A & P employees are expected to provide at least one (1) month notice prior to resignation, except in an emergency situation.

(3) Non-reappointment by the University.

(a) Non-unit Faculty and A & P employees, except those appointed for less than one (1) year, appointed with visiting status, appointed to a multi-year contract, or paid in whole or in part from contracts and grants, sponsored research funds, trust funds, auxiliaries or local funds, are entitled to written notice that they will not be offered further appointment as follows:

1. For employees in their initial year of employment with the University, one (1) month notice prior to the effective date of the non-reappointment;
2. For employees with one (1) or more years of service, three (3) months notice prior to the effective date of the non-reappointment;
3. For employees in the Executive Service, sixty (60) days notice prior to the effective date of the non-reappointment.

(b) The decision not to offer further appointment to a non-unit Faculty or A & P employee shall not be based upon constitutionally impermissible or other illegal grounds.

(c) In the event of a break in service for more than four consecutive months in a year, only service following such break shall be counted in determining years of employment under this section. “Break in service” is defined as absence, not including approved leaves of absence, following which the employee is treated as a new employee.

(d) Following receipt of the notice of non-reappointment, a non-unit Faculty or A & P employee may be reassigned to other duties and responsibilities. Regardless of a reassignment, the employee is entitled to the same amount of compensation he/she received prior to reassignment until the effective date of non-reappointment. If the effective date of non-reappointment is subsequent to the expiration date of the employee’s contract, the employee shall be issued a temporary contract for the balance of the required notice period.

Specific Authority 240.227(1) FS. Law Implemented 240.209(3)(f), 240.227(5) FS. History–New 4-17-97, Amended 8-18-99.

(1) Just cause shall be defined as:

(a) Incompetence; or
(b) Misconduct.

(2) Termination and Suspension.
(a) The appointment of a non-unit faculty or an A & P employee may be terminated or suspended during its term for just cause. The employee shall be given written notice of termination or suspension by the President or President’s designee. The notice shall state the reasons for the termination or suspension. The termination or suspension imposed under this subsection shall take effect when either the time for filing a grievance under Rule 6C10-5.020, F.A.C., has passed, or, in the event a grievance is filed, after final administrative action has been taken thereon. During the period following notice, the employee is subject to reassignment.

(b) The President or President’s designee retains the right to impose disciplinary action, other than termination or suspension, for just cause. The employee shall be given written notice of any disciplinary action. The President or President’s designee shall state in the notice reasons for the disciplinary action. Any disciplinary action taken under this section shall be subject to the grievance procedure found in Rule 6C10-5.020, F.A.C., applicable to non-unit faculty and A & P employees.

(c) Suspension Pending Investigation. The President or President’s designee may immediately suspend an employee from the performance of his/her duties when the President or President’s designee has reason to believe that the employee’s presence on the job would adversely affect the functioning of the University or jeopardize the safety or welfare of other employees. The President or President’s designee shall determine whether a suspension shall be with or without pay. The President or President’s designee shall suspend an employee without pay only when the employee is already in a leave without pay status. Within two (2) work days from such immediate suspension, excluding weekends and official holidays, the President or President’s designee shall serve written notice upon the employee, stating the reasons for the action taken. If the employee has been suspended without pay and subsequently is reinstated as a result of the grievance procedure, the employee shall be reinstated with back pay.

(3) Employees appointed to Executive Service may be subject to suspension, reduction in pay, demotion, transfer, reassignment and other personnel action by the President.

It is the intent of the Florida Gulf Coast University Board of Trustees to acquire quality goods and services within reasonable or required time frames, while promoting fair and open competition in the public procurement process. The process will reduce the appearance and opportunity for favoritism, ensure that contracts are awarded equitably and economically, and establish effective management oversight in the acquisition of commodities and contractual services, in order to preserve the integrity of public purchasing and contracting. The opportunity to bid on university contracts is a privilege, not a right.

The President or designee is delegated authority to serve as the central procurement officer for the University and has the duty to:

(1) Canvass sources of supply and contracting for the purchase or lease of all commodities and contractual services for the University, in any manner, including purchase by installment- or lease-purchase contracts. Installment- or lease-purchase contracts may provide for the payment of interest on unpaid portions of the purchase price.

(2) Remove any contractor from the University’s competitive vendor list that fails to fulfill any of its duties specified in a contract with the University or governmental entity.

(3) Plan and coordinate purchases in volume and negotiating and executing agreements and contracts for commodities and contractual services under which the University may make purchases.
(4) Evaluate and approve contracts let by governmental entities for the procurement of commodities and contractual services, when it is determined to be cost-effective and in the best interests of the University to make purchases under contracts let by such other entities.

(5) Elect as an alternative to any provision in Section 120.57(3)(c), Florida Statutes, to proceed with a competitive solicitation or contract award process when it is set forth, in writing, that the particular facts and circumstances which demonstrate that the delay due to staying the solicitation or contract award process would be detrimental to the interests of the University. After the award of contract resulting from a competitive solicitation in which a timely protest was received and in which the University did not prevail, the contract will be cancelled and re-awarded to the prevailing party unless the final order or settlement between the parties provides otherwise.

(6) Award contracts for commodities and contractual services to one or more suppliers, if it is determined to be in the best interest of the University. 6C10-6.015 Competitive Solicitations Requirement.

(1) All purchase orders or contracts for the purchase of commodities or contractual services exceeding $50,000 shall be awarded pursuant to a competitive solicitation, unless otherwise authorized in Chapter 6C10-6, F.A.C. The purchase of commodities and contractual services shall not be divided to avoid the requirement of competitive solicitation.

(2) The University shall require vendors to submit a solicitation security with their response to a competitive solicitation when the contract amount is expected to be greater than $100,000 and it is in the University’s best interests to require the security. The solicitation security shall be in the form of a bid bond, certified, treasurer’s or cashier’s check or bank draft and the required amount shall be no greater than ten percent (10%) of the estimated value of the response value. The failure to submit such security with the response shall result in disqualification of the response.

(3) Competitive solicitations for purchases that are expected to be in excess of $50,000 shall be advertised in the Florida Administrative Weekly, a newspaper of general circulation, or electronically posted on the www.myflorida.com website (Florida Communities Network). All competitive solicitations will be electronically posted on the University’s www.fgcu.edu/ website (Purchasing Department). The President or designee shall waive the advertisement requirement when the number of potential responders is limited and can otherwise be solicited, when the availability of funding so requires, or when delivery is urgent.

(4) When only one response is received to a competitive solicitation for commodities or contractual services exceeding $50,000, the University will review the solicitation response and circumstances surrounding the solicitation to determine if a second call for a competitive solicitation will yield the same results. If it is determined that a second call is not in the University’s best interests or would yield the same results, then the University will proceed with the acquisition.

(5) When multiple responses that are equal in all respects are received to an invitation to bid, the University will give preference, in the following order of priority, to bids that include commodities manufactured in the State of Florida, Florida businesses, businesses with a drug-free workplace program, or foreign manufacturers located in the state, to determine the contract award. If use of these preferences does not determine a contract award, the toss of the coin shall be used to award the contract.

(6) In the case of extension errors in a response to a competitive solicitation, the unit price will prevail.

(7) A Contractor may withdraw a competitive solicitation response, in writing, within seventy-two (72) hours of the response opening, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and University holidays, or at any time thereafter with the written consent of the President or designee when the University’s interests will not be adversely affected by the withdrawal.

(8) Notices of Intent to Award competitive solicitations shall be publicly posted at the Purchasing Department for a minimum of seventy-two (72) hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays and University holidays.

Specific Authority 1001.74(4), 1010.04 FS. Law Implemented 1001.74(5), (17), (29), 1001.75(5), 1010.04 FS. History–New 9-30-99, Amended 7-10-03.

MBEs should have a fair and equal opportunity to compete for dollars spent by the University to procure commodities and contractual services. Competition ensures that prices are competitive and that a broad vendor base is available. The University will use good faith efforts to ensure that MBE vendors are aware of procurement and contract opportunities.

(4) Purchases from Contractors Convicted of Public Entity Crimes. The University shall not accept a competitive solicitation from or purchase commodities or contractual services from a person or affiliate who has been convicted of a public entity crime and has been placed on the State of Florida’s convicted vendor list for a period of 36 months from the date of being added to the convicted vendor list.

(5) Purchasing actions that are not subject to the competitive solicitation process include:

(a) Emergency Purchases. When the President or designee determines, in writing, that the delay due to the competitive solicitation process threatens the health or safety of person(s) or animal(s), the protection or continuance of a vital University function or the preservation or protection of property, the University will proceed with the procurement of commodities or contractual services without a competitive solicitation. The emergency purchase shall be limited to the purchase of the type of items and quantities or for a time period sufficient to meet the threat and shall not be used to meet long-term requirements.

The University shall require any vendor contracting with the University to provide services or commodities that include installation to furnish a payment and performance bond, with good and sufficient securities, to the University prior to the issuance of the contract when the contract amount is greater than $200,000 and the University is uncertain about the contractor’s ability to perform.

(2) Solicitation Protest Bond. Any contractor that files an action pursuant to Section 120.57(3)(b), Florida Statutes, protesting a decision or intended decision pertaining to a solicitation, shall at the time of filing of the formal written protest, post with the University, a bond, cashier’s check or money order payable to the University in an amount equal to: 10% of the estimated value of the protestor’s bid or proposal; 10% of the estimated expenditure during the contract term; $10,000; or whichever is less. The bond, cashier’s check or money order shall be conditioned upon the payment of all costs that may be adjudged against the contractor filing the protest action. Failure of the protesting contractor to file the required bond, cashier’s check or money order at the time of filing the formal protest shall result in the denial of the protest.

6C10-6.018 Contracts.

(1) Contracts for commodities or contractual services shall consist of a purchase order or bilateral agreement signed by the President or designee prior to goods or services being rendered by the contractor. For purchases that the President or designee determines are emergency purchases in accordance with paragraph 6C10-6.016(6)(a), F.A.C., a contract shall consist of a purchase order or bilateral agreement signed by the President or designee prior to or within thirty (30) days of the goods or services being rendered by the contractor.

(2) Any contract for the purchase of services or tangible personal property for a period in excess of one fiscal year shall include the following statement: “The State of Florida and University’s performance and obligation to pay under this contract is contingent upon an annual appropriation by the Legislature”.

(3) Extension of a contract shall be for a period not to exceed 12 months, shall be in writing, shall be signed by both parties, and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions set forth in the initial contract and any amendments thereto. There shall be only one extension of a contract.

(4) A contract may contain provisions for renewal for a period no longer than the initial term. If the commodity or contractual service is purchased as a result of a competitive solicitation, the cost of any contemplated renewal must be included in the competitive solicitation. All contract renewals are subject to sufficient annual appropriations and shall be executed in writing by both parties.

(5) The President or designee is authorized to enter into deferred payment agreements through the State of Florida’s Consolidated Equipment Financing Program. No agreement shall establish a debt of the state or shall be a pledge of the faith and credit of the state; nor shall any agreement be a liability or obligation of the state except from appropriated funds.

(6) In order to promote cost-effective procurement of commodities and contractual services, the University may enter into contracts that limit the liability of a vendor in accordance with Section 672.719, Florida Statutes.

All persons taking part in the development or selection of criteria for evaluation, the evaluation process, and the contract award process in any purchase shall follow all relevant portions of the State of Florida Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees, Chapter 112, Part III, Florida Statutes, and the University’s rule on outside employment and activities, Rule 6C10-5.012, F.A.C.
(2) Purchasing officers shall be protected from improper pressures of external political or business interests. (c) A student enrolled in the same undergraduate course more than twice shall be assessed an additional $177.42 per credit hour charge for each such course.

(4) Payments on Accounts Due the University. Charges against a student’s account for loss or breakage of University equipment, lost books, library or parking fines and other related charges are due immediately. University policy prohibits registration, or release of transcript and diploma for any student whose account with the University is delinquent.

(5) Registration occurs when a student:
(a) Selects one or more credit courses approved and scheduled by the University; and
(b) Pays tuition and fees, partial or otherwise, or makes other appropriate arrangements for tuition payment (deferment, or third party billing) for the courses in which the student is enrolled as of the end of the drop/add period. The University does not have a plan for installment payment of fees.

(6) Payment. Tuition and registration fees must be paid in full by the date designated in the University Student Schedule and Fee Statement as the “last date to pay fees” for each semester. Payments shall be made at the Cashier’s Office or by mail and received no later than that date. The President or designee will extend the deadline for fee payment when payment by the student is delayed due to University action or inaction.

(7) Liability for payment of tuition is incurred at the point at which the student has completed registration. Students are liable for all fees associated with all courses in which they are registered at the end of the drop/add period.

(8) Cancellation of Registration. A student’s course schedule shall be canceled when tuition has not been paid in full or when arrangements for payment have not been made through the Office of Financial Aid or the Cashier’s Office. By the published “last date to pay fees” students awaiting receipt of financial aid must pay any additional amount due before the end of the last day to pay fees to prevent cancellation of the course schedule. A student whose course schedule has been canceled cannot thereafter attend classes and will not obtain credit for courses. A student whose course schedule has been canceled will be mailed written notice of cancellation to his/her last known address on record and be given a deadline by which he/she may apply for reinstatement.

(9) Reinstatement. Students may seek reinstatement of their course schedule by following the procedures outlined in this subsection.
(a) Requests for reinstatement. A request for reinstatement must be presented in writing to the Registrar’s Office by the deadline given on the notice of cancellation mailed to the student. The request for reinstatement must include all documentation supporting the request. The Reinstatement Appeals Committee will evaluate the request based upon the criteria contained in this rule and notify the student in writing of its decision.
(b) Reinstatement Appeals Committee. A student whose course schedule has been canceled for non-payment may apply for reinstatement of the course schedule to the Reinstatement Appeals Committee. The Committee shall consist of at least three staff members appointed annually by the President, and one student appointed by the Student Association. The Committee shall meet as required between the published last day to pay fees and six months after the end of the term for which the reinstatement is requested. The decision of the Committee shall be final.
(c) Criteria for Reinstatement. In evaluating a request for reinstatement, the Committee shall apply the following criteria:
1. Reinstatement shall be granted where it is demonstrated that the student’s registration was canceled through University error.
2. Reinstatement shall be granted where the student submits documentation demonstrating that the student was prevented from making timely payment due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student’s control. Examples of “extenuating circumstances” include:
   a. A student was unavoidably out of town during the week prior to the last day to pay fees, or
   b. A student was ill and unable to make payment prior to the last day to pay fees.
3. If a student’s reinstatement is approved by the Reinstatement Appeals Committee, they must be reinstated for all courses for which they were originally registered.
(d) Where reinstatement is granted, the student shall take the written decision of the Committee to the Cashier’s office, pay the fees which are due and complete the registration process with the Registrar’s Office.
(10) Late Registration Fee.
(a) A late registration fee of $100 shall be assessed by the University when registration is initiated after the close of the regular registration period.
(b) The late registration fee shall be waived when:
1. The late registration was caused by a University error, or
2. The student was unavoidably out of town on the last day to register (documentation must be provided), or
3. The student was ill (documentation must be provided), or
(12) University Loan Program Service Charge. In lieu of interest, a $10 service charge will be assessed to any student participating in the university loan program regardless of the amount of the loan. Students utilizing the university loan program must sign a promissory note which obligates them to the total loan amount including the $10 service charge for each loan issued.

(13) Fee Appeals. Students may appeal the assessment of fees and request refunds of tuition and fees to the Fee Appeals Committee according to procedures set forth in this subsection.

(a) Procedures. A student who seeks review of a fee assessed shall file a written appeal with the Registrar’s Office. The appeal must set forth the basis for seeking a refund and attach all supporting documentation. An appeal must be filed no later than six months following the last day of the term during which the fees were incurred. For the purpose of this rule, summer terms are considered as one term.

(b) Fee Appeals Committee. The Fee Appeals Committee shall consist of at least three staff members who are appointed annually by the President, and one student appointed by the Student Association. The Committee shall meet as often as necessary to review and act upon appeals which come before it.

(c) Committee Determinations. Each appeal will be initially reviewed by the Registrar or designee. A decision will be made by the Registrar’s Office according to criteria established by this rule. The decision shall be communicated in writing to the student within 60 days from the date the appeal was filed with the University. The Fee Appeals Committee shall consider only cases of those students who are appealing the initial decision made by the Registrar’s Office. Students may appear in person before the Committee to present their appeal. The decision of the Committee is final.

(d) Criteria for Determining Fee Appeals. The criteria established by this rule shall govern decisions by the Registrar and the Fee Appeals Committee:

1. A fee appeal shall be granted when it is demonstrated that fees were paid as a result of University error.

2. A fee appeal shall be granted when it is demonstrated that the student was prevented from timely withdrawal from the University due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student’s control. Extenuating circumstances include death of the student, or death in the immediate family (parent, spouse, child, sibling) of the student; illness of the student that is of long duration or severity, as confirmed in writing by a physician; or involuntary call to military duty.

3. A situation in which the University is in error as confirmed in writing by the appropriate Vice President.

4. The course was closed and the student was required to wait until classes started (written documentation from the instructor is required), or

5. The student was informed after the published last day to register that a course is necessary in order to graduate, be re-certified, or is a work related requirement (appropriate documentation must be provided).

(11) Late Payment Fee. A late payment fee of $100 shall be assessed by the University when:

(a) A student pays his/her fees after the published “last day to pay fees”, and has been approved for reinstatement pursuant to this rule; or

(b) A dishonored check is redeemed after the last date to pay fees.

(14) Refunds. Refunds will be processed and mailed to the address shown on the Registrar’s files to all students whose fee accounts show an overpayment after the published last day to pay fees. Students due a refund will not be required to submit a refund request to receive their refund because it will be automatically calculated. If there is a balance due to the University in the accounts receivable system, that amount will be deducted from any refund due. In addition, students shall be entitled to refunds in the following circumstances:

(a) 100% of tuition and course related fees will be refunded if notice of complete withdrawal or course withdrawal from the University occurs prior to the end of drop/add period.

(b) 25% of tuition and course related fees will be refunded if notice of withdrawal from ALL courses from the University occurs prior to the end of the fourth week of classes.

(c) Students who receive financial aid and subsequently change their enrollment status and this action results in a refund, may have all or a portion of their refund returned to the University’s Financial Aid Office in accordance with the terms of their financial aid agreement.

(d) 100% of tuition and course related fees if a student withdraws or drops a course due to circumstances which are exceptional and beyond the control of the student. Requests for fee adjustments must meet one of the conditions below to be considered:

1. Death of the student or immediate family member (parent, spouse, child or sibling) as confirmed by documentation indicating the student’s relationship to the deceased. Death certificate required.

2. Illness of student of such severity or duration to preclude completion of course(s). Written confirmation by a physician required.

3. A situation in which the University is in error as confirmed in writing by the appropriate Vice President.

(15) Deferred Payment Status. Deferred payment status for tuition and registration fees will be granted upon application by the student on the following grounds:

(a) Veterans shall be entitled to deferment in accordance with the provisions of Section 1009.27, F.S.

1. Each student granted a veteran’s deferment shall sign a promissory note for the amount of registration and tuition fees due. The promissory note must be presented to the University Cashier’s Office before the published last day to pay fees. Failure to present the promissory note by the deadline will result in the student being assessed the $100 late payment fee. If the student does not present an authorized deferment to the Cashier, including the $100 late fee, by the close of the fourth week of classes, the student’s registration shall be canceled. The student may request reinstatement by presenting an authorized VA deferment promissory note along with a $100 late registration/late payment fee in lieu of full payment of tuition and registration fees. (See the procedure outlined in Reinstatement.)

2. If an eligible student’s educational benefits are delayed beyond the deferral period (end of term for which they are enrolled), the deferral will be extended upon request by the student with written verification from the granting entity that the student is eligible to receive benefits and that benefits are being processed for payment. Upon receipt of written verification, the Registrar’s Office shall approve the deferment and any request for extension. Additional extensions may be similarly granted until such time that the student begins receiving educational benefits. Failure of the veteran to pay the amount of the authorized deferment by the due date or extended date, whichever is later, will result in the student being assessed the $100 late registration/late payment fee.

(b) Third Party Billings. Deferment is permitted when formal contractual arrangements have been made with the University for payments by an approved third party. The University Controller or designee is responsible for negotiating such third party contracts.

(c) Delay in Financial Aid Delivery. Deferral of tuition and fees is permitted for those students receiving financial aid from federal, state, or University assistance programs when delivery of the aid is delayed through circumstances beyond the control of the student. Failure to make timely application for such aid shall be insufficient reason to receive such deferral. The Director of Financial Aid shall certify a student’s eligibility for deferral to the University Controller or designee for each student for each academic term for which receipt of aid is delayed.

(d) Extraordinary circumstances exist and the deferment has the approval of the President or his designee.

6C10-7.002 Surplus Property.

(1) Purpose. This rule implements the authority delegated to the University by the Department of Management Services through the State University System to dispose of property certified as surplus.

(2) Definitions. The following terms are defined for purposes of this rule:

(a) Custodian – The Vice President for Administrative Services is hereby declared to be the custodian of all property located at the University.

(b) Property Manager – A University employee who has been delegated responsibility by the custodian to manage the assignment, accountability, transfer and disposal of state-owned property.

(c) Tangible Personal Property – All personal property, acquired and belonging to the State of Florida, the value or cost of which is $500 or more and the normal expected life is more than one (1) year.

(d) Exchange Property – Property being offered as a trade-in on the purchase of a new item.

(e) Property Survey Board – The advisory body appointed by the Vice President for Administrative Services to oversee surplus property practices and make recommendations for certification of property as surplus. The Property Survey Board consists of seven members from the University community representing Physical Plant, Academic Affairs, Administrative Computing, Finance and Accounting and the Campus Police and Safety Department. The Board also shall have the Property Manager as an ex-officio member.

(3) Reporting Requirements for Surplus, State-owned, Tangible Personal Property. Tangible Personal Property which is determined to be surplus because it is excess, obsolete, uneconomical or inefficient for continued use shall be certified as surplus by the custodian of the property to the Property Manager, using the Request for Relief from Property Accountability Form (SPB-001 5/97), which is incorporated by reference. The Property Transfer/Relocation/Check Out Report form (F & A Form 009.1 7/96), also incorporated by reference, would be used if equipment were transferred to Physical Plant to hold pending disposal. The Property Manager will notify the Chair of the Property Survey Board for disposition action by the Property Survey Board. However, the Property Manager shall have the authority to process routine disposal of property with the stipulation that ratification by the Property Survey Board will be routed for signature or approved at the next meeting. The Property Manager, in consultation with the chair of the Property Survey Board, may request special meetings to deal with exceptional circumstances. The Request for Relief from Property Accountability Form shall be completed to the extent possible by the custodian of the property and submitted to the Property Manager for processing and completion as necessary to provide the following information:

(a) Complete description of property.

(b) Statement of condition and age.

(c) Original purchase price.

(d) Estimated current value.

(e) Location of property and hours when property may be examined, person to contact for examining property, and a minimum bid (if required).

(f) Any additional information that would assist in determining whether or not property should be offered to other universities, state agencies, or governmental entities.
(4) Buildings and Structures. Buildings, structures and other items of a semi-permanent nature shall be considered tangible personal property, if and when they are severed from the real property upon which they reside, shall be reported in the same manner as all other surplus property. In addition, the legal description of the location, size, type of construction, and reason for removal shall be provided. Disposal of buildings and structures will require a special meeting of the Property Survey Board for approval and subsequent recommendation to the Vice President for Administrative Services.

(5) Theft and Fire Damage. Theft, fire damage, and losses due to acts beyond the control of the property custodian will be approved for disposal by the Property Survey Board in the same manner as provided in subsection (3) above.

(6) Guidelines for Disposal of Property.
(a) The Property Survey Board has the authority to recommend the property certified as surplus be offered for transfer or sale to another university, another state agency, a political subdivision, a private nonprofit agency or by sale open to the public. The Property Survey Board may also recommend that surplus property be used as exchange property, be scrapped or cannibalized, or be transferred to another agency or private entity for sale or disposal through auction, sealed bid or through contract disposal. The determination of which method of disposal to use shall be based on guidelines adopted by the Board which take into account the type, age, condition, number, usefulness, and value of the surplus property.
(b) Disposal of cannibalized equipment. The Property Survey Board may authorize the disposal of cannibalized equipment when it determines that cost of storage and handling will exceed the value of the equipment in its current cannibalized state.
(c) All abandoned property, including vehicles, that come within the possession or custody of the University shall be disposed of in the same manner as surplus property.
(d) Public Sale.
1. When the Property Survey Board determines to offer surplus property for sale at a public sale, the University shall advertise the sale in a local newspaper of general circulation a minimum of two weeks prior to the date and time set for the sale.
2. All property shall be sold either through auction or sealed bid.
3. The successful bidder or offerer shall take all property in “as-is, where-is” condition without warranty of title or condition. The bidder or offerer shall have forty-eight hours to remove the property from the location where it is being held or stored. Failure to remove the property within the time provided by this rule shall void the sale after which the University may dispose of the property by any means provided in this rule.
4. The University reserves the right to remove any property listed as surplus and offered for sale through auction or sealed bid from the public sale at any time.
(e) Contract Disposal. A contract may be executed with a local vendor, via Request for Proposal, to pick up assets appropriately disposed of by the University, on a regular basis and assume all responsibility for that property. In return, the University may receive a settlement fee.
(f) Exchange Property. When the University determines that it is more economical for property certified as surplus to be traded-in toward the purchase of new property of the same type rather than sold or disposed of in another manner provided in this rule, the Property Survey Board shall issue a recommendation approving such exchange. The Property Manager shall advise the Bureau of State Surplus Property of the availability of such exchange in writing providing any information required by the Bureau.

(7) Authority for Disposal. Surplus property shall not be sold, transferred, cannibalized, scrapped or destroyed without prior authorization from the Property Survey Board and certification by the Property Manager. Any employee or agent who disposes of surplus property in violation of this rule shall be personally liable to the University for the fair market value of any such property.

(8) Non-State Funded Property. All property originally purchased with non-state funds, such as contracts or grants, shall be managed in a form consistent with the rules and regulations of the funding authority, or if there are no rules or regulations, in accordance with this rule.

To be eligible for a financial hardship waiver, a student shall apply for federal financial assistance by submitting a valid Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the United States Department of Education at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/, in accordance with 34 C.F.R. §668. A “financial hardship” is defined as an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) of zero for the academic year on the applicant’s Student Aid Report after requesting and accepting all types of financial assistance. A financial hardship also will be found to exist for applicants who document that they have received a fee waiver because of economic need as determined by the College Board or the American College Testing Program.

All Lee County traffic and parking ordinances which are not in conflict or inconsistent with University rules and all provisions of Chapter 316, Florida Statutes, shall extend and be applicable to the University’s premises. (2) University parking and traffic rules are enforced twenty-four hours a day, each day of the calendar year. Copies of these rules and a schedule of fees and fines are available at the University Police and Safety Department and the Cashier’s Office. (c) Late Fee: 25% of amount due.

(d) Vehicles, which remain parked in time restricted parking spaces such as Loading Zones beyond the time allowed, are subject to additional citation. Any vehicle, which remains in violation of any other provision of these rules twenty-four (24) hours beyond the time of the original citation, is subject to additional citation.

(e) Administrative Action. In addition to the accrual of a fine and late fee, the University is authorized to take administrative action if a university traffic citation is not paid or appealed within the time provided in these rules. Such administrative action includes withholding of grades, degrees and/or transcripts; revocation of parking privileges; turning the citation over for collection, and/or towing and impoundment or immobilization of the person’s vehicle.

(f) Permit Revocation. A person who has been accused of decal/permit fraud or who falsifies or misrepresents information when applying for or exercising parking and traffic privileges is subject to revocation of parking privileges, if such charges were sustained.

(3) Responsibility for Citations. The person(s) in whose name a decal/permit is registered or in whose name a vehicle is registered with the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, shall be held responsible for citations issued to a vehicle unless he or she furnishes the University Police Department with evidence that the vehicle was, at the time of the University Traffic Infraction, in the care, custody or control of another person.

(4) Procedures for Payment of Fines and Appeals.

(a) A person who has been issued a university traffic citation has five (5) university business days from the date of its issuance to settle the citation either by paying the designated fine or by filing an appeal. If payment is not made or an appeal instituted within the allotted time, a late charge shall be assessed. If the fine and fee are not paid within ten (10) days from the date the citation is issued, then the University will turn the matter over to the University’s Cashier’s Office for collection, in which case the person shall also be responsible for paying reasonable costs of collection.

1. Fines can be paid in person or by mail at the Cashier’s Office during regular university business hours. All payments should include the payor’s social security number and the citation number.

2. Appeals. Appeals of citations for university traffic infractions are instituted by filing a written appeal with the Director of University Police and Safety Department or a designee on Form UPD #1001 (4/97) which is incorporated by reference into this rule. Forms may be obtained at the University Police and Safety Department. Lack of parking spaces or the failure of others to observe these rules shall not be valid defenses to violation of the University’s parking and traffic rules. The appeal shall include a current and accurate address where notices can be sent and received. The Director of University Police or designee shall make a determination whether to grant the appeal within 10 days of receipt of the appeal. If the appeal is denied by the Director of University Police or designee, then the appeal shall be forwarded, as completed, to the University Traffic Appeals Board for hearing and resolution at its next scheduled meeting.

3. The University Traffic Appeals Board consists of five members who are appointed by the University President for two year staggered terms. The membership of the Board shall include one representative from the following: student government, faculty, Administrative and Professional, USPS and one additional member appointed at large by the President. The student, faculty, Administrative and Professional and USPS representatives will be nominated by their respective governance structures. The Director of the University Police and Safety Department shall be an ex officio member of the Traffic Appeals Board. The University Traffic Appeals Board shall have the authority to hear and resolve appeals of university traffic infractions including cases of permit revocation.

a. Upon receipt of an appeal, the Board shall set a time and date for hearing and provide the appellant with at least five (5) University business days advance written notice. Failure of the appellant to appear at the hearing shall result in dismissal of the appeal.

b. At the hearing, the Traffic Appeals Board shall consider any facts or evidence, which are relevant to its determination of the appeal. The board may request additional information prior to rendering its decision and may hear the testimony of the appellant, witnesses or the citing officer. The board may modify the penalties provided in Rule 6C10-8.006, F.A.C. Such modification may include a reduction in penalty or a warning to the appellant. The board shall render a decision within thirty (30) days of the close of the hearing and notify the appellant in writing.

c. The decision to grant or deny an appeal shall be in writing and contain findings supporting the board’s determination. The decision of the Traffic Appeals Board is final without further right of review. When an appeal is denied, the fine assessed for the violation shall be paid within five (5) calendar days of notification to the appellant or a late fee of 25 percent will be assessed. The appellant will also be subject to any other administrative action authorized by these rules to collect all outstanding fines and fees.

(5) Towing and Impoundment; Immobilization.

(a) Towing and Impoundment. The University is authorized to tow and impound any vehicle, which is found to be parked in violation of this rule chapter. The towing and impoundment of a vehicle shall be used as a last resort under the following conditions: the vehicle is abandoned per subparagraph 6C10-8.005(4)(b)7., F.A.C.; the vehicle is parked in a handicapped space for which it is not permitted; hazardous parking; the parking decal/permit is fraudulent; or the registrant is deemed a chronic violator in that they have obtained three or more citations during a school term which have remained unpaid or unsatisfied during that term.

(b) Immobilization. As an alternative to towing and impoundment, the University may immobilize a vehicle by attaching a wheel lock device when there are two (2) or more university traffic citations outstanding against the vehicle and timely action has not been taken to pay or appeal the citations. A vehicle may also be immobilized when it is found to display a lost, stolen, forged or altered University parking decal or permit. At the time of attachment, a notice shall be affixed to the vehicle which states the sum of outstanding fines and fees that must be satisfied before the wheel lock will be removed and the location where the moneys can be paid. A $20.00 immobilization fee shall be charged in addition to all other fines and fees which are due and owing.

(c) Release of Vehicle. All outstanding fines and fees against the vehicle must be satisfied before a vehicle will be released from impoundment or immobilization. A person whose vehicle has been towed and impounded or immobilized may challenge the validity of the action by filing a written appeal to the University Traffic Appeals Board within 10 days of the date the vehicle was released, using UPD Form #1002 (4/97). The Director of University Police and Safety or designee shall review and determine whether an immediate release of the vehicle is warranted. If the subsequent appeal to the University Traffic Appeals Board is granted, the University shall refund the amount charged for towing and impoundment of the vehicle.

(a) Students who wish to inspect and review their education records should submit a written request to the appropriate record custodian or to the FERPA Coordinator. The request should identify as accurately as possible the specific records the student wishes to inspect and review. It may identify records according to the types listed in subsection (4) of this policy, as records located at specific places, or as records under the custodianship of specific College employees/agents identified by title. Records listed in this policy as “occasional records” should be identified in terms which will make it possible for the FERPA Coordinator to locate them and make them available for the student to inspect and review.

(b) The FERPA Coordinator or the record custodian shall either permit the student to immediately inspect and review his/her education records or advise the student when and where the records will be available for inspection and review. Access to education records requested in compliance with this policy shall be granted within a reasonable period of time, but in no case more than thirty (30) calendar days after the FERPA Coordinator or the record custodian receives the student’s written request. The FERPA Coordinator or the record custodian or his/her designee shall have the right to be present while the student inspects and reviews the records. Upon reasonable request, the College shall furnish the student with an explanation or interpretation of his/her record.

(c) Upon reasonable request and demonstration to the FERPA Coordinator that the failure to provide the student with copies of the requested education records will effectively deny the student the right to inspect and review such records, the College will arrange for the student to obtain copies of such records. In the event that the student has an unpaid financial obligation to the College, he/she shall not be entitled to transcripts or copies of education records.

(d) When records contain personally identifiable information about more than one student, a student may inspect only that information which relates to him/her.

(e) The College reserves the right to refuse to permit a student to inspect and review the following education records:

1. The financial records of the parents of the student or any information contained therein.

2. Statements and letters of recommendation prepared by College officials or submitted with the student’s application for admission which were placed in the student’s records before January 1, 1975 or for which the student has waived his/her right of access in writing; provided, however, that if such statements and letters of recommendation have been used for any purpose other than for which they were originally prepared, the student may inspect and review them.

3. Those records which are excluded from the definition of “education records” under this policy.

(a) Fees. The College will charge the following fees for copies of education records:
1. New College of Florida official transcripts – $5.00.
2. Copies of education records are required by FERPA under the following circumstances:
   a. A failure to provide such copies would effectively deny the student the right to inspect and review his/her records; or
   b. The College has disclosed information from the student’s education records under authority of the student’s prior written consent and the student requests a copy of the information disclosed; or
   c. The student requests copies of records the College has disclosed to other schools where the student seeks or intends to enroll.
3. Copies (not signed and certified) of education records will be available to students when administratively possible, even though not required by FERPA, at a copying cost of One Dollar ($1.00) per page plus the actual cost of search, retrieval, and mailing.
   (b) When administrative costs of collecting fees exceed the amount which would be received, the FERPA Coordinator shall be authorized to waive such fees.

      10. Other similar information.
   (b) Student’s refusal to permit disclosure of “directory information.” The College will publish in the Schedule of Classes for each academic term the above list, or a revised list, of the items of information it proposes to designate as “directory information.” Students must notify the FERPA Coordinator in writing if they refuse to permit the College to disclose directory information about themselves; such notification must be received by the FERPA Coordinator no later than the end of the second week of classes of the academic term or the student will be deemed to have waived his/her right of refusal until the next academic term. When the FERPA Coordinator receives a student’s refusal to permit the College to disclose “directory information” about that student, the FERPA Coordinator will notify the appropriate records custodians of the student’s action. The records custodians will not make any further disclosures of directory information about that student without the student’s prior written consent except to the extent authorized by FERPA and the Florida Statutes.

(e) The student may obtain a copy of any records the College discloses pursuant to the student’s prior written consent.

(f) The College will not release information contained in a student’s education records, except directory information, to any third parties except its own officials, unless those third parties agree that they will not redisclose the information without the student’s prior written consent.

(a) All requests for disclosures of information contained in a student’s education record or for access to the record made by persons other than College officials or the student or those requests accompanied by the student’s prior written consent will be submitted to the FERPA Coordinator or appropriate records custodian. The FERPA Coordinator or appropriate records custodian will approve or disapprove all such requests for access and disclosures and, except for requests for directory information, he/she will maintain a record of these actions.

(b) This record of requests/disclosures shall include the following information:
   1. The name of the person or agency that made the request.
   2. The interest the person or agency had in the information.
   3. The date the person or agency made the request.
4. Whether the request was granted and, if it was, the date access was permitted or the disclosure was made.

(c) The College will maintain this record of requests/disclosures as long as it maintains the student’s education record.

(10) Procedures to Request Amendment of and Challenge Education Records.

(a) Students have the right to, in accordance with this policy, request amendment of and challenge the content of their education records.

(b) Definitions.
1. The term “incorrect” is used herein to describe a record that is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the privacy or other rights of students. A record is not “incorrect,” for purposes of this policy, where the requestor wishes to challenge the evaluation reflected by the grade an instructor assigns for a course.

2. The term “requestor” is used herein to describe a student or former student who is requesting the College to amend a record.

(c) Students who believe that their education records contain information which is incorrect should informally discuss the problem with the record custodian. If the record custodian finds the information is incorrect because of an obvious error, and it is a simple matter to amend it to the satisfaction of the requestor, the record custodian may make the amendment.

(d) If the record custodian cannot amend the record to the requestor’s satisfaction or if the record does not appear to be obviously incorrect, the record custodian will:
1. Provide the requestor a copy of the questioned record at no cost; and
2. Ask the requestor to initiate and provide the record custodian a written request for the amendment; such written request must identify the information which the requestor believes is incorrect, must state why such information is incorrect, and must be dated and signed by the requestor.

(e) The record custodian will send the request, together with a written explanation of his/her refusal to amend the record to the requestor’s satisfaction, to the FERPA Coordinator. The FERPA Coordinator will examine the request, discuss it with appropriate College officials, including the person who initiated the record, the College General Counsel, and other persons who might have an interest in the questioned record. At the conclusion of this investigation, the FERPA Coordinator will summarize his/her findings, make a recommendation for the College’s action, and deliver the request, the record custodian’s written explanation, his/her summary of findings, and his/her recommendation to the College President.

(f) The College President will instruct the FERPA Coordinator whether the record should or should not be amended in accordance with the request. If the College President’s decision is to amend the record, the FERPA Coordinator will advise the record custodian to make the amendment. The record custodian will advise the requestor in writing when he/she has amended the record and invite the requestor to inspect the record.

(g) If the College President’s decision is that the record is correct and should not be amended, the FERPA Coordinator will prepare and send the requestor a letter stating the decision. This letter will also inform the requestor that the requestor has a right to a hearing pursuant to Section 120.57, Florida Statutes, to challenge the College’s decision not to amend.

(h) In the event the education records are not amended to the requestor’s satisfaction, the requestor shall have the right to place with the education records a written statement explaining, commenting upon, or disagreeing with information contained in the education records. This statement shall be maintained as part of the student’s education record for as long as the College maintains the questioned part of the record. Whenever the questioned part of the record is disclosed, the student’s written statement shall also be disclosed.

(11) Right of Waiver of Access – The College may request a waiver of access to evaluations and letters of recommendation related to admissions, employment applications and receipt of honors. While such a waiver may be requested, requests for waivers do not constitute a pre-condition for admission, financial aid, or any services or benefits. Upon request, students who have waived access to such items can receive a listing of all individuals providing confidential recommendations or evaluations.

CHAPTER 6C11-3.001 NEW COLLEGE OF FLORIDA ADMISSIONS

6C11-3.001 New College of Florida Admissions.

(1) General. New College of Florida is highly selective in admitting students. The College actively seeks individuals who, in addition to meeting the requirements of Section 1007.261, F.S., and State of Florida Board of Education Rules 6C-6.002, 6C-6.004, and 6C-6.009, F.A.C., and the requirements of this rule, and consistent with the mission of the College:

(a) Demonstrate above average ability, academic motivation and self-discipline;
(b) Will benefit most from the demanding academic program and flexible curriculum;
(c) Demonstrate evidence of intellectual potential, strong academic preparation, self-motivation and initiative, tenacity, curiosity, and concern for others; and
(d) Are eager to take responsibility for their own educations.

(2) Admissions Decisions. The New College of Florida Admissions Committee makes initial admissions decisions. The Committee reviews each applicant as objectively as possible and renders its admission decision based upon the extent to which the applicant demonstrates the academic ability, creativity, or talent to perform the required work within the College’s academic program and the potential to succeed within and contribute to the College community. Admission of new students at all levels is on a selective basis within curricular, space and fiscal limitations. Satisfaction of minimum admission requirements does not guarantee acceptance. The selection process takes into consideration such factors as grades, test scores, pattern of courses completed, class rank, educational objectives, past conduct, school letters of recommendation, personal letters of recommendations and personal records. Preference for admission in any term will be given to those applicants whose credentials indicate the greatest promise of academic success.

(3) Non-Discrimination in Admissions. The College encourages applications from qualified applicants without regard to, and, as provided by law, does not discriminate in admissions based on race, color, religion, age, disability, sex, marital status, national origin or veteran status. The College’s admissions criteria shall not be applied so as to discriminate against community college transfers with Associate in Arts (“AA”) degrees from Florida public community colleges in favor of State University students who are applying for admission or plan to continue enrollment after the completion of sixty (60) semester credits at the lower division level.

(4) Substitution, Modification or Waiver of Admission Requirements.

(a) In the case of applicants with disabilities, the College will grant reasonable substitution or modification of any admission requirement pursuant to Board of Education Rule 6C-6.018, Florida Administrative Code, where the Admissions Committee determines, based on evidence submitted by the applicant, that the failure of the applicant to meet the requirement is due to his or her disability, and does not constitute a fundamental alteration of the College’s academic program. An applicant may appeal the Committee’s decision regarding substitution or modification to the President of New College of Florida within ten (10) days of receipt of notification of the decision. The President’s decision on appeal shall constitute the College’s final decision.

(b) The College’s Faculty Committee on Student Admissions will consider for admission an applicant who does not fully meet minimum admission requirements but who has special attributes, special talents or unique circumstances that may contribute to a representative and diverse student body. If the Faculty Committee on Student Admission determines that the applicant can reasonably be expected to do satisfactory work at New College of Florida and has important attributes, special talents or unique circumstances that may contribute to a representative and diverse student body, the Committee may admit the applicant.

(5) Status as Limited Access Program and Enrollment Limitations. The College’s academic program has been established as a limited access program by the Board of Education. It is subject to enrollment limitations established by the Board of Education and the Florida Legislature. The enrollment plan of the College establishes the following priority of admission:

(a) Entering freshman students;
(b) Transfer students with AA degrees from Florida community/junior colleges or from other SUS institutions who have not attended another institution after earning the AA degree;
(c) Other transfer students with 60 or more semester hours; and
(d) Transfer students with fewer than 60 hours.
(e) Within the categories set forth in paragraphs (5)(a)-(d) above, the following priorities shall be followed:
   1. Florida residents;
   2. Non-Florida residents; and
   3. International students living outside the United States.

(6) Previously Degreed and Non-Degree Seeking Students. The College does not enroll students who have previously attained graduate or four year undergraduate degrees or non-degree seeking students and they will not be permitted to register for courses.

(7) Prior Misconduct of Applicant for Admission. The College may refuse admission to a student whose record shows previous misconduct not in the best interest of the College community.
Appeals of Admissions Decisions. Applicants who have been denied admission may petition the Faculty Committee on Student Admissions in writing within 30 days after being denied admission for reconsideration of the admissions decision. The request must contain reasons why this reconsideration is warranted based on extenuating circumstances and/or appropriate alternative evidence of academic achievement, ability, motivation and responsibility that indicates potential for success at NCF. Student-initiated petitions that are denied by the Faculty Committee on Student Admissions may be further appealed to the Provost.

Early Admission. New College of Florida provides an early admission program for mature high school students to enter the College prior to graduation from high school. Applicants for early admission are evaluated on an individual basis and must demonstrate strong capability for academic work based on the high school record and admission test scores.

By agreement, the New College of Florida University Police are responsible for enforcing parking and traffic regulations on the shared campus and USF Sarasota/Manatee is responsible for vehicle registration and administration of traffic and parking citation, payment, and appeals. 4. Permit regulations:

1. When the vehicle is parked, hangtags must be hung from the rearview mirror bracket with the registration number plainly visible through the front window of the vehicle. An affidavit must be completed for lost or stolen permits or in the event that the permit was sold with the car. If recovered, the permit will be reclaimed by the PATS and destroyed. Any vehicle bearing a lost/stolen permit is subject to immediate tow, even if the person who has reported the permit as lost/stolen owns the vehicle bearing the permit.

6C11-4.002 Student Registration.

(1) Assessment of Tuition and Fees. Tuition and fees shall be assessed in accordance with State of Florida Board of Education Rule Chapter 6C-7, F.A.C.

(a) Registration Procedures – In order to register:
1. The student must supply all information and satisfy all conditions of eligibility required by New College of Florida.
2. The student must pay all assessed tuition and fees or arrange payment agreement to include satisfaction of all amounts due and delinquent to the College.

(b) Registration Periods – These periods are defined in the New College of Florida Catalog and other College publications. A student who initiates registration after an applicable registration period shall incur a $100.00 late registration fee. Registration may be initiated, on an exceptional basis, after the end of a late registration period if:
1. Requested by the student;
2. Justified by extraordinary circumstances including, but not limited to, administrative error; and
3. Approved by the President or President’s designee.

(c) Educational Contract Submission Period – The Educational Contract Submission Period shall begin on the first day of classes for the term and end as specified in the College catalog, but not later than the tenth day of classes. An educational contract may be accepted on an exceptional basis after the end of the Educational Contract Submission Period if:
1. Requested by the student;
2. Justified by extraordinary circumstances including, but not limited to, administrative error; and
3. Approved by the President or President’s designee.

(d) Tuition and Fee Liability –
1. Tuition and fees for the term shall be based on the educational contract and independent study projects remaining on the record at the close of the Educational Contract Submission Period.
2. No tuition and fees shall be assessed, and no credit shall be awarded, for an educational contract or independent study project dropped during the Educational Contract Submission Period.
3. If a student adds an independent study project on an exceptional basis, tuition and fees for the added independent study project shall be assessed.

(2) Payment of Tuition and Fees. Tuition and fees must be paid by the close of the late registration period to avoid assessment of a $50.00 late payment fee unless appropriate arrangements for payment of tuition and fees have been made in accordance with subsections (3) and (4) of this policy, i.e., installment payment and deferment respectively. Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in cancellation of the educational contract and independent study project. Payment of tuition and fees may be made in person during scheduled office hours published in the New College of Florida Catalog and other College publications for each term. Payments that are made by mail must be postmarked by a U.S. Post Office by the respective tuition payment deadline listed in the Academic Calendar in order to be considered timely paid.

(3) Payment of Tuition and Fees in Installments. When a student experiences an unexpected financial hardship that makes it impossible to make full payment of assessed tuition and fees by the payment deadline, the student may request approval to pay in installments. Approval of this request will require the payment of at least 50% of the tuition and fee liability and the execution of a promissory note by the end of the late registration period. The remaining amount shall be paid no later than the beginning of the second half of the academic term.

(4) Deferred Payment of Tuition and Fees.
   (a) Recipients of VA Benefits – Upon application by the student, the President or President’s designee may award to eligible VA benefit recipients one 60-day payment deferment each academic year.
   (b) Delay of Financial Aid – Students who have completed and submitted the required documents for financial aid by the last day of the late registration period for the term and who appear to be eligible for financial aid, may request a tuition and fees deferment contract.
   (c) Third Party Agreements – Tuition and fees will be deferred for any student when a third party has agreed in writing to pay them. The written agreement must identify the student, the third party and billing address and amount(s) to be paid.
   (5) Reinstatement of a Student’s Cancelled Educational Contract or Independent Study Project. A student whose educational contract or independent study project has been cancelled for financial reasons may request reinstatement through the fourth week of classes. Upon approval for reinstatement, tuition and fees, the late registration fee, if applicable, the late payment fee and other debts owed the College must be paid in full by cash, money order, or cashier’s check before reinstatement will be effected. After the fourth week of classes, a request for reinstatement must be made to the Registrar. Approval will be granted only when extraordinary circumstances warrant such approval.

(6) Refund of Tuition and Fee Payment. The College authorizes certain refunds of tuition and fees, less deductions for unpaid debts to the College. The late registration fee and late payment fee are non-refundable fees.
   (a) 100% of the applicable tuition and fees will be refunded if the student cancels an educational contract or drops an independent study project or causes his/her enrollment at the College to be terminated by the Registrar’s Office prior to the end of the late registration period and submits a completed Refund Request Form.
   (b) 25% of tuition and fees, less building and capital improvement fees, will be refunded if the student cancels an educational contract or drops an independent study project or causes his/her enrollment at the College to be terminated by the Registrar’s Office prior to the end of the fourth week of classes, or at an appropriate time as designated by the College for summer sessions, and submits a completed refund request.
   (c) 100% of tuition and fees will be refunded when a student withdraws or cancels an educational contract or drops an independent study project due to circumstances determined by the Registrar’s Office to be exceptional and beyond the control of the student. Determination will be based on review of a completed written refund request submitted by the student to the Registrar’s Office. These circumstances include but are not limited to:
   1. Illness of a student of such severity or duration, as confirmed in writing by a physician, to preclude completion of the course(s),
   2. Death of the student or death in the immediate family (parent, spouse, child, or sibling),
   3. Involuntary call to active military duty, or
   4. A situation in which the College is in error.
   (d) Written request for refund must be presented to the Registrar within six (6) months of the close of the term to which the refund is applicable.
   (e) Pursuant to Public Law 102-325, the Higher Education Amendments of 1992, students attending the College for the first time who withdraw are entitled to a pro rata refund of tuition, fees, room and board.
   (f) A student, who receives financial aid and subsequently changes the enrollment status that results in a refund in accordance with this section, will have the appropriate share of the refund returned to the College’s financial aid programs in accordance with the Financial Aid Policy on Refunds and Repayments.

(7) Cancellation of Registration for Nonpayment of Tuition and Fees and Returned Checks in Payment of Tuition and Fees.

Reasons for Cancellation:
   (a) Current Term – A student’s current term registration may be cancelled for nonpayment of tuition and fees and for returned checks in payment of tuition and fees, if financial aid or VA benefits were not received for the term.
   (b) The Registrar will attempt to notify students by certified mail of possible registration cancellation for nonpayment of tuition and fees and for returned checks in payment of tuition and fees. This notification must include the specific reason for proposed cancellation and the deadline for payment before cancellation will be made. In addition, the notice of possible cancellation must inform the student that cancellation of registration will result in his/her record appearing as if he/she had never attended the College during that term and that he/she will receive no credit for the educational activities engaged in during that term. Notice should be sent to the student’s last known address. Students will also be placed on pending for future registrations, transcripts, diplomas, etc. until the Registrar’s office has completed the cancellation.

In the event probation terms or conditions are violated, the President or the Student Judicial Officer will immediately impose the consequence of the probation violation.

Such complaint must be filed in writing with the Office of Student Affairs within a reasonable time following the discovery of the violation and in no event, later than six (6) months after the discovery, except in extraordinary cases (e.g., hospitalization of the student, etc.). The Office of Student Affairs reserves the right to initiate or follow-up any investigative leads where there is reasonable belief of possible violations of the Code.

(b) Prehearing Procedure.

1. The Dean of Student Affairs acts as the Student Judicial Officer, and all charges of violation must be originated by the Dean of Student Affairs.

2. The President of New College of Florida shall appoint faculty/staff members from outside the Office of Student Affairs to serve as alternate judicial officers in appropriate cases (e.g., when the Dean of Student Affairs is unavailable or has a conflict of interest). The President shall prepare and maintain a list of individuals for this purpose.

3. Interim Suspension – The President or Student Judicial Officer is authorized to suspend a student from the College or from participating in official College functions, programs, intercollegiate competitions, and other student activities if in their judgment, the student’s continued presence or use of privilege at the College pending outcome of the proceedings, is likely to cause harm to members of the College community. Any interim sanction judgment will be based on evidence gathered in the initial stage of the investigation of student misconduct. Students issued an interim suspension will be provided an expedited emergency hearing as outlined in the subparagraph (8)(c)3.

4. The Student Judicial Officer will inform the University Police of possible serious criminal activity in cases where it is not clear that the University Police already possess the information. The Student Judicial Officer will request information concerning prior misconduct of the student from the University Police and other appropriate persons or offices.

5. The Student Judicial Officer shall investigate complaints of violation of the Student Code of Conduct and shall meet with the student alleged to have violated the Code to determine if there is probable cause to believe that the Code was violated by the student. The student can choose to have an advisor of his/her choice present at the meeting; however, College employees who have a potential conflict of interest may not serve as an advisor. The advisor can speak with the student but cannot speak for the student, act as attorney, nor otherwise participate in the meeting.

6. If the Student Judicial Officer determines that there is probable cause to believe that the Code was violated by the student, he/she may charge the student with such offense by hand delivering or mailing to the student’s last known address a written notice of charges.

7. The written notice of charges:

a. Shall allege the essential facts constituting the offense charged, including the date, time and place of the alleged offense, and shall recite the specific citation of the statute, rule, written policy or other law that the student is alleged to have violated;

b. Shall be accompanied by a statement that the charged student is entitled to a prompt disciplinary hearing before the New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board (the “Board”) composed of one-half students and one-half faculty with allowances for delays due to the unavailability of student members serving on the Board; that the charged student has the options of waiving the notice requirements set forth in subparagraph 6., requesting formal adjudication by the Board, requesting informal disposition by the Student Judicial Officer or the New College of Florida Student Alliance Student Court, or, in cases of disputes between individuals, requesting mediation; and

c. Shall be accompanied by a form entitled “Waiver of Formal Adjudication,” Rev. 9/2003, which form is incorporated herein by reference and available from the Office of Student Affairs. By accepting the informal disposition or agreeing to a satisfactory resolution of the dispute through mediation and signing the form, the charged student waives his right to a formal adjudication by a board composed of one-half students.

8. In cases involving minor misdemeanors or non-criminal violations of this Code, the Student Judicial Officer may refer the matter to the New College of Florida Student Alliance Student Court (“Student Court”) for informal disposition.

a. The Student Court is comprised of five (5) elected students, from whom one Chief Justice is selected to preside over the meetings of the court. The Chief Justice votes only in case of a tie vote.

b. Proceedings before the Student Court shall adhere to the General Principles Applicable to Hearings set forth in subparagraph 9.

c. The Student Judicial Officer, in consultation with the New College Police and the state attorney’s office, determines which offenses may be referred to the court for informal disposition.

d. Minor misdemeanors and non-criminal violations are defined as infractions that are mala prohibita as distinguished from mala in se. Violations that are mala prohibita are regulatory in nature and result from neglect where the law requires care or inaction where the law requires a duty to act. They do not result in injury to persons or property, but merely create a danger or possibility of danger that the violation seeks to minimize. Generally, a malicious intent of the perpetrator is not an element of the offense.

e. Examples of minor misdemeanors that could be referred to the Student Court include, but are not limited to, underage zero tolerance, criminal mischief, altered identification, disorderly conduct and trespass in a structure.

f. Examples of noncriminal violations of the Code include but are not limited to offenses listed in paragraphs (6) (a), (b), (d), (f), (o), (p), (w), (dd) and (ff).

9. In cases involving disputes between individuals, the Student Judicial Officer may offer to mediate the parties’ dispute in lieu of formal judicial action. If the parties agree to such mediation, the Student Judicial Officer shall attempt to facilitate a resolution of the dispute that is satisfactory to both parties. If satisfactory resolution is reached, it shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties and the Student Judicial Officer. The signed written resolution shall be binding upon the parties. If the dispute is successfully mediated, judicial action will not be pursued.

10. If a victim of alleged violent misconduct declines to make a formal complaint or serve as a witness, the Student Judicial Officer shall meet with the alleged perpetrator for the purpose of documenting the alleged incident of misconduct. In such cases, the victim reserves the right to decline pursuit of judicial action. The record of such a meeting will be considered in any future judicial proceedings.

11. If the Student Judicial Officer charges a student with violation of the Student Code of Conduct, he/she shall also offer the student in writing an informal disposition adjudicating whether a violation of the Code has occurred and, if so, imposing appropriate sanctions. The charged student will have the option to admit responsibility for the charge and agree to the imposition of sanctions. The charged student can choose to decline the informal disposition and request a formal hearing before the New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board. The charged student will have seven (7) days from the date of receipt of the written notice of charges to request a hearing. If the charged student fails to timely request a formal hearing, the charged student waives his/her right to such hearing, and the offered informal disposition becomes effective.

12. The prehearing or informal disposition process shall be completed within twenty-one (21) days of the Office of Student Affairs’ receipt of the complaint of misconduct, except in extraordinary cases (e.g., witness in coma or hospital, etc.) as determined by the Student Judicial Officer.

(c) Hearings – Except in cases of emergency, if the charged student timely requests a formal hearing, such hearing shall be conducted before the New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board who, after conducting such hearing, shall adjudicate, based solely on the information presented at the hearing, whether the charged student is responsible or not responsible on the charges of violating the Student Code of Conduct.

1. New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board – The New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board is composed of three (3) faculty/staff members, one of whom shall be appointed chairperson, and three (3) students. The panel members will be selected at random from a bank of faculty/staff and student volunteers who have received training from the Office of Student Affairs. The charged student shall be informed of the panel members selected to hear his/her case and shall have the right to challenge the impartiality of any panel member within three (3) working days of notification. A panel member challenged for impartiality will be excused; however, indiscriminate impartiality challenges shall entitle the panel to proceed without regard to the challenge. Any board member not present for the taking of testimony at the hearing may not further participate. A quorum for haring shall consist of a simple majority of the panel. However, the charged student has the right to choose to proceed or to request that the hearing be rescheduled if the judicial board present does not consist of 50% faculty/staff and 50% students. After the hearing, the board will reach its decision in executive session. A simple majority of the quorum is required for decision.

2. The hearing must be set for a date not later than six (6) weeks following the Office of Student Affairs’ receipt of the complaint of misconduct, except in extraordinary cases (e.g., witness called for military duty or to mother’s funeral) as determined by the Student Judicial Officer.

3. Emergency Hearings – An expedited emergency hearing will be held before the Student Judicial Officer in cases which involve the safety, health or welfare of any student or staff member, as for example in cases involving complaints of violent misconduct. The President or the Student Judicial Officer as the President’s designee will immediately suspend or withdraw a student pending a hearing in emergency cases.

4. Appeals of Decisions of the New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board – The charged student may appeal in writing the decision of the College Student Disciplinary Board to the President or his designee within five (5) days of the Board’s decision. The President or his designee may impose the sanction imposed by the Board. The record of the initial hearing will be considered on appeal as well as any new information that comes to the attention of the President. The President is authorized to contact any participants in the initial hearing for clarification and the charged student is entitled access to the record when appealing. The decision of the President will be rendered within two (2) weeks of receipt of the appeal except in extraordinary cases (e.g., witness is abducted or student disciplinary records destroyed in fire) as determined by the President and is the final decision of the New College of Florida. No person may hear or decide an appeal if he/she participated in the decision to charge the charged student with violation of the Student Code of Conduct or if he/she conducted or participated in the student disciplinary proceedings.

(9) General Principles Applicable to Hearings.

(a) All hearings will be closed to spectators. No irrelevant information, especially irrelevant sexual history, will be discussed or considered at the hearing.

(b) Due Process Rights of Charged Student.

1. Burden of Proof – The burden of proof shall be on the complainant. The standard of proof for decision shall be “substantial evidence,” that is, whether it is reasonable to conclude from the evidence submitted that the charged student did commit the offense for which he or she has been charged, and shall not be the strict criminal law standard of proof beyond a reasonable doubt.

2. Record – The proceedings of all hearings shall be recorded.

3. Inspection of Evidence – The charged student and his or her advisor may inspect all of the information that will be presented against the charged student at least three (3) regular business days (excluding legal holidays) before the hearing. The College may inspect all of the information that will be presented by the charged student at least three (3) regular business days (excluding legal holidays) before the hearing.

4. Present Evidence – The charged student may present information on his/her own behalf.

5. Question Witnesses – The charged student may hear and question adverse witnesses, except in cases of violent misconduct where the charged student may submit questions to the Board for use in questioning adverse witnesses.

6. Self-Incrimination – The charged student shall not be forced to present testimony which would be self-incriminating.

7. Advisor – The charged student may have an advisor of his/her choice present, which advisor may also be a legal counsel; however, College employees who have a potential conflict of interest are not to serve. The advisor may speak with the charged student but may not speak for the charged student, act as attorney, nor otherwise participate.

8. Decision Based on Evidence – The decision of the College Judicial Board or Student Judicial Officer shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing, including any file referencing prior misconduct or meetings with the charged student in the custody of Office of Student Affairs.

9. Decision in Writing – The decision of the College Student Disciplinary Board or Student Judicial Officer, including findings of fact and a determination of sanction, if any, shall be presented to the charged student in writing within two (2) weeks following the hearing.

10. Enrollment Status – The charged student’s enrollment status will remain unchanged pending final decision, except in cases of emergency, as considered above.

11. Failure to Appear – If a charged student fails to appear, the New College of Florida Student Disciplinary Board or Student Judicial Officer may proceed in his/her absence.

(c) Rights of the Complainant/Victim.

1. The complainant shall have the right to submit a list of questions related to the alleged incident for consideration prior to the hearing, that he/she feels the accused should be asked during the hearing process.

2. In cases of violent misconduct, as defined by Section 16 Title 18 United States Code, the following additional rights pertain:

   a. The complainant shall be entitled to the assistance and advice of a person designated by the College with substantial knowledge of the New College of Florida student judicial process.

   b. The complainant shall have the right to submit an impact statement to the Student Judicial Officer for use during the sanctioning portion of the judicial process.

   c. The complainant shall have the right to be present during the entire hearing, notwithstanding the fact that the complainant is to be called as a witness. In extraordinary cases (e.g., complainant suffers from panic disorder or contagious disease), alternate arrangements may be made for the complainant to participate in the hearing without being present in the same room.
d. The complainant may have an advisor of his/her choice present, which advisor may also be a legal counsel; however, College employees who have a potential conflict of interest are not to serve. The advisor may speak with the complainant, but may not speak for the complainant, act as attorney nor otherwise participate.

e. The Student Judicial Officer will inform the complainant, whenever possible, of the outcome of the judicial proceeding.

Primary consideration shall be given to academic merit and financial need, as appropriate. The President of New College of Florida, based on recommendations from the Financial Aid Policy and Advisory Committee, determines New College of Florida institutional loans, grants, scholarships, and student employment program eligibility requirements. All financial aid or assistance awards are contingent upon funding availability.

The Chief Financial Aid Officer at New College of Florida is the Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid is responsible for administration and coordination of all federal, state, institutional and private grants, scholarships, loans, work-study programs, and tuition and fee waivers. In connection therewith, the Office of Admissions shall disseminate financial aid information to parents and students, including information on available financial aid programs, available academic merit, talent, performance and other no-need awards and scholarships and any application requirements and deadlines; provide necessary financial aid applications beginning January 1 each year for the upcoming fall term; notify parents and students of their award eligibility; and keep records and statistical financial aid data for the College.

(c) Eligibility to Receive Need-Based and No-Need Based Financial Aid. In order to receive financial aid or assistance, a student must:

1. Be admitted to New College of Florida;
2. Qualify for financial aid or assistance based on need under Title IV Federal Financial Aid Regulations, 34 CFR Parts 600 et al (need-based financial aid applicants only);
3. Timely submit a complete application for financial aid pursuant to paragraphs 6C11-6.002(3)(d) and (e), F.A.C.;
4. Satisfy all criteria for eligibility of the particular financial aid program under which the student seeks aid or assistance; and
5. Be awarded financial aid or assistance.

(d) Applications for Need-Based and No-Need Based Financial Aid. Applications for financial aid and the supporting parent/student financial information documents must be received by certain dates established by the Office of Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid, through appropriate news media and other mass communications means shall announce such dates in sufficient time to allow applicants to meet established deadlines. Acceptance of applications and financial documents after an established deadline is contingent upon state, federal, and institutional appropriations and the availability of student aid funds. All undergraduate need-based financial aid applicants must apply for the Pell Grant, and all Florida resident undergraduate applicants must apply for the Florida Student Assistance Grant. The College shall give priority consideration to students who submit applications for financial aid by March 1st of each year for the next academic year.

2. Determination of Award of Financial Aid. Upon receipt of application for financial aid, the Office of Financial Aid shall review the application, determine its completeness, and if incomplete, notify the student of what additional information and/or documentation is necessary to complete the application. Upon its receipt of the additional information and/or documentation, the Office of Financial Aid shall determine the eligibility of the student for the particular financial aid sought, and shall render a decision either awarding or refusing to award financial aid based on the criteria set forth in subparagraphs 6C11-6.002(3)(e)3. and 4., F.A.C.

3. Criteria for Awarding Need-Based Financial Aid. In reviewing applications for need-based financial aid or assistance, the College shall evaluate the financial need of each student who has applied for financial aid, based on accepted needs analysis, to determine which students can best benefit from available sources of financial aid. The amount and type of financial aid awarded and distributed may vary due to the student’s classification, his or her family financial status, the availability of funds and application date. It is the objective of the Office of Financial Aid to provide needy students with an equitable distribution of gift aid and self-help. In awarding need-based financial aid, the College shall consider the following factors:

The student must accept or reject the award by signing the notification letter in the space provided and returning the letter to the Office of Financial Aid within the time period specified in the notification letter. The student’s failure to return the latter in a timely manner will be deemed a rejection of the award provided that the Office of Financial Aid may extend the time for acceptance upon a showing of good cause or excusable neglect. Acceptance of an award that includes Work-Study constitutes an agreement by the student to work during the semesters in which Work-Study is awarded.

(h) Distribution of Student Financial Aid. The Financial Aid Office is responsible for distributing financial aid awards. It distributes all financial aid according to federal, state and institutional laws, rules, regulations, policies, and guidelines, including the current New College of Florida Student Financial Aid Packaging Policy.

(7) Notification to College by Student of Changes in Academic or Financial Circumstances. A student’s continued eligibility to receive certain types of financial aid may depend upon the student’s maintenance of satisfactory academic progress and/or the student or parent’s available personal financial resources. Students must notify the Office of Financial Aid of any change in their academic status or available personal financial resources or those of their parents’ that might have a bearing on their continued eligibility for financial aid.

A student or parent of a student, where permissible, who disagrees with a decision of the Office of Financial Aid or wishes to provide supplemental information for purposes of amending an application for financial aid may do so by filing a written petition with the Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid. In the case of appeals of decisions of the Office of Financial Aid, the student or parent may request a hearing before New College Financial Aid Policy and Advisory Committee. In such cases, the Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid shall promptly schedule an expeditious hearing, notify the student or parent of the time, date and place of the hearing, and gather together and distribute available information that is relevant to the appeal to the Committee members and the student or parent. At the hearing, the student or parent shall have an opportunity to present testimony, evidence and argument as to why the Office of Financial Aid’s decision is in error. After the close of the hearing, the Committee shall decide the appeal and render its decision in writing. The Committee’s decision shall be the final decision. (c) An employee engaging in any outside activity shall not use the facilities, equipment, or services of the College in connection with such outside activity without prior written approval of the Vice President/Provost responsible for the employee’s organizational unit. Such approval may be conditioned upon reimbursement for the direct costs resulting from the use thereof.

(b) The reporting provisions shall not apply to activities performed wholly during a period in which the employee has no appointment with the State University System.

(c) In the event the proposed outside activity is determined to constitute a conflict of interest or other interference with the employee’s College duties, the supervisor shall discuss the matter with the employee within two weeks of receipt of the employee’s written notification.

(d) If the matter is unresolved following this discussion, the employee may refer the matter to the responsible Vice President/Provost, who shall determine whether the outside activity creates a conflict of interest or otherwise interferes with the employee’s College duties. The employee shall be notified in writing of the College’s final action on the determination no later than three weeks from the date the matter was referred to the Vice President/Provost.

(e) The employee may engage in such outside activity pending the decision of the Vice President/Provost. If the Vice President/Provost determines that there is a conflict of interest or other interference with the employee’s College duties, the employee shall cease such activity immediately and turn over to the College any compensation earned therefrom.

6C11-8.008 Grievance Procedure.

(1) Applicability. This rule applies to all General Faculty and Administrative and Professional employees; provided, however, that its application is subject to the terms and conditions of any existing applicable collective bargaining agreements in the case of General Faculty and Administrative and Professional employees who are members of a collective bargaining unit and are represented by a collective bargaining agent.

(2) All problems shall be resolved whenever possible before the filing of a grievance, and open communication is encouraged so that resort to the grievance procedure will not normally be necessary.

(3) The burden of proof shall be on the College in a grievance alleging violation of Rule 6C11-8.009, F.A.C., Discipline. In all other grievances, the burden of proof shall be on the grievant.

(4) It is the intent of this rule to provide a complete response to a grievance but not to encourage multiple processing of the same issue. If, prior to or while seeking resolution of a dispute under this rule, a grievant seeks resolution of the matter in any other forum, whether administrative or judicial, the College shall have no obligation to entertain or proceed further with the matter pursuant to this rule. The College’s response to other individuals or groups having appropriate jurisdiction in any other procedure shall not be an act or omission giving rise to a grievance under this procedure.

(5) All time limits contained in this rule may be extended by agreement of the parties. Upon failure of the grievant to file an appeal within the time limits provided in this rule, the grievance shall be deemed to have been resolved at the prior step.

(6) Definitions.

(a) The term “grievance” shall mean a dispute concerning the grievant’s rights regarding the terms and conditions of employment.

(b) The term “grievant” shall mean a non-unit Administrative and Professional or General Faculty employee who has been directly affected by an act or omission of the College and who has filed a written grievance under this rule.

(c) The term “days” shall mean calendar days. In the event an action falls due on Saturday, Sunday, or a state holiday, the action will be considered timely if it is accomplished by 5:00 p.m. on the following business day.

(d) The term “counsel” shall mean a lawyer or lay advisor.

(7) Step 1.

(a) All grievances shall be filed in writing with the person designated by the President as Step 1 Representative for the unit of the College in which the grievant performs duties, with a copy to the Office of the General Counsel, within 25 days following the act or omission giving rise thereto, or the date the grievant knew or reasonably should have known of such act or omission if that date is later. The identification of applicable designated Step 1 Representatives may be obtained from the Clerk of the College.

(b) The written grievance shall contain the following information: grievant’s name; name and address of counsel, if any; specific provision(s) of College or Board of Governor’s rule or regulation claimed to have been violated; a statement of the grievance, including the acts or omissions which are claimed to have given rise to the grievance; the remedy sought; and signature. The College will dismiss a grievance that is not in substantial compliance with this section or that is untimely filed. The dismissal shall be without prejudice to the grievant’s right to file a timely amended grievance curing the defect, unless it conclusively appears from the face of the grievance that the defect cannot be cured. If the College dismisses a grievance, it shall immediately notify the grievant of the dismissal, all defects, and how such defects can be cured. The grievant shall have ten (10) calendar days from the date of dismissal to file an amended grievance curing the defect. If the grievance is dismissed for untimely filing, the amended grievance must demonstrate that the untimely filing was the result of excusable neglect. The grievant may, in the written grievance that is filed, request the postponement of any action in processing the grievance formally for a period of up to 25 days, during which period efforts shall be made to resolve the grievance informally.

(c) Upon the grievant’s written request, additional extensions of up to 25 days should be liberally granted unless to do so would impede resolution of the grievance. During such postponement period(s), upon request, the Step 1 Representative may, at his/her discretion, arrange an informal conference between the appropriate administrator and the grievant.

(d) The grievant may at any time terminate a postponement period by giving written notice to the Step 1 Representative that the grievant wishes to proceed with the Step 1 meeting provided for below. If the initial postponement period, or any extension thereof, expires without such written notice, the grievance shall be deemed informally resolved to the grievant’s satisfaction and need not be proceeded further.

(e) The Step 1 Representative shall conduct a meeting no later than 15 days following receipt of the grievance, if no postponement is requested, or receipt of written notice that the grievant wishes to proceed with the Step 1 meeting.

(f) At the Step 1 meeting the grievant shall have the right to present any evidence in support of the grievance.

(g) The Step 1 Representative shall issue a written decision, stating the reasons therefor, within 25 days following the conclusion of the Step 1 meeting. The decision shall include a finding as to whether the grievance concerns a substantial interest of the grievant and/or whether there are any disputed issues of fact material to the grievance. In the event the decision at Step 1 refers to documents not presented by the grievant at the Step 1 meeting, copies of such documents shall be attached to the decision.

(8) Step 2.

(a) If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1 the grievant may request review by the responsible Vice President/Provost by delivering a written request within 10 days of receipt of the Step 1 decision. The Step 2 review must state the reason(s) for the grievant’s dissatisfaction with the Step 1 decision.
(b) The responsible Vice President/Provost may schedule a Step 2 meeting with the grievant and/or other appropriate persons or may issue a decision on review of the documents alone, at his/her discretion.

(c) The responsible Vice President/Provost will issue a written decision, stating the reasons therefor, within 25 days following the conclusion of the Step 2 meeting or within 25 days of receipt of the Step 2 review request if no meeting is held. At the time of issuance of the Step 2 decision, the responsible Vice-President/Provost shall give the grievant notice of the Step 2 decision pursuant to Section 120.569(1), F.S.

(d) If the Step 2 decision determines the grievant’s substantial interests, the grievant may request a hearing under Section 120.57, F.S., by submitting a petition to the Clerk of the College with a copy to the President, within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of notice of the Step 2 decision. The petition shall conform to the requirements of Rule 28-106.201, F.A.C. if the requested hearing involves disputed issues of material fact, or Rule 28-106.301, F.A.C. if it does not. Proceedings conducted pursuant to paragraph 6C11-8.008(8)(d), F.A.C., shall be conducted in accordance with Sections 120.569 and 120.57, F.S., and Chapter 28-106, F.A.C.

Specific Authority 1001.74(19) FS. Law Implemented 1001.74(19) FS. History–New 1-28-04.

6C11-8.009 Discipline.

(1) Applicability. This rule applies to all General Faculty and Administrative and Professional employees; provided, however, that its application is subject to the terms and conditions of any existing applicable collective bargaining agreements in the case of General Faculty and Administrative and Professional employees who are members of a collective bargaining unit and are represented by a collective bargaining agent.

(2) Just cause shall be defined as:
   (a) Incompetence, or
   (b) Misconduct.

(3) Suspension and Termination. The appointment of a College employee may be suspended or terminated during its term for just cause. When the President or the responsible Vice President/Provost has reason to believe that suspension or termination should be imposed, the President/Vice President/Provost shall provide the employee with a written notice of the proposed suspension or termination and the reasons thereof. The employee shall be given at least ten days in which to respond to the President/Vice President/Provost before the proposed action is taken. After considering the employee’s response, or after the expiration of the response period should the employee fail to respond, the President/Vice President/Provost shall issue a written notice of action.

(4) Notice of Suspension or Termination. All notices of disciplinary action shall include a statement of the reasons for the action and the effective date and shall be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested. During the period following notice, the employee may, at the discretion of the President/Vice President/Provost, be reassigned.

(5) Other Disciplinary Action. The responsible Vice President/Provost retains the right to impose probation, counseling, psychiatric treatment, community service, restitution, drug or alcohol rehabilitation for just cause. Counseling and psychiatric treatment shall not be considered disciplinary action. In determining such disciplinary action the Vice President/Provost shall consider the severity of the violation, the harm caused, fiscal loss, the employee’s employment record and the employee’s length of service.

(6) Leave Pending Investigation. Notwithstanding the provisions above, the Vice President/Provost may immediately place an employee on paid leave pending investigation when the Vice President/Provost has reason to believe that the employee’s presence on the job would adversely affect the functioning of the College, impede investigation of the alleged act warranting disciplinary action, or jeopardize the safety or welfare of other employees or colleagues. Within two working days, excluding weekends and designated holidays, the employee shall be sent a written statement of reasons for the leave by certified mail, return receipt requested.

This rule applies to all General Faculty and Administrative and Professional employees; provided, however, that its application is subject to the terms and conditions of any existing applicable collective bargaining agreements in the case of General Faculty and Administrative and Professional employees who are members of a collective bargaining unit and are represented by a collective bargaining agent.

(2) The College’s offer of employment shall be consistent with the following:
   (a) Appointments shall not create any right, interest, or expectancy beyond the specific period of time set forth in the appointment, as modified by paragraph (c) below.
   (b) Employees appointed with a modifier other than Regular (for example Visiting or Acting) are not entitled to any notice of non-reappointment.
   (c) Employees who are issued an employment contract with a clause providing that employment will cease on the date indicated and further notice is not required, are not entitled to the notice of non-reappointment referenced in paragraph (c) below.
(3) Faculty and A&P employees may be non-reappointed upon written notice from the President/designee. The period of notification (prior to the effective date of non-reappointment) is based on the employee’s length of continuous employment as Regular Faculty or A&P as follows:
(a) 3 months notification for all Regular A&P employees and Faculty in their first year of employment;
(b) 6 months notification for all Regular A&P employees after their first year of employment;
(c) 6 months notification for all Regular Faculty during their second year of employment; and
(d) 12 months notice for all Regular Faculty with two or more years of service.
(4) Following receipt of the notice of non-reappointment, employees may be assigned other duties and responsibilities and/or placed on leave. The College is committed to compensate the employee until the effective date of non-reappointment or separation from employment for other reasons (whichever is sooner); however, a change in assignment may affect the employee’s compensation as follows:
(a) If administrative duties are removed for which a stipend was granted, the stipend shall be removed;
(b) If temporary additional duties are removed, for which a temporary special pay increase was granted, the temporary special pay increase shall be removed; or
(c) If the employee agrees to a voluntary demotion which includes a reduction in salary during the notice period.

6C11-8.011 Inventions and Works.
(1) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for purposes of interpreting and implementing this rule:
(a) A “work” includes any copyrightable material such as printed material, computer software or databases, audio and visual material, circuit diagrams, architectural and engineering drawings, lectures, musical or dramatic compositions, choreographic works, pictorial or graphic works, and sculptural works.
(b) An “invention” includes any discovery, invention, process, composition of matter, article of manufacture, know-how, design, model, technological development, strain, variety, culture of any organism, or portion, modification, translation, or extension of these items, and any mark used in connection with these items.
(c) “Instructional technology material” includes video and audio recordings, motion pictures, film strips, photographic and other similar visual materials, live video and audio transmissions, computer programs, computer assisted instructional coursework, programmed instructional materials, three-dimensional materials and exhibits, and combinations of the above materials, which were prepared or produced in whole or in part by an employee, and which are used to assist or enhance instruction.
(d) “College support” includes the use of College funds, personnel, facilities, equipment, materials, or technological information; and includes such support provided by other public or private organizations when it is arranged, administered, and/or controlled by the College.
(e) “Employee” means all General Faculty, Administrative and Professional, USPS, and OPS employees of the College, in-unit or non-unit, regardless of classification or source of funding of the position, and volunteers and other persons who engage in College-supported effort.

(2) Works.
(a) Independent Efforts. A work made in the course of independent efforts is the property of the employee, who has the right to determine the disposition of such work and the revenue derived from such work. As used in this section, the term independent efforts means that:
1. The ideas came from the employee;
2. The work was not made with the use of College support; and
3. The College is not held responsible for any opinions expressed in the work.
(b) College-Supported Efforts. If the work was not made in the course of independent efforts, the work is the property of the College and the employee shall share in the proceeds therefrom. However, in keeping with tradition, it is not the intent of the College to assert rights to books, articles, and similar works, the intended purpose of which is to disseminate the results of academic research or scholarly study nor to assert rights to instructional technology material which is developed without the use of appreciable College support and is used solely for the purpose of assisting or enhancing the employee’s instructional assignment.
(c) Disclosure.
1. Upon the creation of a work, and prior to any publication, the employee shall disclose to the President or Vice President any work made in the course of College-supported efforts, together with an outline of the project and the conditions under which it was done.
2. The President or Vice President shall gather information to assess the relative equities of the employee and the College in the work.
3. Within sixty (60) days after such disclosure, the President or Vice President will inform the employee whether the College seeks an interest in the work, and a written contract shall thereafter be negotiated to reflect the interests of both parties, including provisions relating to the equities of the employee and allocating proceeds resulting from such work. All such agreements shall comport with and satisfy any preexisting commitments to outside sponsoring contractors.
4. The employee and the College shall not commit any act which would tend to defeat the College’s or employee’s interest in the work and shall take any necessary steps to protect such interests.

(3) Inventions.
(a) Disclosure/College Review.
1. An employee shall fully and completely disclose to the President or Vice President all inventions which the employee may develop or discover while an employee of the State College System together with an outline of the project and the conditions under which it was done. With respect to inventions made during the course of approved outside employment, the employee may delay such disclosure, when necessary to protect the outside employer’s interest, until the decision has been made by the outside employer whether to seek a patent.
2. If the College wishes to assert its interest in the invention, the President or Vice President shall inform the employee within one hundred twenty (120) days of the employee’s disclosure to the President or Vice President.
3. The President or Vice President shall conduct an investigation which shall assess the respective equities of the employee and the College in the invention, and determine its importance and the extent to which the College should be involved in its protection, development, and promotion.
4. The President or Vice President shall inform the employee of the College’s decision regarding the protection to be sought for the invention within a reasonable time, not to exceed 135 days from the date of the disclosure to the President or Vice President.
5. The division, between the College and the employee, of proceeds generated by the licensing or assignment of an invention, shall be negotiated and reflected in a written contract between the College and the employee. All such agreements shall comport with and satisfy any preexisting commitments to outside sponsoring contractors.
6. The employee shall not commit any act which would tend to defeat the College’s interest in the matter, and the College shall take any necessary steps to protect such interest.
(b) Independent Efforts. All inventions made outside the field or discipline in which the employee is employed by the College and for which no College support has been used are the property of the employee, who has the right to determine the disposition of such work and revenue derived from such work. The employee and the President or Vice President may agree that the patent for such invention be pursued by the College and the proceeds shared.
(c) College-Supported Efforts. An invention which is made in the field or discipline in which the employee is employed by the College or by using College support is the property of the College and the employee shall share in the proceeds therefrom.
(d) Outside Employment.
1. While an employee may, in accordance with Rule 6C11-8.005, F.A.C., and the pertinent collective bargaining agreement, engage in outside employment pursuant to a consulting agreement, rights to any inventions which arise during the course of such outside employment are subject to the provisions of paragraphs 6C11-8.011(3)(a)-(c), F.A.C. Such employee is not authorized to waive the employee’s or the College’s rights to any such inventions. Any such waiver must be approved by the President or Vice President.
2. (1) Definitions.

(a) Hearing Impaired. A hearing impairment is a hearing loss of thirty (30) decibels or greater, pure tone average of 500, 1000, 2000 Hz, ANSI, unaided, in the better ear.

1. Deaf applicants are those whose hearing impairment is so severe that they cannot learn speech and language through normal channels and who need extensive instruction in order to develop language, communication and academic skills.
2. Hard-of-hearing applicants are those whose residual hearing is adequate for learning speech, language, and academic skills through normal channels, provided that classroom and instructional modifications are made.

(b) Visually Impaired. Visual impairments are defined as disorders in the structure and function of the eye that, even with the best correction and treatment, interfere with learning.

1. Blind applicants are those who after the best possible ocular correction have no vision or have little potential for using vision and rely on tactual or auditory senses for learning.
2. Partially sighted applicants are those who after the best possible adjustments and ocular corrections use remaining vision for learning.

(c) Deaf-Blind. One who has a hearing impairment and a visual impairment, the combination of which causes severe communication and other developmental and educational problems that cannot be properly accommodated in special programs solely for the hearing impaired or the visually impaired applicant.

(d) "Florida applicant" means an applicant whose residence is within the state of Florida.

(e) "Residence" means actual physical presence in a place as the parent or adult applicant’s place of abode, with the intention to remain there permanently or for an indefinite period of time. Actual presence of the parent or adult applicant for the purpose of receiving free education shall not be considered residence.

(f) Temporary assignment. An applicant’s presence in the School for more than ten days for completion of evaluations, either for admission or to provide information to the student’s school district. It does not guarantee admission.

(g) Residential determination. An applicant’s need to be in a residential setting, as determined by the school district through its Individual Educational Plan process.

(h) Residential service. Room and board provided by the School as a service to a Florida student at the request and consent of the parent at no cost to the parent.

(2) Criteria for Admission and Continued Enrollment.

Non-Florida applicants who meet admission criteria other than residency may be enrolled on a tuition basis provided that such enrollment does not deny admission to any qualified applicant who is a resident of Florida.
In addition to meeting the criteria for admission, an applicant will be classified as a “Florida student” or a “non-Florida student”. A non-Florida student will be required to pay the tuition charges annually established by the Board of Trustees, with the exception of those students considered tuition fee exempt, pursuant to Section 228.121(3), F.S.

   a. The applicant shall be presumed to have the same residence as the applicant’s parents or as the parent who has legal custody of the applicant, in the absence of contrary evidence.
   b. If the applicant has living parents who reside outside Florida or if the parent who has legal custody of the applicant resides outside Florida, the applicant will be presumed to be a “non-Florida student” in the absence of contrary evidence.
   c. If the applicant claims entitlement to be classified as a “Florida student” due to the appointment by a court of competent jurisdiction of a guardian, or legal custodian of the applicant other than the applicant’s parents, the burden of establishing facts which justify classification of the applicant as a resident entitled to classification as a “Florida student” is on the applicant.

3. Application for admission as a “Florida student” shall include a written statement made under oath by the applicant if 18 years of age or older, or made by the applicant’s parents, guardian or legal custodian if a minor, that the applicant is entitled to classification as a Florida student under this rule.

4. Any “non-Florida student” enrolled in the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind prior to October 29, 1984, is required to pay tuition charges annually established by the Board of Trustees. Such student, however, shall not be dismissed from School for failure to pay the tuition charges. In the event of nonpayment, the School shall exercise every reasonable effort to collect the tuition charges from all sources legally responsible for payment.

(c) Any applicant who will attain the age of five years on or before September 1 of the school year may be considered for admission. Any applicant below the age of five years may be considered for admission as a day student.

(d) Applicants eighteen years or older may be enrolled or continued if the goal of the Individual Educational Plan is graduation with a vocational certificate of proficiency or reasonable evidence of progress toward a diploma.

(e) Applicants and students 18 or older, for whom graduation with a vocational certificate of proficiency or a diploma is not the goal of the Individual Educational Plan, may be considered for admission or continued enrollment on the recommendation of the staffing committee.

1. The coordinated set of activities must be based on the student’s needs, and take into account the student’s preferences and interests and shall include:
   a. Needed activities in the areas of instruction, community experiences, the development of employment, and other post-school adult living objectives; and
   b. If appropriate, daily living skills and functional vocational evaluation.
2. If the IEP team determines that transition services are not needed in one or more areas, the IEP shall include a statement to that effect and the basis upon which the determination was made.

(c) An Individual Educational Plan which has been reviewed and revised, if appropriate, within the last year, must be in effect at the beginning of each school year for each student continuing in the School.

(d) Meetings shall be held to develop, review and revise a student’s Individual Educational Plan.

1. A meeting shall be held at least once a year to revise each student’s Individual Educational Plan. A meeting shall also be held to review and revise a student’s Individual Educational Plan when it is suspected that the student may no longer meet the School’s admission and enrollment requirements.

2. Meetings shall include the following participants:
   a. The parents of the child;
   b. At least one regular education teacher of the child (if the child is, or may be, participating in the regular education environment). The regular education teacher of a student with a disability must, to the extent appropriate, participate in the development, review, and revision of the student’s IEP, including assisting in the determination of:
      1. Appropriate positive behavioral interventions and strategies for the student; and

If the student does not attend, the School shall take other steps to ensure that the student’s preferences and interests are considered.

i. In addition, for a student who has been evaluated for the first time, a member of the evaluation team or some other person who is knowledgeable about the evaluation procedures used with the student and is familiar with the results of the evaluation.
j. If the purpose of the IEP meeting is to consider transition services, the School shall invite a representative of any other agency that may be responsible for providing or paying for transition services. If the student does not attend, the School shall take steps to ensure that the student’s preferences and interests are considered; if an agency invited to participate in the IEP meeting does not attend, the School shall take steps to obtain the input of the agency in the planning of any transition services.

3. A representative of the school district in which the student resides shall be invited to attend each meeting to develop or revise the student’s Individual Educational Plan.

(e) If a participating agency fails to provide agreed-upon transition services contained in the IEP of a student, the School shall, as soon as possible, initiate a meeting for the purpose of identifying alternative strategies to meet the transition objectives, and if necessary, revising the student’s IEP. Nothing in this section relieves any participating agency, including a State vocational rehabilitation agency, of the responsibility to provide or pay for any transition service that the agency would otherwise provide to students with disabilities who meet the eligibility criteria of that agency.

(f) All Individual Educational Plans shall be implemented as soon as possible following the meeting to develop the plan. An exception to this would be when meetings occur during the summer or a vacation period, or where there are circumstances which require a short delay such as arranging transportation. However, there can be no undue delay in providing special education to the student.

(2) Re-evaluation.

(a) Every student enrolled in the School shall be re-evaluated every three years or more frequently if conditions warrant or if the student’s parent or teacher requests an evaluation.

(b) Procedures for re-evaluation. Re-evaluation is the process whereby information about a student is gathered and reviewed to determine the need for continuation in the School’s program and to determine if a student meets the School’s criteria for continued enrollment. The following steps are required:

1. An evaluation specialist and an exceptional student teacher shall examine available information in all areas addressed in the initial evaluation or in subsequent re-evaluations of the student and shall make the appropriate referral(s) for one or more formal evaluations based on their examination and the requirements of Rule 6A-3.002, F.A.C. When necessary, another member of the instructional or supervisory staff may substitute for the exceptional student teacher.

2. A meeting of the Individual Educational Plan committee or the staffing committee shall be convened to review all available information about the student including reports from the additional evaluations, to consider the need for continuation in the School’s program and to consider if the student meets the School’s criteria for continued enrollment. If the student is to continue in the School’s program(s), the student’s Individual Educational Plan shall be reviewed in accordance with Rule 6A-3.0021, F.A.C.

3. If the re-evaluation indicates that enrollment in the School is no longer needed or that a student no longer meets the School’s criteria for continued enrollment, the applicable dismissal or eligibility staffing procedures shall be followed, in accordance with subsection 6D-3.002(5), F.A.C.

(3) Parental Involvement. The School shall provide for parents, guardians, surrogate parents as assigned pursuant to Rule 6D-3.005, F.A.C., or persons acting in loco parentis to be involved in decisions concerning the education of students. Such procedures shall include the following:

(a) The School shall make provision for:

1. Prior written notice regarding student identification and evaluation activities including a statement informing parents of all procedural safeguards available.

2. Obtaining informed parental consent prior to initial individual evaluation to determine eligibility as a handicapped student.

3. Obtaining informed parental consent prior to initial assignment into a program at the School.

4. Parental participation in the development of the Individual Educational Plan for the student.

a. The School shall take steps to ensure that one or both of the parents of a student are present at each meeting or are afforded the opportunity to participate by:

(I) Notifying parents of the meeting early enough to ensure that they will have an opportunity to attend;

(II) Scheduling the meeting at a mutually agreed on time and place.

b. The notice to the parents must indicate the purpose, time and location of the meeting and who will be in attendance and their positions. If the purpose of the meeting is to consider transition services, the notice must also indicate this purpose, identify any other agency that will be invited to send a representative and note that the School will invite the student. For students for whom it is suspected that they no longer meet the School’s admission and enrollment requirements, the notice must also indicate that as a result of this meeting an eligibility staffing could be requested to determine whether the student continues to meet the School’s admission criteria.

c. If neither parent can attend, the School shall use other methods to ensure parent participation, including individual or conference telephone calls.

d. A meeting may be conducted without a parent in attendance if the School is unable to obtain the attendance of the parents. In this case, the School must have a record of its attempts to arrange a mutually agreed on time and place such as:

(I) Detailed records of telephone calls made or attempted and the results of those calls;

(II) Copies of correspondence sent to the parents and any responses received; and

(III) Detailed records of visits made to the parent’s home or place of employment and results of those visits.
e. The School shall take whatever action is necessary to ensure that the parent understands the proceedings at a meeting, including arranging for an interpreter for parents who are deaf or whose native language is other than English.

f. The School shall give parents a copy of the Individual Educational Plan.

(3) A parent has the right to an independent educational evaluation at public expense if the parent disagrees with an evaluation obtained by the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind; however, the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind may initiate a hearing under Rule 6D-3.003, F.A.C., to show that its evaluation is appropriate. If the final decision is that the evaluation is appropriate, the parent still has the right to an independent educational evaluation, but not at public expense.

(4) If the parent obtains an independent educational evaluation at private expense, the results of the evaluation:

(a) Must be considered by the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind in any decision made with respect to the provision of a free, appropriate, public education to the student, and

(b) May be presented as evidence at a hearing under this subpart regarding the student.

(5) If a hearing officer requests an independent educational evaluation as part of a hearing, the cost of the evaluation must be at public expense.

(6) Whenever an independent educational evaluation is at public expense, the criteria under which the evaluation is obtained, including the location of the evaluation and qualifications of the examiner, must be the same as the criteria which the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind uses when it initiates an evaluation.

(2) The Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind shall provide to parent, on request, information about where an independent educational evaluation may be obtained.

(3) A parent has the right to an independent educational evaluation at public expense if the parent disagrees with an evaluation obtained by the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind; however, the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind may initiate a hearing under Rule 6D-3.003, F.A.C., to show that its evaluation is appropriate. If the final decision is that the evaluation is appropriate, the parent still has the right to an independent educational evaluation, but not at public expense.

(4) If the parent obtains an independent educational evaluation at private expense, the results of the evaluation:

(a) Must be considered by the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind in any decision made with respect to the provision of a free, appropriate, public education to the student, and

(b) May be presented as evidence at a hearing under this subpart regarding the student.

(5) If a hearing officer requests an independent educational evaluation as part of a hearing, the cost of the evaluation must be at public expense.

(6) Whenever an independent educational evaluation is at public expense, the criteria under which the evaluation is obtained, including the location of the evaluation and qualifications of the examiner, must be the same as the criteria which the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind uses when it initiates an evaluation.

(d) The School will provide to parents or eligible students annual notification of their rights to inspect, review, challenge hearing, right of privacy, waiver of access, and/or have copies of their child’s record. The notification will be distributed at the beginning of the school year and will be in the language of the parent or eligible student. A student’s educational records and all personally identifiable information shall not be released except on the condition that the information being released will not be subsequently released to any other party without obtaining the consent of the parent or eligible student, and that the School has written permission from the parent or eligible student to release identifiable information to said agency, etc. (Written permission must be dated.)

2. Released copies of educational records and personally identifiable information must be destroyed when no longer required by the person to whom the information was appropriately released for the purpose stated on release form. 3. In order to comply with the two sections noted above, all copies of information being released will indicate that the information being released will indicate that the information may not be subsequently released to any other party without the written consent of the parent or eligible student; and that the copies of the information can be destroyed when no longer needed.

CHAPTER 6E-1 GENERAL INFORMATION

6E-1.003 Definition of Terms.
Terms used in these rules are defined in Section 1005.02, Florida Statutes. In addition, as used in the rules of this Commission, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

1. “Accredited foreign medical schools” means institutions chartered outside the United States, in a nation whose accreditation standards have been determined by the United States Department of Education to be comparable to the accreditation standards applied to United States medical schools, when the foreign medical school has been inspected and evaluated by the nation’s recognized agent and approved or accredited by its home nation using those comparable standards.

2. “Advertising” includes any form of public notice, however disseminated or utilized, offering training or education to the public or recruiting students to enroll in a school or college program. The term includes publications and promotional items which may be seen or encountered by prospective students, including catalogs and other institutional publications which contain institutional policies or disclosures; mailing pieces, such as bulletins, brochures, or flyers; classified advertisements; news releases; posters; electronic notices provided through Internet, radio or television; or any other form of public notice resulting from the institution’s recruiting and promotional efforts.

3. “Applied general education” means courses directly related and applicable to a specific occupation, fulfilling the general education requirements for an occupational associate degree, in natural and physical sciences, social and behavioral sciences, language and writing skills, and humanities and the arts.

4. “Asynchronous” means that students may access a prepared educational program electronically or by other means, at a time of their own choosing rather than at a specified time.

5. “Auxiliary classroom space” means a location within 10 miles of a licensed school or college, and under its administrative and academic control and included in its licensure; where classes are held as needed to supplement the physical capacity of the licensed institution; and where the licensed institution is not required to maintain ongoing administrative or faculty offices, but has the responsibility of providing all administrative, academic, and student services.

6. “Board-certified,” “board-eligible,” and “board licensed” refer to the appropriate recognition by the State Board of Medicine or other recognized agency which regulates the practice of medicine in the jurisdiction where the foreign medical school operates and where clerkships are offered.

7. “Chartered” means incorporated according to the requirements of the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations or similar authority in another jurisdiction.

8. “Clinical clerkship” means supervised instruction in medical disciplines with an opportunity to observe and to participate in the theory and practice of expert care of patients with a broad spectrum of traumatic conditions, psychiatric disorders, disease, or other human ailments, in order for the students to achieve comprehensive knowledge in medical diagnosis and treatment as part of a course of instruction leading to an M.D. or D.O. degree or the equivalent.

9. “Collegiate” describes a college or university which is licensed by the Commission to offer degrees as defined in Section 1005.02(7), Florida Statutes, or the degree programs offered by such an institution.

10. “Complete application” means an application which the Commission staff has reviewed and found to contain all required forms, supporting documentation addressing each standard, all required signatures, and evidence that all appropriate fees have been paid.

11. “Compressed time period” means a significantly shorter period than those described in the definitions of “Semester” and “Quarter.”
(12) “Core clinical clerkship” means initial clinical training required of every medical student, generally taken in the third year of medical school, in such fields as internal medicine, pediatrics, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, psychiatry, and family medicine.

(13) “Correspondence learning” means instruction through mail or e-mail requiring the institution to mail a syllabus, texts, lessons, and other materials to the student and to provide adequate educational services, responses, comments, and evaluations in a timely manner to the student.

(16) “Credit for prior learning” means credit for learning acquired outside the licensed institution, that has resulted in a level of knowledge and skills appropriate and comparable to the level and content of the program or credential offered. Such learning must be validated and documented by qualified instructors using consistent, educationally defensible procedures and standards.

(17) “Direct contact instruction” means the physical presence of one or more students and one or more instructors at the same physical location. Direct contact instruction includes instruction and learning that takes place in a seminar, workshop, lecture, colloquium, laboratory, or tutorial, in a setting consistent with the stated mission, purposes, and objectives of the institution and the specific program or course. A learning agreement or learning contract should be a central feature of direct contact instruction.

(18) “Distance education” means planned learning that normally occurs in a different place from teaching and as a result requires special techniques in course design, special instructional techniques, special methods of communication by electronic and other technology, and special organizational and administrative arrangements.

Courses designated as “applied,” “specialized,” “technical,” or similar designation do not meet this definition.

(27) “Indirect contact instruction” means a delivery method which does not require the physical presence of students and instructors at the same location, but provides for interaction between students and instructors by such means as telecommunications, electronic and computer-augmented educational services, correspondence, postal service, and facsimile transmission. Detailed course outlines or comprehensive syllabi are central to indirect contact instruction and learning, along with specified competencies to be mastered, details of interaction and feedback from the instructor, and specified procedures and timetables for evaluation.

(34) “Noncollegiate” or “nondegree” describes a nonpublic career school licensed by the Commission to offer certificate or diploma programs as defined in Section 1005.02(16), Florida Statutes, or the certificate or diploma programs below the degree level offered by any institution under the jurisdiction of the Commission.

(35) “Nontraditional education” means any positive progress toward a credential that is earned through experiential means or distance education and approved by the faculty of the institution granting the credential, or other sources verified by the American Council on Education, or testing from recognized sources such as but not limited to the Defense Activity for Non-traditional Education Support (DANTES), Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC), or other sources deemed by the Commission to have similar quality controls.

A substantive change also includes any change which the Commission determines is serious enough to affect the continued operation or stability of the institution, or the quality of the educational programs offered.

6E-1.0032 Fair Consumer Practices.

(1) This rule implements the provisions of Sections 1005.04 and 1005.34, Florida Statutes, and establishes the regulations and standards of the Commission relative to fair consumer practices and the operation of independent postsecondary education institutions in Florida.
This disclosure statement shall be inserted in all advertisements or publications wherever accreditation by an unrecognized accrediting agency is mentioned.

(e) Fee schedule: The institution shall disclose all fees required to be paid by students (including tuition, laboratory fees, graduation fees, other required fees), and any nonrefundable fees must be so identified.

(f) Transferability of credits: The institution shall disclose information to the student regarding transferability of credits to other institutions and from other institutions. The institution shall disclose that transferability of credit is at the discretion of the accepting institution, and that it is the student’s responsibility to confirm whether or not credits will be accepted by another institution of the student’s choice. If a licensed institution has entered into written articulation agreements with other institutions, a list of those other institutions may be provided to students, along with any conditions or limitations on the amount or kinds of credit that will be accepted. Such written agreements with other institutions must be valid and in effect at the time the information is disclosed to the student. The agreements shall be kept on file at all times and available for inspection by Commission representatives or students. Any change or termination of the agreements shall be disclosed promptly to all affected students. No representation shall be made by a licensed institution that its credits can be transferred to another specific institution, unless the institution has a current, valid articulation agreement on file.
(g) Admissions: The institution shall disclose its method of assessing a student’s ability to complete successfully the course of study for which he or she has applied. The requirements for admission (such as high school diploma, general equivalency diploma, or its equivalent) and for graduation shall be disclosed. If the practice of a career has special requirements or limitations, such as certain physical capabilities or lack of a criminal record, such requirements or limitations shall be disclosed to prospective students interested in training for that career.

(h) Student financial assistance: Information about the availability of financial assistance shall be disclosed to prospective students. In addition, each institution shall make such disclosure in writing, to be signed and dated by each student applying for and receiving a student loan, to the effect that the student understands that he or she is obligated to repay the loan, the terms and amounts of repayments, and when repayments will begin. References to financial assistance availability in any school catalogs or advertising shall include the phrase, “for those who qualify.”

(i) Student refund policies: This rule establishes the Commission’s minimum refund guidelines for licensed institutions. Refund policies which pertain to students who are receiving Title IV Federal Student Financial Assistance or veterans’ benefits shall be in compliance with applicable federal regulations.

1. All institutions shall have an equitable prorated refund policy for all students, which shall be disclosed in the catalog and enrollment agreement or similar documents, and must be uniformly administered. Any nonrefundable fees or charges shall also be disclosed.

2. The institution’s refund policy shall provide a formula for proration of refunds based upon the length of time the student remains enrolled, up to a minimum of 40 percent of a program, if the student is charged tuition for an entire program; or 20 percent, if the institution charges the student for a term, quarter, semester, or other time period that is less than the duration of the entire program.

3. As an alternative, an institution that charges tuition for a term, quarter, semester or other time period that is less than the duration of the entire program may establish a drop/add period which shall be no less than 10 percent of the period for which the student is financially committed, or one week, whichever is less. If the student withdraws before the end of the drop/add period, the student will be refunded all tuition and fees, as well as any funds paid for supplies, books, or equipment which can be and are returned to the institution.

4. The refund policy shall not consider that all or substantially all tuition for an entire program or term is earned when a student has been enrolled for only a minimal percentage of the program or term. The refund policy shall provide for cancellation of any obligation, other than a book and supply assessment for supplies, materials and kits which are not returnable because of use, within 3 working days from the student’s signing an enrollment agreement or contract. Refunds shall be made within 30 days of the date that the institution determines that the student has withdrawn.

5. Institutions need not keep attendance, but must adopt and publish an equitable policy by which withdrawal dates will be determined, which may include notification by the student or reports from faculty. This policy shall be submitted to the Commission before publication.

6. Nonrefundable application fees for Florida students shall not exceed $50. The requirements regarding refund policies as stated herein do not apply to dormitory or meal fees. Refund policies for those fees, if charged, shall be set by the institution and also disclosed in conjunction with the refund policy.

(j) Employment placement services: The extent of placement services shall be specifically described. No guarantee of placement shall be made or implied. The institution may disclose information relating to market and job availability, if verified through statistical research; however, the institution shall not promise or imply any specific market or job availability amounts.

(k) A statement that additional information regarding the institution, if licensed, may be obtained by contacting the Commission for Independent Education, Department of Education, 2650 Apalachee Parkway, Suite A, Tallahassee, Florida 32301, toll-free telephone number (888) 224-6684.

(7) If the Commission determines that ongoing complaints show a pattern of misinformation, lack of disclosure, or discrepancies between printed, electronic, and verbal information being given to prospective students, the Commission shall require that institutions prepare additional documents, to be individually signed and dated by students, to address the problem. Significant deviations from fair consumer practices shall be grounds for probation, denial or revocation of licensure pursuant to Sections 1005.32(7), 1005.34(3), and 1005.38(1), Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C.

(8) The institution shall develop, publish, and follow a procedure for handling complaints, disciplinary actions and appeals. The procedure shall ensure that complaints and disciplinary actions are not handled in a capricious or arbitrary manner, but are given careful consideration by appropriate levels of administration. It is understood that the health and safety of students and staff are the institution’s primary concern. In the event of extreme cases, it may be necessary for the institution to take immediate disciplinary action. If the institution has an emergency disciplinary procedure, this procedure shall be disclosed to prospective students, and grounds for such action shall be specified in as much detail as possible.

(9) An institution is responsible for ensuring compliance with this rule by any person or company contracted with or employed by the institution to act on its behalf in matters of advertising, recruiting, or otherwise making representations which may be accessed by prospective students in Florida, whether verbally, electronically, or by other means of communication.

6E-2.001 Approved Applicant Status.

All new or out-of-state institutions applying for initial licensure to operate in Florida, whether planning to offer degrees or nondegree programs, must file an application for a Provisional License. When the application is deemed complete, as defined in subsection 6E-1.003(10), F.A.C., the institution will be placed on Approved Applicant status while final preparations are made.

(1) Before filing-time frame. Before preparing and filing a formal application, representatives of a new institution seeking licensure in Florida for the first time should confer with Commission staff a minimum of six months prior to the desired opening date of the institution.

(2) Review and recommendation. If the initial application has omissions, staff shall contact the applicant and request all omitted materials. When the application for a Provisional License is deemed complete by Commission staff, and the background checks required by law for appropriate personnel have been completed and grounds for ineligibility for licensure have not been found, the application shall be presented to the Commission.

(3) Deficiencies and conditions. Although an application may be complete, containing material addressing each requirement, still there may be deficiencies in fully meeting the standards for a Provisional License. Deficiencies will be itemized in the recommendation for Approved Applicant status presented by staff to the Commission, and the Commission may find that additional deficiencies exist. The Commission shall also, if necessary, attach conditions which must be met before a Provisional License is granted, one of which shall be that a professionally printed and bound catalog will be prepared and submitted, containing all information required by Rule 6E-1.0032, F.A.C.

(4) Confirmation letter. An applicant granted Approved Applicant status will receive a letter confirming and explaining the status, noting what specific activities can be done during Approved Applicant status, and stating the length of time for which the status was granted. A listing of deficiencies to be corrected and conditions to be met shall be attached to the confirmation letter. No certificate or license will be provided. Any agency or member of the public requesting information from the applicant shall be provided a copy of the confirmation letter.

(5) Delegation to staff. If the Commission determines that the deficiencies and conditions noted in the confirmation letter are routine and easily corrected or fulfilled, the Commission shall direct its Executive Director to determine when the deficiencies are corrected and the conditions are met. If the Commission so directs, and the applicant has paid all required fees, the Executive Director shall issue a Provisional License upon receipt of documentation that a site visit has occurred if required, that all deficiencies have been corrected, and that all requirements for a Provisional License have been met. However, if the Commission considers that the deficiencies and conditions are unusually complex or significant, it shall specify that the application be reviewed by the full Commission before a Provisional License is approved.

(6) Time allowed for compliance. Approved Applicant status shall be granted for a period of up to six months, during which time the applicant institution shall correct any remaining deficiencies, meet all conditions, and demonstrate that it is in substantial compliance with the standards for licensure. If the Commission determines that the applicant is making a good faith effort to comply, but a delay occurs due to extraordinary circumstances, the Commission shall grant one additional six-month extension of Approved Applicant status, for a maximum total of one year in this status. If the applicant has not reached substantial compliance with the standards for licensure during the period specified, including any authorized extension, a new application reflecting the current situation must be submitted and all required fees paid to start the application process again.

(7) Prohibited activities. During the period of Approved Applicant status, a new institution shall not advertise, share information with the news media implying future operations, solicit or recruit students, collect fees or tuition from or on behalf of students, offer programs of study, or engage in any activity not specifically approved by the Commission and noted in the confirmation letter. The applicant shall not use the terms “licensed” or “authorized” or in any way indicate to the public or to other agencies that it has approval to operate from the Commission or the State of Florida. Any questions from the public or the news media shall be directed to the Commission staff. Any prohibited activities by or on behalf of the institution, including misrepresentation of the Approved Applicant status, shall result in suspension or termination of the status for a length of time prescribed by the Commission.

(8) Misrepresentation of status. The granting of Approved Applicant status is not a guarantee that a Provisional License or higher status will be attained, and shall not be represented as such. An Approved Applicant status is a recognition that the proposed institution has submitted a complete application for a Provisional License, and does not imply that any current or future operation is or will be approved by the Commission.

Specific Authority 1005.31(2), (3) FS. Law Implemented 1005.31(2), (3), (4) FS. History–Repromulgated 12-5-74. Formerly 6E-4.01(1)(a)-(e), Readopted 11-11-75, Amended 5-7-79, 10-13-83, Formerly 6E-2.01, Amended 11-27-88, 11-29-89, 12-10-90, 10-19-93, 4-2-96, 4-11-00, 1-7-03, 3-29-04.

6E-2.002 Institutional Licensure.

(1) Provisional license.

(a) A new applicant for initial licensure who has received Approved Applicant status shall be granted a Provisional License for a period not to exceed one year when the Commission determines that the applicant is in substantial compliance with the standards for Annual Licensure and the appropriate fees have been paid.

(b) Delegation to staff. In granting initial Approved Applicant status to a new or out-of-state institution, the Commission will note any deficiencies in meeting the standards for a Provisional License and impose any conditions it deems appropriate. If the Commission considers that the deficiencies and conditions attached to the Approved Applicant status are unusually complex or significant, it shall specify that the application be reviewed by the full Commission before a Provisional License is approved. Otherwise, the Commission shall delegate to its Executive Director the responsibility for determining when the deficiencies are corrected and the conditions are met. If the Commission so directs, and the applicant has paid all required fees, the Executive Director shall issue a Provisional License upon receipt of documentation that all deficiencies have been corrected and that all conditions and all requirements for Provisional Licensure have been met, including an on-site visit if necessary.

(c) Substantive change. An institution which undergoes a substantive change, as defined in subsection 6E-1.003(43), F.A.C., while holding an Annual License or a License by Means of Accreditation, shall be granted a Provisional License for a period of time determined by the Commission. An institution may submit a written request for a return to its previous status or for a new status when conditions set by the Commission have been met. Any limitations on the operation of the institution during the period of provisional licensure will be determined by the Commission when granting the Provisional License. An institution holding a Provisional License shall not request approval of or implement a substantive change until it holds an Annual License or License by Means of Accreditation. The Commission may delegate to the Executive Director the authority to return institutions to their previous status between Commission meetings, if the Executive Director determines that changes have no negative impact on the institution or the students attending the institution. Such action shall be reported to the Commission at the next meeting for further action.

(d) Time allowed for compliance. A Provisional License shall be granted for a period up to one year, during which time the institution shall meet all conditions and demonstrate that it meets the standards for an Annual License or a License by Means of Accreditation. If the Commission determines that the applicant is making a good faith effort to comply, but a delay occurs due to extraordinary circumstances caused by considerations such as requirements of an accrediting agency or of other governmental agencies, the Commission shall grant an extension of the Provisional License up to one additional year and require payment of the appropriate fee. If the institution has not complied with all necessary standards and conditions within the period specified, including any authorized extension, a new application for licensure reflecting the current situation must be submitted and all required fees paid to start the application process again. Progress reports shall be required by the Commission during the period of provisional licensure as necessary to inform the Commission of the institution’s progress toward reaching a higher level of licensure.

(e) Probable cause. An institution for which probable cause has been found pursuant to Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C., shall be issued a Provisional License until the conditions leading to the finding of probable cause have been corrected. Because of the need for increased monitoring during this time, additional fees shall be assessed on a quarterly basis pursuant to Rule 6E-4.001, F.A.C.

(f) Permissible activities. While holding a Provisional License, an institution may advertise, recruit students, accept fees and tuition from or on behalf of students, and hold classes. A new institution seeking to offer degrees, a nondegree-granting institution seeking to add degree programs, or a new nondegree-granting institution whose credential requires one year or more to earn, shall not award the new degree or credential during provisional licensure. The Commission shall note in the granting of the Provisional License whether any short-term credentials can be awarded during that status, and what specific activities may occur. No programs may be advertised or offered which do not appear on the Provisional License. Fair consumer practices, as provided in Sections 1005.04 and 1005.34, Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-1.0032, F.A.C., shall be followed by the institution in all aspects of its operation.

(g) Disciplinary actions. Grounds and procedures for disciplinary actions against a licensee are provided in Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, and in Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C.

(2) Annual License.

(a) Granting. An institution that holds a Provisional License, or seeks renewal of an Annual License, shall be granted an Annual License for a period not to exceed one year when the Commission determines that the institution has demonstrated full compliance with all licensure standards and that all appropriate fees have been paid. A satisfactory on-site visit must occur prior to the granting of an initial Annual License. An accredited institution may submit a report of a satisfactory visit by its accrediting agency to satisfy this requirement.

(b) Extensions.

1. An annual license shall be extended for up to one year if the institution meets the following requirements:
   a. The institution has held Annual Licensure for a minimum of five consecutive years, and
   b. The institution has no complaints pending whereupon probable cause has been found, and
   c. The institution has complied with all appropriate rules and statutes, and
   d. The institution has paid all appropriate fees.

2. An institution which holds an Annual License or an extension thereof shall revert to a Provisional License if the institution undergoes a substantive change or if probable cause is found.

(c) Permissible Activities.

1. Annual licensure shall permit full operation of an institution, including, if applicable, application to the Commission to add new programs or majors, or new locations, pursuant to Rule 6E-2.008, F.A.C.

2. Fair consumer practices, as provided in Sections 1005.04 and 1005.34, Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-1.0032, F.A.C., shall be followed by the institution in all aspects of its operation.

(d) Disciplinary actions. Grounds and procedures for disciplinary actions against a licensee are provided in Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, and in Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C.

(3) License by Means of Accreditation.

(a) The chair of the Commission shall appoint a committee to provide recommendations to the Commission regarding the recognition of accrediting agencies. This committee shall be composed of persons who represent a cross-section of institutions holding an Annual License or extension thereof, or a License by Means of Accreditation. The chair of the Commission shall appoint the chair of the committee. The committee shall meet at the request of the Commission chair. Any member of the accreditation review committee whose institution is accredited by, or who is personally affiliated with, an accrediting agency being reviewed shall not vote on recommendation of that accrediting agency.

1. The committee shall evaluate applications of accrediting agencies recognized by the U.S. Department of Education to provide institutional accreditation for institutions offering primarily residential programs.

2. In evaluating accrediting agencies for recommendation to the Commission, the committee shall:
   a. Determine the level and scope at which the agency is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education;
   b. Identify the accreditation standards of each agency. An accrediting agency shall be determined to have standards that are substantially equivalent to the standards of the Commission if they include policies and procedures in the following areas: protection of student rights and consumer protection; admission procedures; faculty credentials at various levels; curriculum and educational delivery; student services; library and media resources; outcomes assessment; evaluation of substantive changes; fiscal and administrative capabilities; and educational facilities;
   c. Identify the procedures and processes of the accreditation agency to determine sufficient oversight and enforcement of its standards, and to ensure that the agency has effective mechanisms for evaluating an institution’s compliance with its standards;
   d. Determine the willingness of the accrediting agency to share information in a timely manner about an institution being evaluated or visited by the accrediting agency;
   e. Make a recommendation to the Commission whether an accrediting agency meets the above requirements;
   f. Review the standards of recognized accrediting agencies periodically as needed to ensure continuing substantial equivalence to Commission standards.

(b) Requirements. An institution may apply for a License by Means of Accreditation if appropriate fees have been paid and if the following materials have been presented to the Commission:
1. Evidence that the institution has been licensed or exempt from licensure under Section 246.085(1)(a), Florida Statutes 2001, in the state of Florida for the past five consecutive years; and
2. Evidence that the institution is a Florida corporation; and
3. Evidence that the institution holds institutional accreditation granted by an accrediting agency as defined by Section 1005.02(1), Florida Statutes, which has been evaluated by the accreditation review committee and approved by the Commission as having reporting, organizational, and operating standards substantially equivalent to the Commission’s licensure standards; and
4. Evidence that the institution meets minimum requirements for financial responsibility. The institution shall demonstrate compliance with this requirement by filing the institution’s most recent annual independently audited financial statement, pursuant to subsection 6E-2.004(6), F.A.C. This audit shall cover a fiscal year which ended no earlier than twelve months prior to the application for licensure by means of accreditation.
   (c) Evaluation. When the Commission has received the required documents and appropriate fees, the Commission shall evaluate the eligibility of the institution for Licensure by Means of Accreditation by determining, in addition, whether;
   1. The institution has consistently followed fair consumer practices, as provided in Sections 1005.04 and 1005.34, Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-1.0032, F.A.C., in all aspects of its operations; and
   2. The institution has no unresolved complaints or other actions in the past twelve months; and
   (d) Continued Exemption. An institution that was exempt from licensure under Section 246.085(1)(a), Florida Statutes 2001, may retain an exemption until the Commission issues it a License by Means of Accreditation as provided in this rule.
   (e) Annual review. At the time of annual review of a License by Means of Accreditation, the institution shall submit: a current institutional catalog; a copy of materials provided to its accrediting agency since the last license review, except in the case of a self-study, a copy of the executive summary thereof will suffice; a copy of any correspondence, including letters, motions, records of actions taken, and other similar documents provided by the accrediting agency to the institution since the last review, and the institution’s response; a copy of the annual independent institutional audit, pursuant to subsection 6E-2.004(6), F.A.C.; materials documenting that fair consumer practices are followed by the institution; and, if requested by the Commission, materials documenting that the institution has in place procedures for following the Commission’s requirements for orderly closing.
   (f) Duration.
   1. A License by Means of Accreditation is valid for the same period as the grant of accreditation, except as noted in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph.
   2. At the conclusion of the period of the grant of accreditation for which the licensure was granted, the license will expire unless the institution has paid appropriate fees and submitted evidence that the institution continues to be eligible for a License by Means of Accreditation. In the event that the accrediting agency has deferred consideration of a renewal of the institution’s accreditation, the Commission shall consider the circumstances in making a decision whether to extend the license.
   (g) Before offering a program that exceeds the scope or level of its grant of accreditation, an institution holding a License by Means of Accreditation must apply for and receive an Annual License, pursuant to Section 1005.32(4), Florida Statutes. Upon inclusion of the new program in the full grant of accreditation, the institution may apply to reinstate its License by Means of Accreditation.
   (h) Disciplinary actions. Pursuant to Section 1005.32(7), Florida Statutes, repeated failure to comply with the statutory requirements for this status shall lead to denial, probation, or revocation of the status as outlined in Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C. If the License by Means of Accreditation is revoked or denied, the institution must immediately obtain an Annual License.

6E-2.004 Standards and Procedures for Licensure.
Each institution applying for a license or moving to a new level of licensure shall provide to the Commission the following specific information, in English. All information and documentation submitted pursuant to the provisions of these rules shall be accompanied by certification signed by the chief administrative officer of the institution, affirming that the information and documentation submitted is accurate. Any application or review which is not substantially complete shall be returned to the institution with a request to complete and resubmit the material.
   (1) Standard 1: Name.
       (a) An institution’s name must clearly indicate that the primary purpose of the institution is education, and must not be misleading to the public. Noncollegiate schools shall not use the words “college” or “university” in their names. No institution shall use a name that may lead the student to believe that the institution is a public institution, unless it is an institution provided, operated, or supported by the State of Florida or its political subdivisions, another state, or the federal government. The license will be issued in the official corporate name, or an official fictitious name if the institution provides documentation that such name is registered with the Florida Secretary of State, or comparable official in the appropriate jurisdiction. If using a fictitious name, the institution must disclose its official corporate name in its catalog.
       (b) Use of the Term “College”:
1. An institution may use the term “college” in its name if it offers, or if a new applicant for licensure proposes to offer, as the majority of its total offerings and student enrollments, an academic associate degree, a baccalaureate degree, or a graduate or professional degree.

2. If an out-of-state institution whose official name includes the term “college” seeks to operate in Florida and use the term “college” in its name in this state, it must minimally offer in its home state, as the majority of its total offerings and student enrollments, an academic associate degree, a baccalaureate degree, or a graduate or professional degree. If the institution does not meet these criteria in its home state, the Commission shall require the institution to use an appropriate modifying phrase in conjunction with its name in Florida.

3. The institution must lease, contract for, or own facilities in Florida which meet or exceed the minimum standards specified in subsection 6E-2.004(9), F.A.C.

4. The institution must show evidence of continued operations as an educational institution at the college level.

(c) Use of the Term “University”:
   1. An institution may use the term “university” in its name if it offers, or if a new applicant for licensure proposes to offer, as the majority of its total offerings and student enrollments, a range of undergraduate degree programs and multiple graduate degree programs; or if only graduate degrees are offered, a minimum of three graduate degree programs.

2. If an out-of-state institution whose official name includes the term “university” seeks to operate in Florida and use the term “university” in its name in this state, it must minimally offer in its home state, as the majority of its total offerings and student enrollments, a range of undergraduate degree programs and multiple graduate degree programs; or if only graduate degrees are offered, a minimum of three graduate degree programs. If the institution does not meet these criteria in its home state, the Commission shall require the institution to use an appropriate modifying phrase in conjunction with its name in Florida.

3. The institution must lease, contract for, or own facilities in Florida which meet or exceed the minimum standards specified in subsection 6E-2.004(9), F.A.C.

4. The institution must show evidence of continued operations as an educational institution at the university level.

(d) Change of Name: All institutions must notify the Commission at least 30 days prior to the institution’s change of name. All institutions must demonstrate to the Commission that the new name will meet the standards given in this rule prior to using the new name, including advertisements or promotions. Accredited institutions must document to the Commission that the accrediting agency has been notified of the change of name.

(2) Standard 2: Purpose.

(a) An institution must adopt a clearly defined purpose or mission statement appropriate to the offerings of the institution, as well as to its specific educational objectives. This statement must describe clearly the characteristics and components of the institution and its operations. The statement of purpose must be accurately stated in the institution’s current catalog.

(b) The statement of purpose serves as a foundation for the institution’s programs and activities. The practice and scope of the institution must be consistent with its statement of purpose. The statement of purpose must be approved by the governing body of the institution and reviewed periodically.

(3) Standard 3: Administrative Organization.

(a) Each institution shall provide a qualified administrative staff and such policies and procedures as are necessary to ensure the accomplishment of its purpose.

(b) Each institution and additional location shall have as its designated administrator a person who has at least two years of supervisory experience in an executive or managerial position in a similar institution or related business.

(c) Each owner (in a privately held corporation or limited liability partnership), director, and administrator of the institution in a management or supervisory position is subject to a criminal justice information investigation pursuant to Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes.

(d) Each institution shall have as its chief education/academic officer a person who has attained a minimum of an academic credential or recognition equivalent to the institution’s highest offering, or, in a school, who has a minimum of two years of practical experience in a supervisory, administrative, or teaching position related to the programs offered by the institution.

(e) Pursuant to Section 1005.39, Florida Statutes, individuals holding the following or similar positions in licensed institutions shall complete at least eight continuing education contact hours of training related to their positions each year from the Commission or another provider which the Commission has determined to include relevant information in its training programs: school director, Florida director, or chief executive officer; chief education/academic officer or director of education or training; placement director; admissions director; and financial aid director. If an individual holds more than one of these positions, the documentation shall indicate for which position the training was appropriate. Compliance with this requirement is a condition of licensure or renewal of licensure.

(f) Each institution shall be a Florida corporation or limited liability partnership, or be registered as a foreign corporation, pursuant to the requirements of the Florida Secretary of State, or be a public institution in another state. Upon initial licensure and subsequent renewal, the institution must provide proof of active corporate status.

(g) The organizational structure shall reflect the provisions contained in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other governing documents, and shall provide a clearly delineated chain of authority and responsibility.
(h) Administrative and academic policies shall be officially adopted and communicated to all appropriate personnel. These policies shall include such matters as responsibilities of administrative officers, faculty qualifications and responsibilities, evaluation and improvement of institutional effectiveness, and other such policies and regulations affecting the members of the institution’s faculty, staff, and students.

(4) Educational programs and curricula. The following standards shall apply to all institutions licensed by the Commission for Independent Education, except as expressly stated otherwise.

(a) Programs shall be related to the institution’s purpose and organized to provide a sequence which leads to the attaining of competence in the respective area or field of study.

(b) Programs preparing the student for an occupation or professional certification shall conform to the standards and training practices generally acceptable by the occupational or professional fields for which students are being prepared. If the practice of the occupation or profession is regulated, licensed, or certified by a state or national agency, the institution must document to the Commission that successful completion of the program will qualify the graduate to take the licensing examination or to receive the appropriate certification.

(c) The amount of time scheduled for a program shall be appropriate to enable the student to acquire marketable and other skills to the extent claimed in the institution’s published documents, including the defined objectives and performance outcomes.

(d) Among the policies to be officially adopted by the administration and governing board of an institution offering programs 600 clock hours in length or longer shall be a policy giving faculty a role in the development and continual reassessment of all curricula. The policy shall be published in a faculty handbook, and shall be implemented as published.

(e) For each course to be offered, a course outline and a list of competencies required for successful completion of the course shall be developed by qualified faculty and be provided in writing for all students no later than the first meeting of each class. A copy of these documents shall be kept in the institution’s files and be made available for inspection by representatives of the Commission.

(f) Qualified faculty shall evaluate the competencies of students in each subject or course included in each curriculum, including independent study courses.

(g) It is the responsibility of the institution to demonstrate, upon request of the Commission, that the scope and sequence of a proposed or operating curriculum are consistent with appropriate criteria or standards in the subject matter involved, and of an appropriate level of difficulty for the program to be offered. The Commission shall request assistance from other appropriate regulatory agencies as provided in Section 1005.22(2)(d), Florida Statutes, or appoint committees to review curricula, when necessary to ensure that specialized programs contain the appropriate material to prepare students to enter those fields.

(h) Faculty, advisory committees, or other qualified individuals must be involved in the development and ongoing review of curricula.

(i) Educational programs of 600 clock hours in length or longer shall be periodically reviewed by a committee of faculty, administrators, employers, and advisors drawn from relevant community and alumni groups, in an ongoing formalized process of evaluation and revision.

(j) At least 25 percent of the credits or hours required for completion of a program must be earned through instruction taken at the institution awarding the credential, unless a different standard has been adopted by the recognized accrediting body accrediting the institution, or by a governmental agency whose policies apply to the institution. This standard shall not apply if any of the training was taken at accredited institutions as defined in Section 1005.02(1), Florida Statutes, while the student was a member of the U.S. armed services.

(k) Any clinical experience, internship, externship, practicum, and other such formal arrangement for which an institution offers credit toward completion of a program, shall be under the supervision of the institution. Written agreements shall be executed between the institution and the entity providing the experience, delineating each party’s responsibilities, the number of hours to be worked by the student, the types of work to be done by the student, the supervision to be given the student, and the method of evaluating the student’s work and certifying it to the institution as satisfactory. If such experiences are required for the completion of a program, it is the responsibility of the institution to make prior arrangements for each student enrolled in the program to participate in the necessary experience within the agreed and documented length of time required for completion of and graduation from the program; and the institution’s enrollments shall be based upon the availability of qualified clinical experiences, internships, externships, or practicums to serve all students.

(l) Policies regarding course or program cancellations shall be adopted, published, and followed by the institution.

(m) The following instructional program standards apply to nondegree diplomas:

1. Program specifications: The credential offered shall be a diploma. The duration of the program shall be appropriate for mastery of the subject matter or skills needed to pursue the occupation for which the student is being trained. There are no general education requirements.

2. Each program must have clearly defined and published objectives and occupational performance outcomes, which shall conform with accepted standards set by the Florida Department of Education or other appropriate recognized governmental or professional agencies. Institutions using occupational outcomes different from those set by recognized agencies shall document their justification for using the outcomes selected. For institutions participating in the Statewide Course Numbering System, these objectives and outcomes must conform to the requirements of that system.
3. Basic Skills. An institution offering a program of four hundred fifty (450) or more clock hours or the credit hour equivalent shall administer a basic skills examination to each student who enrolls, unless the student has provided evidence of a high school graduation diploma, general equivalency diploma, or its equivalent. Institutions must maintain copies of students’ high school graduation diplomas, general equivalency diplomas, official high school transcripts, or equivalent documentation or procedures, to qualify for this exception. Institutions must utilize a test approved by the United States Department of Education to determine if a student has the ability to benefit from a program of instruction, or obtain written approval from the Commission for a different basic skills test. If the test is not approved by the United States Department of Education and is submitted to the Commission for approval, the submission must include documentation that the test is nationally normed and validated and assesses a student’s mastery of basic skills. The test must be administered by an independent tester. Students deemed to lack the required minimal level of basic skills as measured by an approved examination shall, if admitted, be provided with instruction specifically designed to correct the deficiencies. Upon completion of the instruction, these students shall be retested by using an alternative form of the same examination that was used for initial testing, or another approved examination. Work intended to bring students’ basic skills up to a postsecondary level of proficiency shall not be counted toward the completion of a course or program.

4. Acceptable admission scores must be in accordance with the standards of the individual examination as it relates to the student program. These minimum test scores must be published in the current school catalog.

(n) The following instructional program standards apply to occupational associate degrees:

1. Program specifications: The credential offered shall be the Associate of Applied Science, Occupational Associate, Associate of Specialized Business, or similar title considered by the Commission to be appropriate and not misleading. The duration of the program shall be a minimum of 1,200 clock hours of instruction, 60 semester credit hours, or 90 quarter credit hours pursuant to subsections 6E-1.003(40) and (43), F.A.C. The required general education component shall be at least 9 semester credit hours or 14 quarter credit hours, or the recognized clock hour equivalent. General education courses shall meet either of the definitions given in subsection 6E-1.003(3) or (26), F.A.C.

2. Programs must have clearly defined and published objectives and occupational performance outcomes, which shall conform with accepted standards set by the Florida Department of Education or other appropriate recognized governmental or professional agencies. Institutions using occupational outcomes different from those set by recognized agencies shall document their justification for using the outcomes selected. For institutions participating in the Statewide Course Numbering System these objectives and outcomes must conform to the requirements of that system.

3. Basic Skills. An institution offering a program of four hundred fifty (450) or more clock hours or the credit hour equivalent shall administer a basic skills examination to each student who enrolls, unless the student has provided evidence of a high school graduation diploma, general equivalency diploma, or its equivalent. Institutions must maintain copies of students’ high school graduation diplomas, general equivalency diplomas, official high school transcripts, or equivalent documentation or procedures, to qualify for this exception. Institutions must utilize a test approved by the United States Department of Education to determine if a student has the ability to benefit from a program of instruction, or obtain written approval from the Commission for a different basic skills test. If the test is not approved by the United States Department of Education and is submitted to the Commission for approval, the submission must include documentation that the test is nationally normed and validated and assesses a student’s mastery of basic skills. The test must be administered by an independent tester. Students deemed to lack the required minimal level of basic skills as measured by an approved examination shall, if admitted, be provided with instruction specifically designed to correct the deficiencies. Upon completion of the instruction, these students shall be retested by using an alternative form of the same examination that was used for initial testing, or another approved examination. Work intended to bring students’ basic skills up to a postsecondary level of proficiency shall not be counted toward the completion of a course or program.

4. Acceptable admission scores must be in accordance with the standards of the individual examination as it relates to the student program. These minimum test scores must be published in the current school catalog.

(o) The following instructional program standards apply to academic associate degrees:

1. Institutions must utilize a test approved by the United States Department of Education to determine if a student has the ability to benefit from a program of instruction, or obtain written approval from the Commission for a different basic skills test. If the test is not approved by the United States Department of Education and is submitted to the Commission for approval, the submission must include documentation that the test is nationally normed and validated and assesses a student’s mastery of basic skills. The test must be administered by an independent tester. Students deemed to lack the required minimal level of basic skills as measured by an approved examination shall, if admitted, be provided with instruction specifically designed to correct the deficiencies. Upon completion of the instruction, these students shall be retested by using an alternative form of the same examination that was used for initial testing, or another approved examination. Work intended to bring students’ basic skills up to a postsecondary level of proficiency shall not be counted toward the completion of a course or program.

8. An institution must provide the applicant with a copy of the completed enrollment agreement, signed by both parties.

9. Ethical practices shall be followed in all aspects of the recruiting process. An institution shall ensure that its personnel do not discredit other institutions by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or similar negative characteristics; making other false representations; disparaging the character, nature, quality, value or scope of their program of instruction or services; or demeaning their students. An institution shall also ensure that its personnel do not knowingly influence any student to leave another institution or encourage a student to change plans after signing an enrollment application and paying a registration fee to another institution.

(c) Admissions Acceptance Policies. The purpose of this section is to ensure that institutions admit only those students who are capable of successfully completing the training offered. Admission decisions shall be based on fair, effective, and consistently applied criteria that enable the institution to make an informed judgment as to an applicant’s ability to achieve the program’s objectives.

(a) Institutions offering nontraditional programs of study shall document that the instructional methods used will lead to the achievement of stated learning objectives, and that all nontraditional instruction shall be consistent with the abilities, educational skills, experience, and needs of the students enrolled in the programs.

(b) Institutions offering nontraditional programs of study that employ innovative delivery systems or innovative methods, or that carry on research and teaching in emerging fields of study, shall demonstrate that they will achieve the intent of each of the standards contained in Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., for the appropriate level of licensure and for annual reviews.

(c) In addition to providing to the Commission the documentation required for each standard contained in Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., showing how the intent of each standard will be met in the nontraditional program or delivery system, the institution shall also furnish for each course to be offered:

1. An inventory of equipment and materials to be provided to each student;
2. A detailed description of how each program will be conducted, including detailed course outlines or syllabi, procedures for distribution of materials, examination and evaluation of student work, timely response to students’ questions and comments, record keeping, appropriate student services, and technical support.
3. Institutions holding accreditation as defined in Section 1005.02(1), Florida Statutes, by an accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education to deliver nontraditional education, may substitute proof of such accreditation, in good standing, for the above requirements.

(2) Awarding of credit.

(a) Units or credits applied toward the award of a credential in nontraditional programs may be derived from a combination of any or all of the following:

1. Units or credits earned at and transferred from other postsecondary institutions, when congruent and applicable to the receiving institution’s program and when validated and confirmed by the receiving institution.
2. Successful completion of challenge examinations or standardized tests demonstrating learning at the credential level in specific subject matter areas.
3. Prior learning, as validated, evaluated, and confirmed by qualified instructors at the receiving institution.

(b) Graduation requirements for nontraditional degree programs shall include provisions for general education appropriate to the type of degree, as specified in Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C. The Doctor of Philosophy degree, commonly abbreviated Ph.D., shall not be offered or awarded through distance or nontraditional learning without appropriate accreditation by an accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

(c) At least 25 percent of the units required in a nontraditional degree program shall be given by the institution awarding the degree, and shall not be derived from any combination of transfer, examination, or experiential learning; however, credits earned by active U.S. military members are excluded from this requirement due to the transient nature of the service. Credit awarded for prior experiential learning shall follow the requirements of subsection (5) of this rule, and shall not exceed 25 percent of the units required for completion of the program.
(3) Direct contact instruction. Institutions licensed to operate in Florida and wishing to offer programs or courses through directed individual and group study using direct contact instruction shall describe the teaching-learning methodology to be used, the appropriate level of licensure or for subsequent annual reviews.

(4) Indirect contact instruction.
(a) Institutions licensed to operate in Florida and wishing to offer programs or courses through individual and group study mediated and assisted by telecommunications, computer augmented educational services, facsimile transmission, the postal service, or another technological method, shall describe the teaching-learning methodology to be used, and shall submit illustrative course outlines, competencies and all other documentation as required in Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., for the appropriate level of licensure or for subsequent annual reviews.
(b) In addition to the other requirements of Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., an institution offering instruction by correspondence shall employ a sufficient number of qualified instructors to assure that:

2. Each student lesson, project, examination, or paper is evaluated by qualified instructors, and the instructor’s response to or evaluation of each is sent to the student within a reasonable time as disclosed to the student.
(c) For programs that require the development of a manual or technical skill, such as the use of equipment or tools, the institution must ensure that the student has the opportunity to gain practical hands-on experience appropriate to master the skill.
This experience, wherever gained, shall be documented in the student’s file and shall be done under proper supervision and with meaningful evaluation of the competency outcomes. The technical aspects must be designed by qualified technicians.
(5) Credit for prior learning. An institution may grant credit to a student for prior experiential learning only if all of the following apply:
(a) The prior learning is equivalent to the level of learning in which the student is enrolling.
(b) The prior learning is demonstrated to provide a balance between theory and practice, for academic programs; or a verifiable mastery of appropriate skills, for vocational courses or programs. For courses or programs requiring a combination of theory and skills, the prior learning is demonstrated to provide the appropriate combination.
(c) The credit awarded for the prior learning directly relates to the student’s course or program and is applied in satisfaction of some of the credential requirements.
(d) College and university level learning for which credit is sought shall be documented by the student in writing, and validated, confirmed, and evaluated by faculty qualified in that specific subject area, who shall ascertain to what college or university level learning the student’s prior learning is equivalent, and how many credits toward a degree may be granted for that prior learning. The faculty evaluating the prior learning shall prepare a written report indicating all of the following, which report shall be retained by the college or university for review by visiting Commission representatives upon request:
1. The documents in the student’s file on which the faculty relied in determining and confirming the nature of the student’s prior learning;
2. The basis for determining that the prior learning is equivalent to college or university level learning, and demonstrates a balance between theory and practice; and
3. The basis for determining to what college or university level the prior learning is equivalent, and the proper number of credits to be awarded toward the degree, based upon that prior learning.
(e) No more than 25 percent of the units required and validated through the institution’s internal review process for a degree shall be awarded for prior experiential learning.
(6) Credits earned in a compressed time period. Institutions licensed in Florida and wishing to offer courses or programs in a compressed time period shall show evidence to the Commission that the intent of all standards for licensure, as set forth in Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., shall be met.
(7) Instructors. Institutions licensed to operate in Florida and wishing to offer nontraditional programs or courses shall employ or contract with appropriately qualified instructors sufficient in number to provide the instruction, student interaction, and learning outcomes evaluation necessary for the institution to document achievement of its stated purpose, and for students to achieve the specific learning objectives and competencies required for each program so offered. It shall be the responsibility of the licensed institution to validate each instructor’s competence to use the interactive electronic media program or distance learning program effectively, and to provide training in the use of the delivery system if needed.
(8) Library and other learning resources.
(a) Institutions licensed to operate in Florida and wishing to offer nontraditional programs or courses shall document to the Commission how they provide, ensure, and maintain access for all students to the information resources and services appropriate to support each program or course.
(b) Institutions shall document how they provide, ensure, and maintain security of examinations and papers.
(c) Institutions shall collect and use student evaluations of content, delivery, and services.
(9) Laboratory experiences. In the case of courses in the experimental or clinical sciences, or other courses requiring hands-on experience, each licensed institution wishing to offer nontraditional programs shall document to the Commission that arrangements have been made to ensure that the requisite laboratory, field, or equivalent experience is available to and used consistently by every enrolled student. Such experience shall be documented in the student’s file, and shall occur under appropriate supervision and meaningful evaluation of the competency outcomes.

(10) Catalog. Each institution licensed in Florida and wishing to offer nontraditional programs or courses shall comply with all requirements of Rules 6E-1.0032 and 6E-2.004, F.A.C., and in addition shall publish information in the catalog, whether printed or electronic, pertaining to each of the following:

(a) The institution’s policies and procedures for the award of credit for prior learning, including confirmation and validation, assessment policies and procedures, provisions for appeal of decisions, limitations on the number of credits that may be awarded in this manner, and all fees that a student may be required to pay.

(b) The institution’s policies regarding the acceptance of credits earned by the student through successful completion of challenge examinations or standardized tests, acceptable scores for each, whether and how many times examinations may be repeated to achieve an acceptable score, limitations on the number of credits that may be awarded in this manner, and all fees that a student may be required to pay.

(c) If the institution offers instruction by correspondence, schedules for normal progress or completion of the course or program, and all fees that a student may be required to pay.

6E-2.0042 Medical Clinical Clerkship Programs.

(1) Purpose. The purpose of this rule is to establish criteria for licensure by the Commission of qualified, accredited foreign medical schools to provide clinical clerkship training in Florida hospitals or approved facilities as defined in subsection (2) of this rule. Clinical clerkships are a required part of the foreign medical schools’ education programs, which are not wholly located in Florida. This rule also establishes criteria for students of qualified, accredited foreign medical institutions who demonstrate the capacity to profit from such clinical instruction; to benefit the medical students by establishing standards which will promote the acquisition of a minimum satisfactory medical education; to protect the students from deceptive, fraudulent or substandard education; and to protect the integrity of medical degrees held by Florida citizens. Terms used in this rule are defined in Rule 6E-1.003, F.A.C.

(2) Applications for licensure of clinical clerkship programs. In addition to submitting all the forms and documents, accurately, fully and satisfactorily completed as required for each step of licensure in accordance with these rules, for the applicant medical school to be found qualified for licensure it must:

(a) Document to the Commission that it has been determined by the United States Department of Education that the medical accreditation standards used by its chartering nation to evaluate and approve the applicant school were comparable to the standards used to evaluate programs leading to the Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) or Doctor of Osteopathy (D.O.) degree in the United States.

(b) Document that the applicant medical school has on staff a board-certified clinical chairperson for each core clerkship subject area.

(c) Document that the principal academic officer of the clinical clerkship program has been designated by the chief academic officer of the parent medical school and possesses academic and experiential qualifications appropriate to the assignment.

(d) Ensure that the application contains sufficiently detailed information showing that the educational program, faculty planning, teaching, budgeting and allocation of other educational resources, faculty appointments and student assignments are coordinated and integrated with the overall program of the parent medical school.
(e) Document that the faculty of the clinical clerkship program and of the parent medical school have joint responsibility for developing the curriculum for each clerkship. Evidence of such action may take the form of minutes of faculty meetings in which such involvement took place. Copies shall be filed with the Commission of officially adopted policies of the parent medical school, outlining procedures for such faculty involvement and the means of ensuring that such procedures are implemented, or similar documentation acceptable to the Commission. The parent medical school shall also describe how it will ensure that the curriculum developed for each clerkship will actually be adhered to at each teaching hospital or approved facility.

(f) Provide, for each clerkship at each teaching hospital or approved facility, a summary of the instructional program for the clerkship, which shall include the title of the clerkship, the sponsoring teaching hospital or approved facility, a description of the course objectives, resumes of faculty participants, a statement of the extent of each faculty member's duties in the clerkship, the meeting time, the meeting place, the length of the clerkship, the maximum number of students who will be enrolled in that clerkship at a given time, and the proportion of the student time which shall be spent in that clerkship (e.g., 100% of 4 weeks, 50% of 8 weeks).

(g) Provide a copy of the faculty handbook or other medium of communication with the faculty, which shall contain procedures and requirements for involvement of faculty in curriculum development, in both basic sciences and clinical clerkship programs, and the means for ensuring that such procedures are implemented.

(h) Document that provisions have been made for continual reassessment and evaluation of the educational program, and for improvement of instruction. The application for licensure shall include a copy of policies adopted by the parent medical school regarding reassessment of clinical clerkship programs and improvement of instruction, and the means of ensuring that such policies are implemented.

(i) Document that the parent medical school provides an appropriate sequence of clinical rotations for students to attain those competencies that the clinical clerkship program is designed to impart. Qualified faculty shall evaluate the competencies of students in each clinical discipline.

(j) The application for licensure shall describe the procedures by which the parent medical school shall ensure that only students who meet the requirements of the following standard participate in clinical clerkship training in Florida and document that all students participating in core clinical clerkship programs have:

1. Completed at least three (3) years of undergraduate education at a legitimate, recognized college or university consistent with a generally acceptable premedical curriculum.

2. Completed a basic science program totaling at least four (4) semesters in length. This program shall include, but is not necessarily limited to, rigorous instruction in the major disciplines of the biological sciences (i.e., anatomy, biochemistry, pharmacology, physiology, pathology, and microbiology), the behavioral sciences, and an introduction to clinical diagnosis. Adequate laboratory facilities for this instruction must be provided.

3. Obtained a passing score on Step I of the United States Medical Licensing Examination within 12 weeks of commencing their third year of medical education.

(k) Fully disclose all payments made by the parent medical school to the teaching hospital or approved facility, or to any officer or employee thereof, attributable to participation in clinical clerkship programs by students of the parent medical school, either on a flat fee basis or on the basis of X dollars per student per term. In no event may any payment be made contingent on successful completion of a rotation by students, and neither shall any such contingency payment be a part of the ongoing budget of the teaching hospital or approved facility. This shall be demonstrated by the parent medical school's submitting evidence of the percentage of the total budget made up by these payments.

(l) Document that a core of teaching faculty of the parent medical school shall be appointed to the clinical clerkship program at each teaching hospital or approved facility, with the requisite time and appropriate skills required to supervise the students assigned. The core-teaching faculties that are appointed to the basic science program of the parent medical school shall be sufficient in number and background. Regardless of geographic assignment, all faculty shall meet appropriate institutional standards for appointment, promotion, privileges and benefits. The relationship of the clinical program faculty to the parent medical school shall be clearly defined. Faculty in clinical clerkship programs in Florida shall possess requisite qualifications, including formal academic training and background experience to instruct and to supervise clinical experiences, and shall be licensed in the State of Florida to practice medicine. The parent medical school shall demonstrate adequate instruction by documenting to the Commission the appropriate number and adequacy of qualified faculty assigned to the teaching hospital or approved facility. Supervision provided by the parent medical school shall be by staff members who devote the requisite time necessary to careful supervision of the clinical students.

(m) Demonstrate that the hospital provides access to adequate library facilities and resources available to the students to support the medical clerkship.

(n) Affirm that the medical school will conduct clinical clerkships only in either a teaching hospital as defined in this rule, or in an approved facility, which is defined as a residential developmental services institution licensed by the State of Florida, Agency for Health Care Administration, pursuant to Chapter 393, Florida Statutes.

(o) Formal agreements shall be executed between the parent medical school and the teaching hospital or approved facility in which the students are to be engaged in clinical clerkships and shall be submitted to the Commission. The formal agreement between the parent medical school and the teaching hospital or approved facility shall vest responsibility and authority for the conduct and evaluation of the educational program in the parent medical school.
(3) An application for initial licensure of a clinical clerkship program shall be reviewed by an expert medical school review committee appointed by the chair of the Commission. The committee members shall be selected from nominees from international medical schools that have full licensure in Florida who have expertise in governance of medical education and the standards stated above. The review committee shall prepare a report that addresses whether or not the applicant for licensure has met the standards contained in these rules. The committee report shall be advisory to the Commission, and shall supplement the regular staff review.

(4) The Commission shall require an independent review or audit of any applicant medical school’s submission from the school’s original records when necessary to verify any or all information provided. Such review or audit shall be at the expense of the applicant school.

(5) Each licensed foreign medical school shall submit an annual report to the Commission, updating any information provided in its last submission. This report shall include a list of the names of students who have studied in Florida, the Florida clinical programs in which they studied, the dates of attendance, and the subject or subjects studied. Any substantive change, as defined in subsection 6E-1.003(43), F.A.C., shall result in the medical school receiving a Provisional License pursuant to the provisions of Section 1005.31(5), Florida Statutes, and subsection 6E-2.002(1), F.A.C.

(6) Students of a licensed foreign medical school, when such license permits a clinical clerkship rotation in Florida, may participate in other clerkships in Florida teaching hospitals if the school documents the following conditions to the Commission:

(a) The teaching hospital provides residency programs approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) or the American Osteopathic Association (AOA).
(b) The licensed foreign medical school submits to the Commission a written affiliation agreement between the medical school and the teaching hospital specifying responsibility for planning, managing and supervising the clerkship in each discipline.
(c) The teaching hospital will provide the same facilities, learning opportunities, and supervision as would be provided to U. S. medical schools’ students taking clinical training programs in the hospital.
(d) The licensed medical school’s appointed faculty will be responsible to provide the same quality in the educational program to the licensed medical school’s students as is provided to students of an accredited United States medical school.

(7) Application for individual approval of an occasional clerkship elective. An individual medical student may obtain approval for an occasional elective clerkship as defined in subsection 6E-1.003(36), F.A.C., provided the student demonstrates compliance with paragraphs (2)(c), (f), (j), (k), and (m) of this rule. In addition to the requirements set forth in paragraph (2)(j), the student shall submit a transcript directly from his or her medical school indicating completion of all core rotations, and documentation that the student has obtained a passing score on Step 2 of the United States Medical Licensing Examination. The teaching hospital and the medical school shall sign a temporary written affiliation agreement detailing the responsibilities of both parties for the clinical teaching program. Such agreement shall include:

(a) The number of lecture hours, course content and reading assignments;
(b) The patient census for the subject being taught and number of rounds per week;

(d) Certification that adequate malpractice insurance is being provided to cover the student during the elective rotation; and
(e) The method of testing, scoring or evaluation of the student. Upon completion of the occasional clinical teaching clerkship, the hospital, the medical school and the student shall report their evaluations of the teaching program, which shall be kept on file at the foreign medical school and available for inspection by Commission representatives, and to other students, if anonymity can be assured.

(8) Denial, probation, or revocation of licensure of a medical clinical clerkship program or individual approval of an occasional clerkship elective shall follow the procedural provisions of Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C.

(9) Penalties. See Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C., for penalties and due process procedures. In the event any violation of this rule poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of Florida patients, emergency action shall be taken by the Commission to suspend the privileges permitted under the medical school’s license until due process has been followed.

Specific Authority 1005.22(1)(e)1., 1005.31(2), (3), (11) FS. Law Implemented 1005.31(11) FS. History–New 12-6-84, Formerly 6E-2.042, Amended 11-27-88, 11-29-89, 10-19-93, 12-11-96, 1-7-03, 10-20-03.

6E-2.0061 Actions Against A Licensee; Penalties.

(1) Denial. Any Provisional License, Annual License, License by Means of Accreditation, agent’s license, approval to use the terms “college” or “university,” approval of modifications, approval of occasional elective clinical clerkships, or other authorization under the Commission’s jurisdiction shall be denied upon a determination by the Commission that the applicant does not meet the requirements of Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, or the applicable standards in Chapters 6E-1 and 6E-2, F.A.C., or for specific grounds as stated in Sections 1005.32(7), 1005.34(3), and 1005.38, Florida Statutes.

(2) Probation.
(a) A Provisional License, Annual License, or License by Means of Accreditation, agent’s license, or other authorization under the Commission's jurisdiction shall be placed on probation when the Commission finds an infraction of any of the grounds enumerated in subsection (4) of this rule, which in the Commission’s judgment threatens the efficient operation of the institution or the quality of the educational programs or services offered, damages the reputation of another institution, or deceives the public.

(b) The Commission shall impose conditions designed to correct the infractions identified or to overcome the effects of such infractions, and shall require submission of periodic progress reports on the steps being taken to comply with the conditions and to correct the situation. Unannounced staff visits shall be made to the institution as necessary to monitor its activities. An institution or agent placed on probation shall provide satisfactory documentation to the Commission that remedial action has been taken to correct the situation or activities leading to probation. When it is documented to the Commission that the situation or activities have been corrected, and policies have been adopted by the institution to prevent the recurrence of the infractions, the Commission shall remove the probation. If competent evidence is not presented showing that the situation or activities leading to probation have been corrected within the period of time specified by the Commission, or if similar infractions recur, procedures shall be initiated to revoke the license or other authorization.

(c) If the conditions set by the Commission in conjunction with the probation require oversight and monitoring by the Commission or its staff, the Commission shall impose an administrative fine in an amount reflective of the administrative time required for the specific case, up to $5,000, as provided in Section 1005.38(1), Florida Statutes.

(3) Revocation. Any Provisional License, Annual License, or License by Means of Accreditation, agent’s license, or other authorization under the Commission's jurisdiction shall be revoked when the Commission finds:

(a) An infraction of any of the grounds enumerated in subsection (4) of this rule, which in the Commission's judgment is so serious as to threaten the continued operation of the institution, or the health, safety and welfare of its students or staff or of the general public; or

(b) That the institution or agent continues to engage in activities in noncompliance with applicable laws after directed by the Commission to cease and desist; or

(c) That the institution or agent has failed to correct, within the allotted period, the situation or activities for which probation has been imposed.

If a license is revoked, the college or agent affected shall cease operations in Florida. Any new application for licensure shall follow the procedures and requirements of the applicable statute and rules.

(4) Grounds for Imposing Disciplinary Actions.

(a) Attempting to obtain action from the Commission by fraudulent misrepresentation, bribery, or through an error of the Commission.

(b) Action against a license or operation imposed under the authority of another state, territory, or country.

(f) Failure to maintain the licensure standards as set forth in Sections 1005.31 and 1005.32, Florida Statutes, and applicable rules.

(g) Failure to comply with fair consumer practices as set forth in Sections 1005.04 and 1005.34, Florida Statutes, and applicable rules.

(h) Previously operating an institution in a manner contrary to the health, education, or welfare of the public, as described in Section 1005.38(4), Florida Statutes.

(i) Failure of the licensee to comply with any conditions or limitations placed by the Commission upon its licensure or operation.

(5) Investigations. Investigations on behalf of the Commission shall be carried out as provided in Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes.

(6) Probable cause. Determinations of probable cause shall be made as provided in Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes. Probable cause panels shall be appointed to consider suspected violations of law and to make findings, which shall be reported to the full Commission. If the probable cause panel makes a determination of probable cause, the Commission shall issue an administrative complaint or notice of denial of licensure, and shall issue a cease and desist order as provided in Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes, if necessary to stop the violations. Probable cause panels shall be appointed and shall serve as follows:

(a) The chair of the Commission shall appoint three people to a probable cause panel, and shall designate its chair. At least one panel member shall be a current member of the Commission. Other members may be current Commission members or previous members of the Commission for Independent Education, State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities, or State Board of Nonpublic Career Education. Each probable cause panel shall serve on an ad hoc basis to review specific cases referred to it by the Commission.

(b) Current commission members who serve on a probable cause panel cannot vote for final agency action on institutions whose current cases they have reviewed while serving on the panel.

(c) If a Commission member has reviewed a case as a member of the probable cause panel, that member, if available, shall be on the panel for reconsideration of that case if reconsideration is necessary.
(7) Cease and desist orders. Cease and desist orders shall be issued by the Commission upon finding probable cause, and shall comply with Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes, and other applicable laws.

(8) Injunctions. The Commission shall seek injunctive relief and other applicable civil penalties as provided by Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes, and other applicable laws, after conducting an investigation and confirming that a violation of Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, has occurred which the Commission deems is serious enough that other available remedies are not sufficient to stop the potential damage to the public.

(9) Due process procedures. The Commission shall notify the institution or agent by certified mail of any disciplinary action, giving the grounds for the action and an explanation of the institution's or agent's right to a hearing. The institution or agent shall have twenty (20) days to respond, by certified mail, indicating any request for a formal or informal hearing or concurring with the Commission's action.

(a) Failure on the part of the institution or agent to respond by certified mail within twenty (20) days shall constitute default. At its next regular or special meeting, the Commission shall then receive evidence in the case and enter its Final Order.

(b) The institution or agent may request an informal hearing by the Commission if no material facts are disputed, or if the institution or agent and the Commission agree to hold an informal hearing in lieu of a formal hearing. Procedures for informal hearings shall be in accordance with Section 120.57(2), Florida Statutes. After hearing the presentations of the representatives of the Commission and of the institution or agent, the Commission shall enter its Final Order.

(c) The institution or agent may request a formal hearing by an administrative judge of the Division of Administrative Hearings if material facts are in dispute. Procedures for formal hearings shall be in accordance with Section 120.57(1), Florida Statutes. After receiving a Recommended Order from the hearing officer, the Commission shall enter its Final Order.

(d) An affected party who has been served with a cease and desist order by the Commission may request a formal or informal review of the order as set forth in this subsection above, and may request the Commission or the Division of Administrative Hearings to modify or abate the cease and desist order. If the affected party is aggrieved by the decision produced by this review, the party may seek interlocutory judicial review by the appropriate district court of appeal, as provided in Section 1005.38(7), Florida Statutes.

6E-2.008 Approval of Modifications.

(1) No licensed institution shall add new degrees, programs or majors to its offerings or alter any licensed program by more than 20 percent since its last review, change the title of a program or the credential awarded, or discontinue a program, while under a Provisional License. Modifications contemplated by institutions holding an Annual License shall receive approval from the Commission before implementation. Such approval is contingent upon:

(a) A finding by the Commission that the licensee meets the standards contained in Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., and if applicable, Rule 6E-2.0041 or 6E-2.0042, F.A.C., for each proposed new degree, program, or major;

(b) Documentation that the modifications are congruent with the guidelines of state or national professional licensing boards;

(c) The licensee's filing the required documentation; and

(d) The licensee's paying the fee required by rule.

(2) In the event that it is deemed necessary by the Commission, a representative of the Commission or a visiting committee shall visit the institution prior to consideration of the modification and shall provide a written report to the Commission of its findings, to be used as one of the bases upon which the Commission will make a determination regarding modification.

(3) Any other significant change in the information provided in the initial application for, or last review of, licensure, or in subsequent modifications approved by the Commission, including but not limited to change in corporate charter, purpose, administrative structure, finance, or physical facilities, shall be filed with the Commission at least 30 days prior to implementation.

(4) Additional locations, including auxiliary classroom space, shall not be added while under a Provisional License. Institutions holding an Annual License shall receive prior approval of additional locations by the Commission before implementation. For colleges and universities, if the new additional location is more than 10 miles distant from the main Florida headquarters, the college or university shall submit information to the Commission showing that the requirements of Rule 6E-2.004, F.A.C., are met for the additional location. For nondegree schools, each location except an auxiliary classroom space shall be licensed separately. Licensed institutions shall provide to the Commission prior notification of auxiliary classroom space, as defined in Rule 6E-1.003(5), F.A.C. Such notification shall include the address and description of the facilities. The description shall include information regarding student capacity, the purpose of the facility, the impact on existing students, and the scope of the operation.

(5) The Commission shall be notified in writing of minor modifications of programs, fees, or tuition. The Commission shall not be required to review or approve such modifications.

(6) Institutions Licensed by Means of Accreditation shall file a copy of all correspondence with accrediting agencies regarding modifications.
6E-2.0081 Change of Ownership or Control.

(1) Pursuant to Section 1005.31(8), Florida Statutes, a licensed institution shall notify the Commission prior to a change of ownership or control. The notification shall be made in writing no less than 30 days prior to the change. The Commission shall review each case and, if the standards for licensure are met, take affirmative action to issue a new license after receipt and evaluation of the appropriate documentation and payment of the required fee. The Commission shall make the final determination as to whether a change of ownership or control has occurred.

(2) Change of ownership means a transfer, assignment, or conveyance of issued or outstanding stock or other instrument of ownership which results in a change in control of the institution.

(a) For a privately held corporation, a change of ownership occurs:
   1. When a majority of stock or other instrument of ownership is conveyed; or
   2. When an amount of stock or other instrument of ownership sufficient to increase an individual’s holdings to 50 percent or above is conveyed; or
   3. When the majority of the institution’s governing board changes within a calendar year.

(b) For a publicly held corporation, a change of ownership occurs:
   1. When there is a change of 50 percent or more of the voting members of the board of directors in any 12-month period; or
   2. When there is a change in the number of voting members of the board of directors in any 12-month period that will allow a group of directors to exercise control who could not exercise control before the change; or
   3. When there is an acquisition of outstanding voting shares by any entity or group whereby that entity or group owns 50 percent or more of the total outstanding voting shares; or
   4. When any other transaction occurs that is deemed by an appropriate governmental agency to constitute a change of control, including but not limited to a transaction that requires the corporation to file a notice of change of ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the United States.

(c) For a not-for-profit corporation, a change of ownership occurs:
   1. When there is a change of 50 percent or more of the voting members of the controlling board in any 12-month period; or
   2. When there is a change in the number of voting members of the controlling board in any 12-month period that will allow a group of members to exercise control who could not exercise control before the change.

(d) For a limited liability company, a change of ownership occurs:
   1. When the transfer of 50 percent or more of the direct or beneficial ownership interest is conveyed from one member or members to another member or members; or
   2. When there is a transfer of direct or beneficial ownership interest that results in the holding of 50 percent or more of the total direct or beneficial ownership interest by any member other than any previous member who owned 50 percent or more of the total direct or beneficial ownership interest; or
   3. When there is a transfer of direct or beneficial ownership interest whereby a member’s direct or beneficial ownership interest decreases from more than 50 percent to less than 50 percent; or
   4. When there is any other transaction whereby a member or group of members who previously could not exercise control of the company as described in this rule now can exercise control.

(e) For purposes of determining ownership, married couples shall be considered a single entity, and closely related family groups shall be considered a single entity when all of the present and future relevant stockholders actively participate in the management of the corporation. No change of ownership occurs when stock is transferred to a close family member by operation of law or inheritance upon the death of one of the stockholders.

(3) A change in control means any change in the organization of an institution which affects the authority to establish or modify institutional policies, standards, and procedures. A change in control occurs when a person acquires or loses control of an institution or of the parent corporation that owns the institution, whether by means of the sale of the institution, sale of the assets, transfer of the controlling interest of stock, conversion of the institution from nonprofit to for-profit or vice versa, or similar transaction. A change in control does not occur upon the retirement or death of the owner of an institution, if ownership and control passes to a member of the owner’s family or to a person with a pre-existing ownership interest in the institution.

(4) With the written notification provided to the Commission as required in subsection (1) of this rule, the institution shall provide:
   (a) A written statement of the anticipated effects of such change upon the name, purpose, programs, personnel, administrative organization, finances, and other standards for licensure, and upon its accredited status, if accredited.
   (b) A copy of the institution’s last application for licensure, or licensure review, annotated to disclose all changes to the materials previously submitted.
   (c) The new owners, in the case of a change of ownership, shall provide a written sworn statement attesting to:
      1. The accuracy and completeness of the materials presented to the Commission;
      2. A guarantee that the new ownership will comply with the requirements of Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, and these rules;
3. Confirmation that the new owner(s), chief administrative officers, directors, or registered agents are not ineligible to hold such positions in a licensed institution, pursuant to Section 1005.38(2), (3) and (4), Florida Statutes.

(d) Information and fee required for the criminal justice information investigation authorized by Section 1005.38(4), Florida Statutes.

(5) If a change of ownership or control occurs in the period between regularly scheduled Commission meetings, the materials submitted are complete and in compliance with Commission standards, and it appears to be in the best interest of the students, interim executive approval of the change and interim Provisional Licensure shall be granted by the Executive Director and reported to the Commission at its next meeting for further action.

(6) The currently licensed institution shall be responsible for arranging and conducting a change in ownership or control in a manner and at a time so that there is no adverse impact on the opportunity of currently enrolled students to complete their training and receive student services. In addition, the institution shall remain responsible for properly completing the training of the enrolled students and for providing the student services, and shall be subject to disciplinary action for any violations of statutes and rules which may occur in that regard during the transition. A change of ownership or control of a institution, or the issuance of a new license, shall not in any manner release the institution from its legal obligations to enrolled students to provide education and services required under the student's enrollment agreement, Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, or the rules of the Commission. The new licensee shall be under a continuing obligation to fulfill the terms of all contracts with the enrolled students.

6E-2.010 Agents.

The following provisions shall apply to persons meeting the statutory definition of “agent” found in Section 1005.02(2), Florida Statutes.

(1) No agent shall recruit for an institution required to be licensed under Section 1005.31(1), Florida Statutes, unless the institution is so licensed.

(2) It shall be the responsibility of each institution to require a specific training program for its admissions director, who shall supervise and train all agents and admissions staff employed by the institution. The agent training program shall be submitted to the Commission for review, initially and upon changing the program. Institutions that choose to employ a training provider for their training program may, if the program provided by the contractor has been approved by the commission, provide the program without additional approval. Training of agents shall include information to familiarize agents with the Florida Statutes and applicable rules regarding agents, and with the institution’s programs, services, costs, terms of payment, financial aid available for qualified students, refund policy, transferability of credits to other institutions, reasonable employment projections and accurate placement data, status of the institution regarding licensure and accreditation, facts regarding the eligibility of graduates to sit for licensure examinations or fulfill other requirements to practice in Florida the career or profession for which the prospective student wishes to be trained, and other relevant facts. The training program shall reflect the fair consumer practices outlined in Sections 1005.04 and 1005.34, Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-1.0032, F.A.C. The training program shall be updated as necessary to reflect changes in applicable laws, rules, and institutional policies; and all agents and admissions staff shall be provided with updated training as necessary.

(3) Each agent applying for initial licensure with an institution shall file with the Commission the required documentation and the appropriate application fee, as well as a fee for the cost of an investigation of criminal justice information as provided in Section 1005.22(1)(h), Florida Statutes, and defined in Section 943.045(3), Florida Statutes. Agents applying for renewal of their existing license with an institution shall submit, with the application for renewal, updated information regarding training taken during the preceding year, contact information, required fees, and a certification signed by the director or chief administrative officer of the institution stating that the information provided is true and correct.

(4) Persons seeking licensure as recruiting agents for institutions shall submit the following materials in conjunction with the application fee:

(a) Confirmation by the chief executive officer or president of the institution that the individual has been appointed as a recruiting agent for the institution;

(b) Documentation that the institution is authorized to operate by the appropriate state or other agency of jurisdiction where the main campus, corporate headquarters, and all other operations of the institution are located, if out of state;

(c) A statement of the institution’s status regarding accreditation;

(d) A copy of the institution’s current catalog; and
(e) An affirmation signed by the chief executive officer or president of the institution, stating that the agent has received all required training and that the institution shall be responsible for the correct and accurate representation of the institution by the agent in Florida; and that all printed materials, advertisements, and verbal information disseminated in Florida by the agent regarding the institution shall conform to the applicable requirements of Florida law and rules, including: Chapter 501, Florida Statutes; Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes; and Chapters 6E-1 through 6E-4, F.A.C.

(5) Upon receipt of the required materials and results of the criminal justice information investigation required for new applicants by Section 1005.22(1)(h), Florida Statutes, showing that the applicant has not been found in violation of laws or rules governing recruiting practices or other relevant matters, the staff of the Commission shall review the materials and make a recommendation to the Executive Director regarding licensure of the applicant. The staff shall request additional information regarding the applicant or the institution to be represented, if the materials submitted do not contain the information necessary to determine eligibility. If the Executive Director finds that the applicant and the institution to be represented meet the standards set forth in this rule and in Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes, the agent’s license shall be issued or extended for one year. A report of agents issued licenses or extensions shall be provided to the Commission on a quarterly basis. If the criminal background investigation reveals relevant convictions or pleas, the application will be denied.

(6) The criteria for nontransferable licensure of a recruiting agent are:

(a) Evidence of appointment by the institution to be a recruiting agent for the institution;

(b) Evidence that the institution to be represented is authorized to operate by the appropriate state or other agency of jurisdiction where the main campus, corporate headquarters, and all other operations of the institution are located, if out of state;

(c) Evidence that the agent has satisfactorily completed an approved training program and has demonstrated competent knowledge and mastery of the content;

(d) Affirmation that the agent has not had an agent’s license or similar authorization revoked in Florida or in another state or other jurisdiction, and has not been found in violation of laws or rules governing recruiting practices; and

(e) Affirmation that the agent will represent the institution correctly and accurately and will comply with all applicable laws and rules.

(7) Each agent’s license shall be effective for a period of one year from the date of issuance, and is not transferable to another agent or to another institution to be represented. If an individual recruits students for more than one institution, that individual must receive a separate agent’s license and receive and document separate agent’s training for each institution represented.

(8) Each initial agent’s license shall be issued for a maximum period of one year from the date of issuance. After receiving initial licensure, an agent shall apply annually for licensure by submitting the documentation and fee set forth in this rule.

(9) Each institution employing recruiting agents shall notify the Commission in writing within ten days after the resignation or dismissal of an agent. Agents shall be required to return their agent’s license within 10 days of resignation or dismissal.

(10) An agent’s license is subject to denial, probation, or revocation for cause as set forth in Section 1005.38, Florida Statutes, and Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C. Grounds shall include violation of applicable Florida law; misrepresentation of the institution, its programs, or other pertinent facts; obtaining an agent’s license by fraudulent misrepresentation, bribery, or through an error of the Commission; failure to follow fair consumer practices; failure to comply with the provisions of Chapter 1005, Florida Statutes; prior revocation or disciplinary action against the agent for violation of these or similar standards; revocation of the represented institution’s license in Florida or of its authorization to operate in the state or other jurisdiction where the main campus, corporate headquarters, and all other operations of the institution are located; or, in the case of an out-of-state institution not licensed by the Commission, any activity by or on behalf of the institution which would be grounds for denial or revocation of its licensure under the provisions of Rule 6E-2.0061, F.A.C., if it were subject to licensure in Florida. A person whose agent’s application has been denied or revoked shall not solicit students, nor shall a person solicit students while his or her agent’s license is under probation.

(11) Revocation of an agent’s license shall lead to an investigation of the licensed institution to determine whether the institution’s license should be placed on probation or revoked for failing to train or supervise its agents adequately, or for allowing or encouraging its agents to violate the provisions of Florida Statutes and rules, if the activities leading to the disciplinary action appear to be related to such circumstances.

(12) All monies collected by an agent from or on behalf of students recruited shall be turned over to the institution represented. All checks received shall be made payable to the institution represented, and receipts for cash shall be given to the student in the name of the institution.

(13) All licensed agents representing an institution shall be called agent, admissions representative, sales representative, or field representative. The terms counselor or advisor, or modifications thereof, shall not be used by agents.

(14) Agents shall not have the authority to accept an applicant for admission on behalf of the institution. If an applicant is determined by the institution not to be eligible for admission, or not to possess the ability to complete the program successfully, all monies paid shall be refunded in accordance with the institution’s refund policy.

(15) An agent shall not offer a bonus or discount to the prospective student, and shall not make statements indicating that the prospective student must make a decision immediately or within a short period of time. No reference shall be made, either verbally or in writing, that other inducements, including but not limited to travel, equipment or textbooks, will be provided free to the prospective student for signing up during a specific period of time or for bringing in other new students.

6E-4.005 Student Protection Fund; Trainout Procedures for Closure.

Subsections (1)-(4), paragraphs (6)(a) and (6)(b) of this rule shall apply to all licensed nonpublic nondegree schools. Subsection (5) and paragraph (6)(c) shall apply to all licensed institutions.

(1) Establishment of Fund. There is hereby established a fund to be known as the Student Protection Fund, pursuant to Section 1005.37, F.S.

(2) Payment into the Student Protection Fund shall be made by all licensed nonpublic nondegree schools.

(3) Assessment Paid by Licensed Nondegree Schools. Each licensed school shall pay annually to the fund a specified amount equal to .0005 of the annual gross tuition revenue generated in Florida.

(4) Computation and Payment of Assessment.

(a) The Commission shall require each school to make a $500 payment to the Student Protection Fund before an initial Provisional License is issued. After the second year of operation, the $500 may be used to offset future payments to the Student Protection Fund.

(b) The counting period shall be the institution’s fiscal year.

(c) For programs offered by correspondence or distance education, only income from Florida students shall be counted for purposes of computing the assessment. For purposes of this rule, a Florida student is a student whose mailing address for purposes of receiving distance education lessons and materials from the school is a Florida address.

(d) The full and timely payment of the assessment is a condition of licensure. Failure to make such payment shall be grounds for disciplinary action against the school, or for changing the status of a school which is Licensed by Means of Accreditation to a Provisional License, or for denial of an application for license renewal.

(5) Application for and Granting of Train-out Awards.

(a) Any institution that enrolls a student who was enrolled in a licensed school but who was unable to complete a program at such school because the school ceased operations or terminated the program in which the student was enrolled may qualify for payments from the Student Protection Fund for training out the student in the program in which the student was previously enrolled.

(b) A licensed institution offering to train out an affected student(s) may apply for an award by letter to the Commission requesting a train-out award and identifying the school which ceased operations; the last known date that the school was open, or the closing date, if known; the program in which the student was enrolled; the date that the student’s program was terminated; the student’s Social Security number; and the approximate date on which the student began the program. Train-out institutions must provide to the Commission an accurate itemization of actual costs incurred during the training. The institution must also provide to the Commission an accounting of other funds that will be provided for the student. These funds will be considered when the Commission determines the amount of an award. The Commission will base awards on the availability of funds, the actual costs incurred, and the amount of other funds received. The train-out award and the cost of completing the program shall not exceed the actual cost of training out the student, minus other payments made by or on behalf of a student, minus the amount of any remaining accounts receivable. The Commission shall pay the award to the train-out institution within 45 days of the date of approval by the Commission.

(c) The full and timely payment of the assessment is a condition of licensure. Failure to make such payment shall be grounds for disciplinary or civil action against the school and its owners. Improper closing of a school without meeting the obligations required by Chapter 1005, F.S., and these rules, shall result in actions as provided in Sections 1005.36 and 1005.38, F.S.

(c) Before closing, a licensed institution shall:

1. Notify the Commission in writing at least 30 days prior to closing the institution, pursuant to Section 1005.36, F.S.;

   f. Evidence of refunds made to students not receiving trainout, repaying all outstanding student loans, or pro-rata refunds to students not having loans.
3. Notify the Commission, and provide documentation of meeting all student obligations, at the conclusion of the trainout.
4. When the Commission is notified that an institution is closing or has closed, the Commission shall:
   a. Have a representative of the Commission visit the institution as soon as practicable to review the current status of the institution and to provide a report to the Commission;
   b. Review the trainout plan to determine compliance with this rule;
   c. Assist in identifying and securing trainout at other institutions;
   d. Ensure that students are notified of their rights and responsibilities; and
   e. Share information regarding the closure with appropriate federal and state agencies and any other appropriate oversight bodies.
5. If the Commission is not notified, or if the institution has not provided for an orderly closing, the Commission shall:
   a. Organize a trainout committee composed of staff, Commission members, and other individuals to oversee an orderly trainout;

(2) Funds used by a foundation for state trust fund matching shall come from private contributions of cash and income producing real estate and securities beyond the amount equal to the average annual unrestricted cash contributions to the foundation for the three (3) consecutive fiscal years of the foundation ending prior to and nearest July 1, 1983. Funds used once for state trust fund matching shall not be used again for state trust fund matching.

(3) Each community college foundation shall establish its own academic improvement trust fund.

(4) Procedure to apply for reserved funds:

(a) When a foundation has deposited in its own academic improvement trust fund four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) that meets the requirements of (2) herein, it may apply to the State Board of Community Colleges for reserved funds.

(b) The application shall be a letter which shall include the certification of the head of the foundation that the amount used for matching is from private contributions, is deposited in the foundation’s academic improvement trust fund, is for Florida Academic Improvement Trust Fund for Community Colleges matching, and is beyond the amount equal to the average contributions required in (2) herein.

(c) The State Board of Community Colleges shall transmit the matching funds to the foundation’s academic improvement trust fund.

(e) The foundation may use an initial amount of more than four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) for matching. If so, it shall be an amount to produce a release from the state trust fund in a multiple of three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(a) After applying for the funds reserved for it, a foundation may apply to the State Board of Community Colleges for unreserved matching funds.

(b) The foundation may use funds for matching that meet the requirements of (2) herein in amounts that produce releases from the state trust fund in multiples of three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(c) The application shall be as prescribed in (4)(b) herein.

(d) Applications received before October 1 shall be held until October 1 before processing. If such applications represent more than is available in unreserved funds, the unreserved funds shall be distributed on the basis of the proportion of each application amount to the total application amount. If such applications represent less than is available in unreserved funds, they shall be processed in the order received in the Division of Community Colleges.

(e) If any reserved funds shift to unreserved on March 1, they shall be distributed first to offset any proportional distribution of October 1, and then in the order of applications received.

(f) No foundation shall receive more than a fixed percentage of the appropriation to the state trust fund in one state fiscal year. The percentage shall be the greater of fifteen percent (15%) or the percent that the college’s assigned enrollment is of the State Community College System’s assigned enrollment. The first fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) shall constitute the first challenge grant in any one year.
